State Recommends San Bernardino-Newport Highway

BERT MEEK TELLS PLAN AT MEETING

SYSTEM IS INCREASED

Another Highway Through Brea Canyon to Pomona Also Is Recommended

B. B. MEEK, state director of public works, revealed today in Los Angeles that the highway from Newport Beach to San Bernardino, through Santa Ana canyon, and the road through Brea canyon from Pomona to Fullerton are included in recommendations by the state highway commission for acceptance by the state into the secondary highway system in the southland.

Meek made the disclosure in an address at noon at a meeting of the southern council of the state chamber of commerce at the Alexandria hotel. In his address he outlined all the road projects in the state recommended by the highway commission, based on results of investigation authorized by the state legislature, and in accordance with promises made by Gov. C. C. Young.

The official recommendation concerning the Newport Beach-San Bernardino road is that it shall extend from Waterman canyon to San Bernardino and San Bernardino to Newport Beach, a distance of 63 miles. The Pomona to Fullerton highway is listed as 15.5 miles in distance.

Increases System

The total recommended additions increase the system in the north by 188 miles and in the south by 670 miles, or a ratio of one mile in the north to 3.56 miles in the south.

Additions for the southland are as follows:

Cambria to San Luis Obispo, 36 miles; Bishop to Nevada state line (Montgomery pass), 38; Bakersfield to Mojave, 60; Red box divide to Pine flats, 37; state highway route 26, near Colton via Pomona to Los Angeles, 42.5; Beaumont to Riverside (Jackrabbit trail), 19.5; Riverside to San Diego, inland route, 95; Pomona to Temecula, 56; Blythe to Colorado river and state highway route 64 to state hgihway route 26, near Indio, 23.5; National City to Tia Juana, 10; El Centro to Calexico, 8.5; Oasis to Nevada state line, 2; state highway route 2, Ventura to state highway route 4 at Castaic junction; from state highway route 31 near Cajon Pass to state highway route 23 near Lancaster.

Alturas to Oregon state line near New Pine creek, 34 miles; Burney to Burney Falls, 7; Marshall monument to Mother Lode highway, 1; Walnut creek to Oakland, 10; Quincy to state highway route 29, near Chat, 58; American canyon, 14.

Huge Expenditure

Basing estimates on possible requirement for a 10 year period from July 1, 1931, to July 1, 1941, to render the state system satisfactory in location, type, width and character for the probable

Tree Sitters In Santa Ana Thwarted

For at least four hours yesterday evening Santa Ana had representative tree sitting contestants when Bruce Harnois, 15, and a companion stationed themselves in a tree in the rear of the Harnois home, 414 East Walnut street and prepared themselves for a long siege.

Their hopes were thwarted however, when Mrs. Harnois arrived home about 10 o'clock and discovered the boys perched in the tree. Her objections resulted in the two would-be endurance contestants clambering down to seek their more comfortable if not so romantic beds, vowing to set tree sitting records at some future date.

JACOB BERMAN FOUND GUILTY ON 3 COUNTS

Judge Schauer, However, Acquits Him on Charges of Embezzlement

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—Jacob Berman, former Julian Petroleum corporation offical, today was found guilty of three counts of forgery but was acquitted of one count of embezzlement.

Judge B. Rey Schauer, who heard the case without a jury, announced the verdict shortly before noon and a few minutes after final arguments were closed.

The jurist first read his decision on the embezzlement charge, holding that Berman had not intended to defraud Daniel Barnes of $10,000 Barnes gave him to buy stock.

Judge Schauer then ruled there was sufficient evidence to prove that Berman was guilty on the counts of forgery and that he undoubtedly signed fictitious names to over-issued Julian stock certificates a short time before the Julian company collapsed in 1927.

The court set July 30 as the date for sentence. The three forgery counts carry a possible penalty of from three to 42 years in the penitentiary.

MURDERER DOOMED TO PRISON NOOSE

OAKLAND, Calif., July 25.—(UP)—Ed La Verne today faced the noose, convicted yesterday of killing Marcello Lagoria in the shortest murder trial in the history of Alameda county.

The verdict was brought in after a five minute deliberation by the jury which declined to recommend leniency.

Judge Fred V. Wood read the indictment to the jury at the start of the morning session and gave final instructions to that group 10 minutes after the final arguments were completed in the afternoon.

Le Verne will be sentenced next Monday, exactly two months after the crime was committed during a grocery store hold up.

The murderer claimed that the gun he was using in the robbery accidentally went off, killing Lagoria.

ACTRESS LOSES CAR FOR MOTORING NUDE

The 21 year old Hollywood casting director will continue motorless for a year if the court's recommendations are adopted by state authorities and Miss Egan's driving license is suspended for that period.

Miss Egan, appearing on a charge of driving while intoxicated, told the judge she was "very sorry" about the incident and her attorneys promised it would never happen again.

TRUCK DRIVER IS BURNED TO DEATH WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

R. E. MOORE, 44, truck driver, of 4600 East Eighth street, Long Beach, burned to death at 3 o'clock this morning, when the big truck he was driving, loaded with thousands of cans of tuna, ran off the Santa Ana-Long Beach highway, three miles west of Westminster, and fell into a 10-foot ditch, catching fire.

His body was burned to a crisp and all of it has not and probably will not be recovered. At 9:20 a. m. today volunteers had dug out a small portion of the body, a shoulder joint. At noon, part of the torso had been recovered.

Santa Ana firemen with long poles and deputy sheriffs, under the supervision of F. W. Howard, chief criminal deputy sheriff, worked for seven hours, in an effort to locate the body under the wreckage and to remove it. They were handicapped by the burning truck and the explosion of hundreds of cans of salmon, which popped incessantly as the men dug with shovels under the wreckage.

First reports were to the effect that two men were buried under the truck, but with the finding of Moore's body, workers declared there was no other body under the ruins.

The body of the man was not identified until noon today and then only through his employer, E. B. McClure, of 4321 East Fourth street, Long Beach, manager of the Interstate Transportation company, to whom the truck belonged. The company is located at 901 Pico street, Long Beach.

It was impossible to identify the body, so completely had it been burned in the fire.

Workers declared that Moore never had a chance for his life. They found the cabin door on the big truck shut tight, and declared that Moore was pinned underneath the wreckage when the truck dived into the ditch. Hundreds of cans of fish, jarred loose by the impact, completely buried the front part of the truck and cabin. Then the fire started that completed the devastation.

The explosion of the cans of fish, which occurred almost every five seconds during the remainder of the night and this morning, threw fish meat over a wide area.

Moore was delivering the load of fish from San Diego to Long Beach at the time of the accident. How the truck and trailer happened to get beyond his control and plunge into the ditch, will probably remain a mystery. There were no eye witnesses, so far as is known. A number of motorists, attracted to the scene, threw dirt over the wreckage in an effort to stamp out the flames, but it was noon today before water was brought to the scene and the flames extinguished.

Several times during the early hours this morning when efforts were made to extricate the body, workers were forced to stop because of the heat, the odor of burning fish and the explosion of the cans.

The body was brought to the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors here, where Coroner Charles D. Brown said he would hold an inquest. Time for the inquest has not been determined.

Moore was married and is survived besides his widow, by two daughters, both of whom reside in Long Beach.

BILLINGS AND MOONEY TO GO BEFORE COURT

May Testify at Pardon Application Hearings on Tuesday Next

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP)—Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, convicted of complicity in the San Francisco preparedness day parade bombing, July 22, 1916, may emerge from their prison cells and testify in person at the pardon application hearing to be held for Billings next Tuesday.

Personal appearance of the two prisoners would mean a faithful reproduction of the dramatic trials of 1916 and 1917 which resulted in conviction of the pair on charges of having murdered the 10 persons killed when a blast of dynamite disrupted the parade.

The possibility is strong, the United Press was informed by a reliable source, that the defense in the pardon hearing will request the supreme court to permit the appearance of the two men.

Refuses to Talk

Edwin V. McKenzie, attorney for Billings, refused to say anything when questioned but the fact that he conferred with Chief Justice William H. Waste was significant.

Should Mooney and Billings appear in court, the pardon hearing undoubtedly will be a "re-trial" of the entire bombing cases.

John MacDonald, star witness against Billings and Mooney, will be in a reversed role, however. This time he will seek to prove that he lied in identifying Billings and Mooney as the men who planted a suitcase containing dynamite at the scene of the explosion.

Charles M. (Thunderbolt) Fickert, the prosecuting attorney, whose throaty roar echoed through the court room when Billings and Mooney were tried for murder, may be on the scene but this time his efforts will be directed toward shattering MacDonald's story, rather than in strengthening it, as was the case at the original trials.

To Call Pair

The United Press informant said friends of Mooney and Billings desire that the pair be called from their prison cells as an offsetting factor to evidence the supreme court intends to hear apart from the MacDonald repudiation story.

One of the new developments which caused the defense to desire a personal appearance of their clients is the selection of Fred L. Berry, former assistant prosecuting attorney who aided in convicting Mooney and Billings, as a "representative of the people."

Thus the hearing on Billings pardon application may cover a much wider scope than originally planned. When MacDonald returned to California from Baltimore to tell the supreme court his repudiation story, it was thought that his claim of perjury in the trials would be the only feature of the hearing but now there is the possibility that every phase of the original trials will be reenacted, including the personal appearance of prosecutors, star witnesses and the defendants.

Convicted Killer Petitions Young

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—(UP)—George Riley, 21, alias "Kid" Riley, convicted in Oakland on killing George Jones in a holdup at Livermore last May, had a petition for executive clemency on file in Governor Young's office today.

Riley was convicted with Jack Gomez. Both were sentenced to be hanged August 15 at San Quentin. Riley's petition was submitted by his brother, Ralph, and will be forwarded to the governor at Los Angeles.

Calvin Coolidge Says

BY CALVIN COOLIDGE
Former President of the United States

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 25.—Investigation of the Amtorg, which is a Russian trading company, may raise some important questions. Our government has no diplomatic relations with Russia. But it is perfectly lawful for our nationals, at their own risk, to trade with Russia, or for her nationals to trade here.

Our law excludes from this country persons of certain beliefs and practices which we think are inimical to our government and institutions. But it is not the practice to inquire very minutely into the beliefs of foreigners coming here temporarily for genuine mercantile purposes. Besides, we have held the opinion that trade and time would be the means of restoring Russia. It had been supposed that the agents of the Amtorg were not engaged in anything but trade. If any investigation shows that they are taking advantage of the hospitality we have granted them as merchants to participate in activities against our peace and order, our government will take proper notice of that fact. Meantime it is proper to await proof before reaching final judgment. Our people are so thoroughly attached to their own system of self government that we need not feel it is imminent danger.

PRESBYTERIANS OPEN MEET IN LOS ANGELES

Santa Barbara Pastor Is Named Moderator For California Today

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—The tri-synod conclave of more than 1000 Presbyterians from California, Arizona and Nevada began second day sessions today with election of a third moderator and a number of lay conferences on the program.

The Rev. Clarence A. Spaulding, Santa Barbara, was elected moderator of the California Presbyterian synod, which includes Nevada, and the Rev. B. Wrenn Webb, Tucson, moderator for Arizona at the first business meeting last night. The United Presbyterians of California, holding a joint conference, will elect the third moderator late this afternoon. The Rev. L. M. Miller, Oakland, and the Rev. A. W. Webster, Salinas, were candidates for the office.

The Rev. Mr. Spaulding, the new California moderator, is a former Rhodes scholar and now has charge of selecting scholars in Southern California. He also is vice chairman of the national Presbyterian committee on marriage, remarriage and divorce, and

HUSTON PLANS TO QUIT POST ON AUGUST 7

Calls Meeting of Executive Committee of G. O. P. For That Date

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(UP)—Claudius H. Huston, of Tennessee, has announced his intention to resign on August 7 as chairman of the Republican national committee, and has called for that date a meeting of the party's executive committee to name his successor.

Who the successor will be has not been determined definitely although there are strong indications Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio may be chosen to serve, at least temporarily in spite of some opposition. President Hoover is understood to be disinclined to make a personal choice.

Huston's announcement of his intion to retire was made with the same unruffled dignity he has maintained ever since the senate lobby committee's disclosures concerning him brought a concerted demand for his resignation.

Behind his announcement is a story unequalled for drama in modern Washington politics.

It dates back to last spring when Huston testified before the senate committee that he had used temporarily $36,100 of a Muscle Shoals lobbying fund entrusted to him by the Tennessee River Improvement association, to bolster his marginal stock market account.

During the frequent parleys over the situation the only important leader who has sided with Huston was Chairman Moses of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, who has objected to selection of Fess.

Paper Head Flies To Mooney Quiz

Howard will attend the opening hearing of the Mooney-Billings appeal case in San Francisco next week.

Endurance Plane Flies Five Days

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—(UP)—Although a broken stabilizer caused brief anxiety yesterday, the endurance monoplane "Greater St. Louis" piloted by Forest O'Brine and Dale Jackson, swung into its fifth day aloft today.

The stabilizer, guiding equipment of the plane, quickly was repaired and no further trouble was expected from the quarter.

Flying high over Lambert Municipal flying field, O'Brine and Jackson passed their 101 hours in the air at 12:11 p. m. CST.

Saturday Is Last Day To Register

Tomorrow is the last day in which to register for the primary election to be held on August 26.

County Clerk Joe Backs will keep his office open until 9 o'clock tomorrow night in order to register those who desire to exercise their right on the last day.

Registrations during the few days have been heavy according to Backs, but he says the number in Santa Ana is still below that of the last general election.

Be sure and register on Saturday.

GRAPE CONTROL ACREAGE STILL SHORT BY 5000

Necessary Acres Must Be Signed By Midnight or Plan Lost

Expectations for yesterday that the deficit would be lowered to 6500 acres by this morning were surpassed, with only 5000 acres remaining for this final day of the three-day time extension.

Wylie M. Giffen, campaign chairman, said today that it was no doubt possible that the federal farm board would allow the present 85 per cent signup to "get by."

"But the adoption of this attitude," he said, "is highly dangerous. To quit before our quota is reached would be fool-hardy.

"I want to urge the men in the field and the growers as well that we must make one last big effort for success."

The deficit at the time of the mass meeting Tuesday night stood at 10,000 acres. That figure has now been reduced to one-half, or approximately 1 per cent of the 85 per cent necessary before the federal plan can become operative.

Since the farm board requests that the computations be in terms of tonnage, and since the figures announced so far have been percentages of acres, it was believed among grapemen that perhaps the quota would be reached even though the campaign lacked several hundred acres.

This was because of the general belief that tonnage figures will run higher than acreage figures, on the assumption that the most heavily bearing crops already have been contracted.

$53,122 CONTRACT AWARDED BY BOARD

The board of education at a special meeting at noon today, awarded the general contract for Julia Lathrop junior high school to Wilson and Beaver, of this city and Anaheim.

The Hickman brothers firm, San Pedro, was given the contract for heating and plumbing. The contract for installation of wires and electrical fixtures has not been passed out, the board having taken this under consideration for a further period.

The bid of Wilson and Beaver was $53,122 and that of Hickman brothers was $3798.

Shipment Of Fruit Trees Described In Realty Board Talk

Successful transportation of citrus nursery stock to South America and all portions of the United States as well as to other foreign countries was related by Fred May, of the May-Ketscher nurseries here, in an address at noon today at the meeting of the Santa Ana Realty board.

The nurseryman said that of 11,000 sweet stock trees sent to Morocco, only 500 were found dead upon arrival at destination, while only 150 were found dead in a shipment of 8500 sour stock trees.

Those planted have thrived remarkably well, according to word received by May.

M. E. Geeting presided as program chairman.

Gehlbach Leading Air Derby Entries

SAN ANGELO, Tex., July 25.—(UP)—Lee Gehlbach of Detroit, pace setter in the All-American air derby, led the field of 12 entries into San Angelo on the leg from Houston, at 11:16:35 a. m. today. His time from Houston was 2:15:35. He will receive a prize of $150 from the board of city developments here for being the first pilot to land at San Angelo airport.

SEARCH FOR BURIED DEAD CONTINUING

MILLION HOMELESS

Believed 2000 Are Dead in Province of Avellino Where Situation Worst

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright 1930 by United Press)

BENEVENTO, Italy, July 25.—(UP)—Rapidly mobilized relief forces poured into Italy's earthquake stricken provinces today, to attack the critical problem of food, clothing and shelter for the survivors of Wednesday's disaster, and to continue the search for hundreds of victims still buried beneath the crumbled masonry of their homes.

The morale of the entire region, shattered by widespread death and appalling destruction, was further depressed by slight earth tremors which the peasants describe as "earthquake weather."

3700 Death Toll

The death toll, estimated by the United Press at approximately 3700, appeared unchanged today, although every report from outlying hamlets carried with it new discoveries of bodies within the ruins of houses and farm buildings.

Inspecting of the devastated towns of Lacedonai and Aquilonia disclosed an estimated death list of 300 and 400 respectively, with many hundred more seriously injured.

The condition of the houses still standing in Lacedonia and Aquilonia is so dangerous that the authorities today ordered complete evacuation of these localities by the survivors—a task made difficult by the unwillingness of the peasants to leave their life long homes, or to abandon their frenzied search for missing relatives.

Heavy Loss of Life

A semi-official estimate of authorities within the devastated provinces is that at least 2000 are dead in the province of Avellino, where the greatest force of the temblor was exerted. The province of Benevento also suffered heavily in loss of life, though probably to a lesser extent than Avellino. The lightest casualty list wil be found in the province of Naples.

Fear that the earth is "not completely settled," and that more severe shocks may be experienced, still grips the inhabitants.

TWO MURDERED IN DETROIT WARFARE

DETROIT, July 25.—(UP)—Two more murders, the latest early today, the other late yesterday, were added to the growing list of major crimes in Detroit today.

Jack Brown, 34, landscape painter, was shot to death this morning while seated in his automobile in front of a boarding house where he lived. He had been released yesterday from the Detroit house of correction, where he had served 60 days. He had been convicted of assault and battery on the complaint of Evelyn Littlefield.

Patrolmen caught Miss Littlefield who said she had lived with Brown six or seven months, fleeing from the scene.

They believed Brown was killed by a man who had been keeping company with the woman while Brown was in jail.

Four Hunters Test Ship In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, July 25.—(UP)—The four flying Hunter brothers took their record endurance plane City of Chicago out of its hangar today for a test flight which may be a preliminary to another long sky journey.

The Hunters, appearing here at a movie theater to tell of their 553-hour flight in Chicago, planned to attempt another flight if Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine pass their record in a flight over St. Louis. The latter two have been aloft more than four days.

In their test today, the refueling ship Big Ben will be used by the Hunters to establish a fuel connection with the City of Chicago.

STATE PLANS NEW HIGHWAY TO NEWPORT

traffic which will develop on each route, the commission finds that it will require $138,813,983 for the primary system in the north, and $85,084,409 in the south, or a total for the primary system of $223,898,392. Expenditures for the secondary system for the ten year period would be $72,652,824 in the north and $17,014,690 in the south, or a total of $89,667,514. The grand total is $313,565,906.

The ultimate cost to bring the added mileage to the secondary system to standard is estimated at $6,116,000 in the north and $59,165,605 in the south. Combining the two estimates for the ten year period makes a grand total of $357,134,016, divided $217,582,807 to the north and $139,551,209 to the south.

"The expenditures of the above sums will not complete the present state highway system or the additional roads presented," says C. H. Purcell, chief of the division of engineers of the highway commission, who compiled the report upon which Meek based his statements. "Completion of a highway system is a relative term. The estimate makes a conservative allowance for the growing traffic demands. It still leaves unimproved, except by minor improvements and maintenance, that would keep them in travelable condition, some portions of the minor highways, such as certain sections of some of the trans-Serra roads. Minor improvements only are included on those sections where large increase in travel seems remote and where a radical program of improvement is necessary, such as relocation in heavy country, which must first be justified by a traffic demonstration. The total estimates of cost presented should be qualified by the fact that future changes in conditions, which cannot be foreseen, may alter the probable construction program."

Heavy Revenue

Pointing to the estimated total of $357,134,616 for construction and reconstruction for the ten year period, the engineer estimates the probable revenue for the same period at $320,252,751.

Commenting on the roads added to the system, the engineer says, "These roads qualify for state inclusion either by reason of the large volume of state traffic that they are now carrying, or by reason of the relief they afford to heavy traffic upon present state highways, or as highways serving as important interstate links. The selection was made after an economic engineering and traffic study. The added mileage brings secondary to 1966 miles in the north and 1195 miles in the south.

"The analysis of facts brought out during this investigation brings assurance that with continuance of the present program of progressive development with revenues now authorized, the primary roads, by 1940, would be expected to have alignment, grade, width and surface equal to practical traffic demands. By then the primary system should reach, for the first time in its history, a status where current requirments will have been supplied, a point beyond which continued efforts might hope to anticipate highway needs. Until then the business of overcoming present deficiencies and meeting future demands on this important class of state highways should not be retarded by reapportionments which would lower revenues."

Action on proposed unification of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian denominations will be taken by the latter group at its business sessions. General assemblies of each church already have approved the plan.

The Rev. Frank Mitchell Silsley, retiring California moderator, led devotional services at the opening meeting last night. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, Washington, D. C., representing the general assembly, was the principal speaker at today's business session.

Gov. C. C. Young will address the synods tonight.

MOTORCYCLE HITS PARKED AUTOMOBILE

Police were today seeking the owner of a motorcycle which last night is alleged to have crashed into the parked car of E. H. Gardner, of 330 Halesworth avenue, and then to have darted off without stopping.

No one was hurt at the time. Gardner reported the accident to the police, at the same time turning over to them the number of the motorcycle.

PLAN BRIDGE OVER SAN FRANCISCO BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP) — The San Francisco bay bridge, for 50 years a project, neared reality today with the announcement by the Hoover-Young bay bridge commission that all sites but one had been rejected.

The one route remaining is from Rincon hill, San Francisco, to Goat Island to the Oakland shore via the Key route mole.

Two other sites which had survived preliminary consideration—Hunters Point to Alameda and Telegraph Hill to Goat Island to Oakland—were finally rejected yesterday: the Hunters Point site because it did not come within the commission's jurisdiction, and the northerly site because bedrock lay so deep along its route as to "make it impracticable from an engineering standpoint."

RAILROAD ABANDONS SPUR TRACK FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad suddenly abandoned today its fight to maintain a spur track on the property of the Sudden Lumber company at Vernon.

A suit brought by the lumber company seeking a permanent injunction against maintenance of the spur was dismissed today by Federal Judge Frank H. Norcross at the request of Phillip S. Erlich, attorney for the company. Erlich said that an agreement had been reached under which the railroad would abandon the spur and build on a new right-of-way near the disputed territory.

The suit started July 14, when, the lease expiring, the lumber company ordered the tracks torn up. The railroad sent a crew to put them down again.

Court Notes

The inheritance tax appraisal report in connection with the estate of Elizabeth W. Innes, who died May 30, 1929, was filed yesterday afternoon with County Clerk J. M. Backs, showing a clear market value of $54,011.07 after deductions of $4655.59. The entire estate, according to the report, goes to Wells W. Innes, a son. The inheritance tax amounted to $810.44.

WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

5000 PERSONS AT CONCERT IN PARK THURSDAY

BY RUTH ANDREWS

The customary summer throng of approximately 5000 enthusiastic music lovers again greeted the Santa Ana Municipal band in its weekly concert program, presented in Birch park last evening under the direction of D. C. Cianfoni. Musical selections chosen from the works of German composers were featured, as was also the appearance of the attractive women's chorus, the Treble Clef club, in an appealing song group.

Blankenburg's stirring march, "German Fidelity," was cleanly phrased, brass heavily shaded at its closing. Brilliant contrasts were effective in a forceful, warmly-applauded interpretation of Mendelssohn's well-known "Military Overture." Subdued woodwinds in the opening movement seemed especially typical of the peaceful type of harmonization characteristic of Mendelssohn. Vital contrast was emphasized in the overture's second movement, where booming bass in abrupt staccato effects was clearly defined above sustained animation of well-coordinated wind instruments.

The featured arrangement from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was accorded a satisfying, artistic interpretation, read by the director with a feeling for dramatic color, the shimmering, ever-changing harmonization so typical of Wagner invested with real significance. The latter part was especially vital in its dramatically sudden contrasts of shading and volume, well taken by the instrumentation.

Attractive in their pastel hued costumes, an ensemble from the popular chorus, the Treble Clef club, was much enjoyed in a pleasing song-group. Feminine voices blended sweetly in classic grace of Haydn's "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," reminiscent of bygone days. "The Dancers," a melodious sparkling lyric of Moszkowski, was equally appealing, the club being led by its director, Prof. Cianfoni, and accompanied by the band.

Harry Hanson, president and manager of the band, announced that next Thursday night the band would feature "French Night" with musical selections to be chosen from French composers, and Margherita Marsden, favorite local mezzo-soprano and concert artist, appearing in the role of soloist, singing the vivid "Gypsy Song" from "Carmen." Hanson also stated that tomorrow the band would play in Birch park from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. in connection with the elaborate program to be staged in honor of the opening of the new boulevard.

Lincke's rhythmic "Glowworm" with its daintily whimsical, oft-repeated melody made appealing interlude, contrasted by two provocative "Hungarian Dances" from Brahms, that German master of typical Gypsy folk-themes. Contrasts of mood and shading, clearly marked phrasing and explosive staccato characterized these dances, always favorites with every audience.

Floating suggestive melody of Waldteufel's "Skaters" with its twinkling waltz themes was replete with motion. The concert was concluded by the familiar "March" from "Tannhauser" (Wagner), its ever-interchanging instrumentation and crashing climax of heavy drum and tympani dramatically emphasized.

PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—Trading was rather sluggish today and what few prices changes were recorded were mostly in a downward direction.

Apples were a little firmer, Sebastopol Gravensteins jobbing at 3-3¼c a lb. The first Watsonville Bellflowers of the season at 5½c a lb. Apricots remained practically unchanged, good Northern stock jobbing at 4-5c a lb., wiht a few as high as 5½c.

Santaloupes were somewhat less plentiful and good stock was held firm. The best H. B. X in standard crates sold at $1.00-$1.25. While fairly good tips jobbed at $1.00-$1.25 a crate mor the large sizes.

Seedless grapes from the San Joaquin valley moved a trifle better today @ 2-2½c a lb., but Malagas were lower @ 3-3½c.

Miscellaneous melons of all kinds moved very slowly at unchanged prices.

Hale peaches from the San Joaquin valley were lower at 4½-5c a lb. While Elbertas were weak at 3-3½c.

Tomatoes were in smoewhat lighter supply than yesterday and cleaned up a little better, altho prices were unchanged. The best Earlianas jobbe dat 50-7'c a lug, with the 6x6 size at 40-50c and 6x7s at 25-35c. A very few lugs of sotne tomatoes were sold a t75c-$1.00.

Demand for watermelons was very poor because of the cool weather and the best Imperial valley Klondikes were being offered at $200 a car, with no early sales reported.

Potatoes continued to be firmly held the best local white rose selling carlots at $2.40-$2.50 per cwt., with others at $2.20-$2.35.

LAGUNA BEACH MAN ENDS LIFE WITH BULLETS

J. J. Finnegan, 77, of Laguna Beach, committed suicide at 8:30 o'clock last night at his home at 383 Magnolia drive, by shooting himself twice in the head with a revolver. A coroner's inquest was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Laguna Beach funeral parlors, with Coroner C. D. Brown in charge.

Finnegan was the father of Harold Finnegan, manager of the Southern Counties Gas company in Laguna Beach. He had lived in the beach city for about two months. He formerly lived in Costa Mesa. He had been in ill health for some time.

Hearing the shots, members of the William Switzer family, with whom he lived, rushed to his room. Physicians were called but he died half an hour later.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Fraternity Group Arranges Meetings

Plans for monthly meetings of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity members now living in Santa Ana were completed yesterday when a little group of the Greek lettermen lunched together in Ketner's cafe and renewed their allegiance to the society.

Among other matters discussed as possibilities of the future was the forming of a country-wide alumni association, since it is believed that there are many more Alpha Tau Omega men living in this vicinity who would be interested in identifying themselves with such an association.

Future meetings will be hel don the first Thursday of each month and will be luncheon sessions held in the Ketner cafe.

Those present yesterday represented colleges and universities in all parts of the United States and were Russell Adkinson, Ben Blee, William Ashford, F. W. Brockman, Garry W. Eden, Stanley E. Goode, Mortimer Hall, Paul Hyson, Alfred I. Melenthin, Lorin G. Moore, Ray Wolford and Tevis Westgate.

Their next meeting will be that of Thursday, August 7.

5 PRISONERS IN TRIAL DEMANDS; 2 ADMIT GUILT

Jury trials were demanded by five prisoners who entered pleas of not guilty before Judge James L. Allen today during the session of superior court handling criminal matters. In two other cases pleas of guilty were entered and applications for probation resulted in hearings being set for August I. A probation hearing before Judge G. K. Scovel completed the criminal calendar today.

The guilty pleas were entered by M. J. Haskell and Felix Lugo. Haskell, charged jointly with his wife, answered guilty when arraigned on a burglary charge. The Haskells are alleged to have entered the home of Miss Maude Graham in Brea. Mrs. Haskell pleaded not guilty and was released by the court on her own recognizance. Lugo was charged by the district attorney's office with issuing a fictitious check.

Pedro Gonzales, who faces a murder charge as the result of a clash with Manuel Valenzuela, in which he fatally stabbed the latter, denied that he was guilty of the charge. The court set September 17 as time for the trial. Gonzales demanded a jury. N. D. Meyer and Morris Cain are attorneys for the accused man.

Rudy Goetz, who is charged with resisting an officer as a result of an altercation with the law at Orana, appeared in court without counsel and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge, when he was arraigned. A jury will hear the evidence in the case on August 4. Goetz, it is understood, plans to conduct his own defense.

Ralph Stull, charged with operating a car while intoxicated and failing to stop and render aid after an accident, entered pleas of not guilty upon arraignment before the court. His trial, also to be conducted before a jury, was set for September 11.

Owning and operating a still was the charge on which Jesus Galban and Panfilo Diaz were arraigned. They entered pleas of not guilty and will be tried by a jury on August 20, according to the court schedule.

A charge of asasult with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder was continued in the information filed with the court in the case of Rafael Lopez. The prosecution is the outgrowth of an alleged attack on Ignacio Savala, which took place June 11. Lopez pleaded not guilty when arraigned and had his jury trial set for August 12.

Judge Scovel heard the application of E. C. Posey for probation and granted the request for a two-year period, on condition the prisoner serve a 90-day jail sentence, and after his release make arrangements to pay for the support of his step-son. Posey was in court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor as a result of a beating he gave the boy while he was intoxicated. Pictures submitted to the court showed severe bruises and welts caused by the whipping.

Restrain Woodmen Heads In Higher Rate Collection

Judge Louis Bernreider of Nashville, Ill., has issued an order restraining officers of the Modern Woodmen of America from collecting higher rates established by the head office of the fraternal order, according to a telegram received today by J. G. Mitchell from J. W. McKissick, secretary of the national rate-increase committee of the order.

Mitchell pointed out that members are demanding a referendum on the rate increase, and that the injunction will restrain the collection of higher rates until it is determined whether the members have a legal right to demand a referendum.

TWO WOMEN HURT IN CAR COLLISION

Two women were seriously injured at 3:15 p. m. yesterday, when the automobile in which they were riding with Ed C. Connett, 49, of 815 East Fifth street, collided with a machine driven by Paul Eastman, 19, of 7415 Hollywood boulevard, Hollywood.

The injured were Mrs. R. C. Cornett, 81, and Mrs. Hattie Cornett, 54. They were taken to the Orange county hospital. No arrests were made.

REPEAT CAR CIRCUS SATURDAY EVENING

The automobile circus to be given at the Orange county fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, under the auspices of motor dealers of the county, will be repeated in the evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced today by Fred M. Pentecost, director of the circus.

Crashing of automobiles head on, with a dynamite explosion following, blazing automobiles leading through the air, stunts by the "mash marvel," and the burning of a pile of old automobiles are among the special features designed to bring thrills tc the hundreds of men and women expected to attend the performance.

A parade of old wrecks, lead by the "mask marvel" created some excitement Wednesday afternoon on the streets of Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton.

According to Pentecost, motor dealers of the county are contributing plenty of cars to make the automobile bonfire a real event.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

No two souls are identical, yet all are alike in the sense that no one is sufficient unto itself; each depends upon others and upon God.

You receive strength from your dear one in Paradise to enable you to do your duty bravely and well. That one is made happy by your sincere endeavor and by your striving to be ready for the reunion which is to be when your work here is done.

Both of you look to God for guidance and strength, and as you draw near to Him you come ever closer to each other.

DRAWS 90 DAYS WHEN JUSTICE SMELLS LIQUOR

When Lucian B. Seward, of 921 North Hill street, Oceanside, walked into Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning, he expected to retrieve his automobile operator's license, taken away from him six months ago on a reckless driving charge. Instead, he was taken to the county jail to start serving a 90-day jail sentence, which was suspended when his reckless driving charge was heard here. According to Justice Kenneth Morrison, Seward had been drinking and this was one of the provisions of his suspended sentence.

Seward was arrested December 29, 1929, on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. The man was taken into custody by Officer Harry Aldrich of the state force. The charge was reduced to reckless driving and when it came to court, Seward was fined $150, his operator's license suspended for six months and he was given a 90-day suspended jail sentence on condition that he not take a drink during the six months.

Justice Morrison smelled liquor on Seward's breath when he came into court this morning and accused him of it. The court called the county health physician and an examination was made, with the result that it was established that Seward had had a drink or two, so he was taken over across the street to the jailhouse.

IMPERIAL OFFICERS FORM ORGANIZATION

Perfection of an organization to be known as the Imperial Valley Peace Officers' association was made last night at El Centro, when 46 officers of the county met at the Barbara Worth hotel with a delegation of Orange county officers, members of the Orange County Peace Officers' association.

For the past several months, Imperial county officers have desired to form an organization like the one in this county and it was for this purpose that President John Stanton, chief of police of Tustin, and several other officers, including Frank Lutz, B. A. Hershey, E. E. Perry and Jess Elliott, went to El Centro yesterday.

C. L. Gillette, sheriff of Imperial county, was named president of the new organization; Lon Cromer, chief of police of Brawley, was names first vice president, and George W. Wright, of the Imperial county sheriff's office, was named secretary and treasurer.

The local officers who attended the meeting at El Centro returned to Santa Ana early this morning.

Damages of $7450 Awarded Plaintiff In Accident Suit

One of the largest automobile accident damage case awards made recently in superior court was returned yesterday afternoon by Judge James L. Allen at the close of the trial of the action brought by John E. Grant against Walter R. Grinrod. The count granted the plaintiff $7450.15 and costs.

Grant was injured in a collision in Santa Ana last December, which he alleged was due to the negligence and carelessness of the defendant. He sustained a borken leg and was confined to the hospital for six months. He asked for $20,000 personal damages, $1250 loss of wages and $550 medical expenses. There was a large number of witnesses for both plaintiff an ddefendant who testified during the day.

A 10-day stay of execution after a motion for a new trial was granted by the court. It was stipulated that a drawing on the court blackboard could be photographed.

Indian Slated To Talk At Services In Church Tonight

A special service at the Four Square church, corner of Fairview and Sycamore streets at 7:30 p. m. today will be featured by the appearance of Chief Manitowog, a full blooded chief of the Siwash tribe, who will conduct the service. The tribe hails from Washington, and the chief, who is 83 years old, is among the last of his fast vanishing race. He is a preacher and evangelist.

The old chief is the 24th child of his mother, who, as well as his father, lived to be 125 years old. He will be in full Indian dress and will sing in both the Indian and English language. He will tell the story of his conversion while he was in Sing Sing.

A special musical program is being arranged for the service and preparations are being made to care for a large crowd.

Arrange Funeral Of Fred Schultz

Funeral services for Fred W. Schultz, 36, of Newport Beach, who was drowned on July 19, when he fell from a dredger in Newport harbor, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Grooms-Risenberg funeral parlors of Costa Mesa, it was announced today.

Schultz met his death by falling from the dredger north of Balboa island early in the morning. It is not known how he slipped but his body was found two hours later by fellow employes. He had lived in Newport Beach about one year.

He was survived by his wife, Mrs. March Schultz, of Okmulgee, Okla., and one brother, Edward, of Melvin, South Dakota. The Rev. A. F. Hasse of the Community church of Costa Mesa will officiate at the services, assisted by the American Legion of Newport Beach. Interment will be made in Central Memorial park.

Prison Directors Set Convict's Term

The state board of prison directors, meeting at San Quentin, on July 18, has fixed the terms of imprisonment of Brady Ramsey, who was sentenced from Orange county superior court last year, it was learned today from a notice sent to County Clerk J. M. Backs by the secretary of the prison board.

Ramsey, it will be recalled, attacked Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff F. A. Howard when the officer attempted to make an arrest March 16, 1929, in connection with a liquor charge. The prisoner was convicted with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder and of owning and operating a still. He was received at the prison on June 14, 1929, and the terms provide that he shall serve seven and three years.

FINISH PLANS FOR OPENING OF S. A. BOULEVARD

All details had been completed today for the big parade tomorrow at 11 a. m., in celebration of the completion and opening of Santa Ana boulevard, it was announced by George Raymer, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

Pointing out that virtually every city in Orange county will send delegations, with approximately 150 persons expected from points along the route of the Manchester boulevard, Raymer said that indications today pointed to a large procession of automobiles.

The secretary stressed the point that residents of the city are requested to decorate their homes, particularly those along the route outlined for the parade. Those having flags procured from the American Legion are urged to display them.

There will be no delay in starting the parade, and it will move promptly at 11:01 a. m., Raymer declared.

The parade will form on the west side of the state highway north of the new boulevard, in the following order:

PLANK RESIGNS AS DOPE BUREAU HEAD

Capt. Joe Plank, formerly of Santa Ana, and for the past two years head of the southern division of the state narcotic bureau, yesterday tendered his resignation, giving as his reasons the fact that the Los Angeles police department had been given jurisdiction over his department.

Plank's determination to quit was expressed in a letter sent to Capt. Harry Seager, chief of the state division of narcotic law enforcement. The letter read as follows:

"Please consider this my resignation from the narcotic division effective July 11, 1930. My reason is:

"That the state legislature created this position as a state force and not subservient to the Los Angeles police department."

Plank took a 30-day leave of absence on July 11, when his state office in the Union League building was moved to Central police station under Capt. William Cahill.

The change came when Capt. Harry Seager of the Los Angeles police department was appointed head of the state dope bureau.

Hold Inquest For Victim Of Flames

The body of Charles Livermore, 34, gardener on the Bryant ranch in the Santa Ana canyon, who was burned to death Wednesday afternoon when a range fire swept over 500 acres of the ranch, was taken to Chino in San Bernardino county this morning from the Seale undertaking parlors in Fullerton for an inquest.

When the body was found it lay in a ravine just a few feet the other side of the Orange county line in San Bernardino county and therefore it was necessary that the inquest be held in the county where death occurred.

The inquest was to be held by the coroner of San Bernardino county. The body will be returned to Fullerton this afternoon, after which funeral arrangements are to be made, it was reported.

Livermore had no relatives in this party of the country. He had been employed on the ranch since last May and lost his life when he and a number of other ranch employes rushed from the ranch to fight the flames.

Salesman Jailed On Forgery Count

U. Martinson, salesman, of 1538 1-2 North Serrano avenue, Los Angeles, arrested there yesterday on a charge of forgery, was brought to the county jail last night by Deputy Sheriffs Howard and Buckles.

Martinson is alleged to have forged a check at the Eddie Martin airport here several days ago. In Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning his preliminary examination was set for July 30 and he was released on his own recognizance.

Justice Morrison said that he understood the money for the check had been paid by the man to the Martin airport.

Y. PING PONG EXPERTS MAKE SCORE OF 1038

The Y. M. C. A. ping pong endurance contest is gaining in speed and heat. While boys in other localities are wasting their time in sitting on posts and trees, these "Y" boys are industriously building strength and skill by keeping a ping pong ball in the air for long periods of time. They find it a great advantage in that rest opportunities are frequent and refreshing.

Following up the records set last week, the work has continued until yesterday with no new high marks set, but yesterday afternoon, Brooks Wright and Harry Flockton came through with a record of 999 shots in 11 1-2 minutes of juggling the little celluloid ball.

This morning, Brooks changed partners, and returned to his winning combination with "Mutt" Duffle. This team, Wright and Duffle, then proceeded to go over the thousand mark for the first time, setting a new high of 1038 hits in 12 minutes, on the strength of which they claim a world's record, which is to stand until they can beat it.

If anyone questions the skill and endurance and nerve required in this contest, he is advised to get a partner and a couple of ping pong paddles and a ball, and see how hard it is to keep the ball in motion for a long time, without a miss or a rest.

Wright and Duffle have issued a blanket challenge to all comers to equal or beat their record, although they confidently expect to make it a 1500 as soon as they get a little more practice.

Accident Victim Seeking $64,560

A. E. Zapf filed a $64,560.14 damage suit in superior court yesterday afternoon against Valere Vermeulen.

In the suit the plaintiff claims the amount sought for injuries alleged to have been received in an accident which took place at the intersection of Jefferey and Trabuco roads on February 18. Among the injuries alleged to have been received by the plaintiff are a fractured leg and ribs and lacerations on the head, body, and arms. Medical fees, personal damages and loss of time from employment are itemized in the complaint.

3 Ask Court For Divorce Decrees

Three divorce cases were filed in superior court yesterday afternoon in which charges of cruelty and desertion were made.

Ralph L. Lenox is asking for a divorce from Violet Lenox on the grounds of desertion. The parties in the suit have been separated for five years. Vorella E. Duncan is charging Woodson Duncan with desertion after their second marriage on December 8, 1923. Cruel and inhuman treatment is the charges made by C. W. Kibel against Bessie M. Kibel.

EX-JUSTICE TO DIRECT RILEY'S WORK IN SOUTH

That Ray L. Riley, present state controller and candidate for re-election, will have the endorsement and support of civic leaders throughout the state is evidenced by the announcement that Ex-Chief Justice Louis W. Myers of the supreme court of California has accepted the chairmanship of Riley's campaign for Southern California.

"More than ever," stated Ex-Chief Justice Myers, "is it necessary to have in the office of controller a man whose past record is flawless and whose experience, ability and integrity are unquestioned. Such a man is Ray L. Riley, who, during the past nine years has to my knowledge clearly demonstrated his qualifications for the office which he now holds, and, in accepting the chairmanship of Mr. Riley's campaign, I feel that I am doing no more than my duty as a citizen to protect and maintain the interests of the citizens of the state."

MOTORIST ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Frank Duran, 35, of 924 Logan street, was arrested at his home last night and lodged in the county jail on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

The car he was said to have been driving is alleged to have collided with an automobile owned by Frank Lindsey, of 813 North Flower street. The accident happened at 6:30 o'clock last night. Officer E. E. Perry made the arrest. No one was hurt in the accident.

WALLACE ARRAIGNED ON FORGERY CHARGE

Ray Wallace, former police officer here, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court shortly before noon today on a charge of forgery, following his arrest in Los Angeles last night.

Wallace was arrested by sheriff's officers on a charge of non-support, but the felony charge, which was being held here against him, was substituted when he was taken into court.

According to the complaint, Wallace is alleged to have given the First National bank of Santa Ana a note for $100 on January 16, 1930, with the name of H. A. Bowles, forged to it.

The preliminary examination has been set for July 30 at 9 a. m. and bail of $3000 was demanded, which the prisoner did not make.

The non-support count against Wallace was not brought up in court this morning.

L. A. Man Cited On Check Charge

Charged with issuing a fictitious check, Leslie L. White, 51, of 1303 Middlebrook avenue, Los Angeles, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court today and his preliminary examination set for July 30 at 9 a. m. He was released on his own recognizance.

W. Maxwell Burke, manager of radio station KREG, was the complaining witness in the case. He appeared and asked that the man be released on his own recognizance, according to Justice Morrison.

White was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Howard and Buckles in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon on a Santa Ana warrant.

CANDIDATE ATTACKS SLEEPER IN SPEECH IN GARDEN GROVE; CHAFFEE REFUTES ARGUMENTS

George D. Montgomery, Anaheim rancher who is candidate opposing James Sleeper for the nomination of county assessor, opened his campaign in a meeting at the Women's clubhouse in Garden Grove last night, that was attended by a group of approximately 25 persons, including several civic and political leaders of the county.

Montgomery made a statement of his reasons for seeking the office and outlined plans he has if elected.

Statements were made by several other persons, who declared that actions of Sleeper had forced them to seek a change in the administration of the office in spite of personal friendship. Alleged failure on the part of Sleeper to co-operate in following the recommendations of the last grand jury for a reappraisal of property in the county in an effort to secure equalization of values, and charges of inefficiency, were the theme of the complaint expressed by those who spoke.

Deputy Speaks

A feature of the meeting was the appearance of R. A. Chaffee, deputy in the office of Sleeper, who presented a staunch defense of the actions of the assessor and answered criticisms of the alleged actions and failures as charged by previous speakers.

J. A. Knapp, of Garden Grove, acted as chairman of the meeting. He introduced the candidate to the group, characterizing him as a man of affairs, capable and active.

Montgomery in his address pointed out several instances of inequality in assessments; pointed out that the grand jury had made a recommendation after an investigation that revealed some astounding inequalities; called attention to the importance of the duties of the assessor on whose work depends the raising of county funds; declared for courtesy and efficiency in the office, declared that modern methods should be used in the assessor's office and that the books should at all times be available to the public, and called attention to the fact that Chicago's money difficulties started many years ago with inequalities in assessments.

Made Investigation

"I made an investigation of the inequalities existing in the county under the present regime before I decided to present myself as a candidate," Montgomery stated. "One instance of the inequalities that are numerous is that of a foreman in my packing house. His valuation was raised $200 this year, after he painted his house and changed a little cottage into a garage. His neighbor had made absolutely no changes and his assessment was reduced $150. It is a small amount but the principle is there and is irritating.

"The board of equalization has not received many objections in the past because the taxpayer can not take the time to appear and feels 'What's the use—I'll have to pay anyway.' Americans are fair and expect to pay as much for government as their neighbors, whether they are next door or across the county, and likewise expect their neighbors to pay as much as they do.

"Interviews with members of the grand jury who made the investigation leading to the recommendation revealed that much time was spent on this matter and that inequalities were found on every hand, some of which were astounding. Their report on the matter is prima facie evidence that a condition exists that is unjust, unfair, unlawful and un-American.

Expenses $52,000

"I believe in being an honest, fearless, conscientious and impartial servant of the people. Our county is a big institution and the expense of the assessor's office amounts to $52,000. Tenure of office should depend on service and not political preferment.

"Last spring there was an opportunity to show that the official was loyal and would welcome an investigation. Interested persons tried to get him to co-operate, but he refused. The most important work of the grand jury as a consequence went for naught. A condition exists contrary to public welfare. One man thwarted the grand jury's contribution to the best interests of 135,000 people.

Asks Efficiency

"If elected I hope to reorganize the entire office. There have been rapid changes in the last 10 years. Systems change almost over night. There has been a wave of efficiency and business costs have been cut. Modern methods and improved systems should be installed in the office at once. The expense of the office from 1925 to 1928 increased from $26,983 to $50,685.

"The underlying cause of the financial conditions in Chicago is inequality of assessments. Three years ago a committee of citizens forced publication of lists and the storm broke. Many refused to pay taxes on the basis of such inequalities. Now a reappraisement is under way, and no tax bills have been sent out for two years. There is a lesson for Orange county in the Chicago situation. Tax lists should be available to all, published for any man to see, then there will be no chance for politicians to play tricks with taxes. Property should be described by street address instead of hieroglyphics.

"It is possible that a reassessment in Orange county may not be necessary. A survey would show that. Opening all the records to the public would help the condition. A survey might save the cost of a reappraisal which would lower the cost of taxes. Great principles are involved—of justice and injustice."

Other speakers last night declared that conditions in the office convinced them that a change was necessary.

"Taxation is a constant source of friction and dissatisfaction," one averred, "and until some method is found to get equalization adjusted some major issues in the county face bitter fights. The condition in the office of the assessor is due to inefficiency, not a lack of desire. I believe that after Sleeper's refusal, the only solution of the problem is change of management in the office."

Maps Exhibited

Another speaker called attention to a large map of the county showing several proposed divisions. One was made by Sleeper, at the Santa Ana river. In another division, which it was declared was practically an actual division on acreage, the line came on down past the river to the northern boundaries of the San Joaquin and Silverado school districts. It was pointed out that in this acreage division of the county, the north part was assessed at approximately $157,000,000 and the southern half at approximately $15,700,000. The speaker asserted that the southern half included the Irvine ranch, for which he said he understood an offer of $100,000,000 had been made, and which certainly was worth $60,000,000.

"On the same basis as our assessments this property alone should be assessed at $20,000,000," he declared. "Yet the entire district is only $15,000,000." He also spoke of the work of the grand jury and the importance of its work.

C. C. Sidnam, of Anaheim, used the map in his talk, in which he pointed out that Laguna and Serra districts pay about half of the entire assessed value of the south part of the acreage half of the county. He pointed out that Irvine has about six and a half miles of beach frontage, valued at from $250 to $300 per front foot, but that it was assessed at a top price of $700 per acre. He also took exception to Sleeper's method of reaching assessment values, saying that it requires careful study and scientific knowledge, rather than driving past a piece of land and taking down prices from real estate signs.

Refutes Arguments

Chaffee, who stated that he had been in the office for the past eight years as a deputy and was familiar with conditions, next took the floor and made a statement refuting many of the arguments that had been advanced and presented a different light on many of the allegations that had been made.

"In this so-called south half of the county, you must take into consideration that there are 40,000 acres of national forest, which is non-assessable," Chaffee declared. "Then on the Irvine ranch, which you assert is assessed so low, there is less than 5000 acres under irrigation. The line dividing north and south so far as acreage, is fair, but so far as it refers to assessment purposes it is absurd.

"Mr. Sleeper does not refuse people permission to see the books, in fact I have heard him many times, invite them to make an inspection and have heard him state that if people would come in and look them over they would find that there is no cause for fancied objections. If people having complaints would come in and see the records they would get a different attitude.

"The Irvine beach property is assessed equitably with the adjoining properties on the north and south. And as far as the statement that the top assessment on the Irvine property is $700 an acre is concerned, that is just another mistake. The top assessment price is $2000 per acre.

Wants Survey

"Sleeper wants a survey of the county. He never fought it except on the grounds that it would spend more of the county money than it was worth. He asked for funds to do the work two years ago but was refused. He has revalued the buildings all over the county as far as funds will permit. The records in the office are open. He asked the supervisors for funds to assist in the work. No one wants this done more than he does. No one will do more than he will if the funds are available.

"Costs in the office have increased because there have been a large number of sub-divisions put on. They began jumping about five years ago, and now we have 70,000 parcels of land to handle. Sleeper realizes the need of revaluing property and will do it if given the opportunity."

Upon being asked by Harry Becker, of Brea, if the books were open to everyone and if he could get the complete record on the Union Oil company, Chaffee emphatically assured him that he could or anyone could and that he would be glad to assist him in getting that information if he wanted it.

W. W. Dungan, of Garden Grove, wanted to know why some years the amount of acreage listed was larger than others, and was informed by Chaffee that this was due to the fact that in in some years sub-divisions that had been withdrawn from acreage, were thrown back into acreage when they didn't go over.

Chaffee also declared that Sleeper disapproved of the survey and reappraisement because it would cost more in the way proposed than to have it done through the assessor's office ,and that he was interested in seeing it done as economically as possible.

ARRANGE PUBLIC BARBECUE

The local parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters are joining in a public barbecue at Hewes park Sunday at 1 p. m., it was announced today by Dr. C. E. Price, head of the committee in charge.

The affair will be open to the public, the committeeman said. Barbecued beef and pork, Spanish beans, sweet corn and other eatibles usually associated with a barbecue will be served.

Thousands Of Railroad Signal Blocks Made Here

WORK ON TRACK SYSTEM TO TAKE THREE MONTHS

ORANGE, July 25.—Under the direction of W. J. Lee of Los Angeles, thousands of cement signal foundations and battery boxes are being built in this city and will be used in installing an electric block system along the Santa Fe tracks from Fullerton to Fallbrook and from Fallbrook to San Diego.

Lee, who is in charge of a crew of nine men, stated yesterday that it would take from two to three months from the present time, to complete the number of blocks and battery boxes required.

The automatic electric block system will take the place of the semaphores now in use along the track. The new signals will be much more effective in foggy and rainy weather and will add to safety in operation, it is said.

The signal foundations are four feet at the base, have a smaller square area at the top and are about four feet high. The blocks will operate hooded flood lights. As the train first strikes the tracks controlled by the blocks the circuit is broken and yellow lights will flood the tracks. As the train procedes the lights will automatically turn to red, and as the track is cleared, they will change to green.

The length of track on which the system is to be installed is the last lap of the Santa Fe to be equipped in this way. During the past week blocks have been installed from Fullerton to Los Angeles on the Santa Fe line. The battery boxes are from ten feet in length and four feet in width for 48 cell battery boxes to proportionate lengths and widths for the 36 cell, the 20 cell and the 8 cell sizes.

The blocks will be located at sections along the track where they are needed, curves in the tracks and other circumstances entering into their location.

About 10 battery boxes and two signal foundations are being made daily, Lee states. The foundations are wired ready for installation. The crew which came here from San Bernardino have a string of eight cars on the side track west of the freight depot.

Blueprints of the block system are expected here at anytime.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Edwards left yesterday for Yellowstone Park. They are making the trip by motor and expect to be gone for several weeks.

Miss Dorothy Gruwell will leave next week for a two weeks' vacation which she will spend in Santa Monica and Catalina.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pike returned today from a honeymoon trip which they spent in the south. Mrs. Pike was Quilla McCullough before her marriage here last week. During Mrs. Pike's absence the Pacific Coffee store, of which she is manager, has been in charge of Mrs. John B. Cook.

Mrs. Estelle Campbell, 182 South Pepper street, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties in the Orange public library.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Hedges and children, Barbara, Byron and Betty Lou, are guests in the home of Mrs. Hedges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green. The visitors are from Oklahoma and are taking a number of trips to other Southern California towns. This week Mrs. Green and daughter, Miss Evelyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Hedges and children spent one day at Balboa.

Miss Estella Campbell, 261 North Olive street, went to Los Angeles yesterday for a brief visit with relatives.

Miss Dorothy Perkins of the Dorothy shop, and Mrs. A. A. Smith spent Wednesday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Earl Hobbs has had as her guest her sister, Mrs. E. W. Bolton of San Francisco, who has also been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill of Santa Ana. Mrs. Bolton left today for her home in the north and Mrs. George Hooper of San Francisco who has been a guest in the Hobbs and Hill homes, accompanied her.

Mrs. Eula Weaver was a business visitor in Los Angeles, Wednesday.

Seven Cars Of Fertilizer Received Daily

ORANGE, July 25.—The prosperity of a ranching community may be gauged by the amount of fertilizer that is used by ranchers, it was said at the Santa Fe depot yesterday. At the present time seven cars of fertilizer are being shipped here daily, an amount above the average, it was declared.

While it was conceded that fertilizer is a necessity, it was said at the Santa Fe, that its use fluctuates with business conditions.

SMILEY TALKS OF EGYPT AT ROTARY CLUB

ORANGE, July 25.—J. A. Smiley, of West Orange, was the interesting speaker at the regular meeting of the Rotary club here yesterday. John Adams was the program chairman and C. E. Morrow of Eureka, Calif., former "Y" secretary here led the songs.

Smiley took his listeners across Europe through the Baltic countries, down the Nile and through the Holy Land, vividly describing farming and business conditions of the countries through which he had traveled.

Irrigation Methods

Irrigation methods in Egypt were described, the raising of water in the ditches along the Nile being done mostly by man power, he said. The apparatus used is along the order of the old-fashioned well sweep, he said. Crops are of all sorts, cotton, dates and grain, and grown about six miles on each side of the river, he said.

A visit to the Valley of the Kings where the marvelous tomb of King Tut stands in as desolate a country as may be imagined, was described. Flies abound in the country around the tomb, he said and children are seen with the insects crawling over their faces, their eyes sore from the contact.

Cheap Labor

Laborers in the Palestine receive about 55 cents a day he said, living is cheap, the poorer classes don't expect much and don't get much. The hills around Palestine are stony bluffs and the agricultural conditions were a disappointment to him the speaker said.

The dole system in England was studied by Smiley, who declared that the number of unemployed men who were living on a dole or half pay, from the government were in the millions. While he was in England, a movement was being made by these men to secure a dole of full pay. Labor problems in England were very acute, Smiley said, while France seemed in a most prosperous state.

Visiting Rotarians were J. L. McBride, Elmer Heidt, T. E. Stephenson, Hube Dale and W. L. Deimling of Santa Ana; James Fargnhor and J. S. Balee of Huntington Beach; C. E. Morrow of Eureka. Lew Wallace and Edward Swift were guests of club members.

FINE MEXICAN $50 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

ORANGE, July 25.—U. Martinez of El Modena, was fined $50 in the court of Justice G. W. Ingle yesterday afternoon when he appeared on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor. Martinez, at his hearing on Wednesday, asked for a jury trial, but yesterday changed his plea to guilty.

The man was arrested the first of the week by Constable George Bartley when cider found at his home was seized and after analysis was found to contain an illegal content of alcohol.

LOYAL WOMEN OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEET

ORANGE, July 25.—The Loyal Women of the Christian church met in the church parlors yesterday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Ed Windolph presided at the piano during the devotionals, with Mrs. William Moose leading in the singing Mrs. M. O. Ainsworth gave the Scripture reading, using the twenty-third Psalm.

Initial plans were made for dinner on election day. Two committees were appointed with Mrs. M. E. Bivens and Mrs. William Moose as chairmen. The committee on baptismal robes gave a report and a motion was mad ethat the class make the robes, if the church board purchase the material.

Mrs. Minnie Grahn was appointed chairman of the flower committee for special occasions, such as Christmas, Easter and Children's Day, to assist the regular committee for the current month in which these days occur. Mrs. B. Atherton read a portion of a letter telling of the change of home of the family of Fred Bates, who recently went to Oregon to make their home on a ranch. Mrs. Emily Reed, the class teacher, was granted a two months' vacation and Mrs. Minnie Neville was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Moose Chairman

Mrs. William Moose was the program chairman. Readings were given by Josephine Clouse and Edith Boone. Eldon Winters played a violin solo, "May," with an encore "Blue Bells of Scotland," accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Robert Winters.

A duet was given by Dorothy Finley and Annita Myracle, who were accompanied by Mrs. Leon Des Larzes. Luberta Morgan gave a planologue, "Freckle Face" with Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake at the piano. Miss Melva Fletcher sang "Danny Boy," accompanied by Miss Loraine Ingle.

Ice cold watermelon was served by the hostesses, Mesdames William Moose, L. Sides, M. O. Ainsworth and F. Scovel. A number of guests were present. The following were present: Mesdames Robert Winters, Edd Windolph, William Moose, G. A. Gates, M. E. Bivens, F. L. Ainsworth, Leon Des Larzes, Emma Carlson, B. Atherton, Emily Reed, Frances Conner, R. C. Burkett, Angeline Courtney, W. Pulley, F. Scovel, Nordeen, W. N. Whitney, Perkins, A. A. Dewey, Grace Strickland, M. O. Ainsworth, Wolfe, Minnie Grahn, W. EASTERN STAR LADIES PICNIC IN IRVINE PARK

ORANGE, July 25.—Members of Scepter Chapter, No. 163, O. E. S. and their families met at Irvine park Thursday for a pot luck supper at 6:30 o'clock planned in honor of Miss Ellen Suffren, a member of the Chapter who will sail for Hingwa, China, July 28, where she will resume her work as missionary. Mrs. Sherman Gillogly, worthy matron Scepter Chapter, and her officers were hostesses. One hundred twenty-five partook of the bountiful supper under the branches of the oak trees.

A ship well loaded was the center piece on the long guest table. Miss Ellen Suffren was the recipient of many thoughtful gifts loaded upon the ship by her many friends. Especially appreciated was a box of many colored bars of soap. Miss Suffren remarked that soap was at a premium in China.

Loaded ships was not the only diversion for the gathering for the officers of the chapter, unbeknown to the worthy matron, presented a three-year diary book to the daughter of the worthy matron, Helen Gillogly, who is leaving next month to enter college at the University of Berkeley.

Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening by those who so desired.

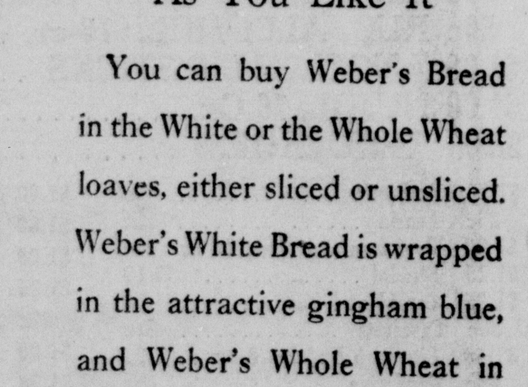
The BLUE GINGHAM Girl to the BLUE GINGHAM LOAF [WAXED WRAPPER]

GOODNESS recognizes goodness. Freshness bows to freshness. Just as the Blue Gingham Girl stood for sweet, pure, dependable, pioneer womanhood, so the Blue Gingham Gown on Weber's Bread is the symbol of a good, pure, honest loaf. It is designed as a message to you, a message of quality. It performs its task when its old-fashioned simplicity conveys to you that confidence of goodness that goes with most old-fashioned things.

Weber's BREAD
"IT'S MIGHTY NICE"

WEBER'S BREAD
"As You Like It"

You can buy Weber's Bread in the White or the Whole Wheat loaves, either sliced or unsliced. Weber's White Bread is wrapped in the attractive gingham blue, and Weber's Whole Wheat in appetizing gingham brown. The word "sliced" appears prominently on the wrappers of the sliced loaves.



SCHOOL BOARD IN FULLERTON VOTES SURVEY

FULLERTON, July 25. — The school board of the Fullerton union high school and junior college was today on record as in favor of asking the county supervisors to appropriate funds for making a survey of the educational problems of Orange county, chief of which is the junior college question, following action taken at a board meeting late Wednesday.

The action was taken only after an hour's heated debate, in which J. A. Prizer, chairman, protested.

The board did not commit itself to comply with the results of the survey.

The motion made by Tuffree and seconded by Launer, was that the "chairman appoint a committee to work in conjunction with the Santa Ana board of education to request the supervisors of Orange county to appropriate funds for an impartial general survey on education problems of Orange county to the end of providing particular data on the junior college question." Travers and Tuffree were appointed on the committee.

To Begin Work On School Remodeling

ANAHEIM, July 25.—Within the next few days, construction work will begin on the remodeling of the residence at 210 South Citron street for the Anaheim school district and is expected to be completed in time for the opening of the school term next fall.

The building is to be re-finished inside and out, using a colonial type of architecture for the exterior. There will be seven rooms when completed, and in addition to a general office, conference room and board room, they will be occupied by Melbourn A. Gauer, superintendent; Samuel E. Loose, physical director; Miss Adah Wilcox, assistant physical director, and Adelaide Price, school nurse.

The contract for the work has been awarded to J. E. Hamlyn at a cost to the district of $3131. Other bids submitted were $3757 and $4263.

Farewell Given To Honolulu Voyager

ANAHEIM, July 25.—Miss Dorothy Wents was the inspiration for a lovely farewell dinner party Wednesday evening given by her grandmother, Mrs. J. Wents, at her home at 602 North Lemon street.

Miss Wents will sail Saturday for Honolulu to return to her work as children's librarian in the new public library of that city. She is a graduate of Fullerton junior college, Pomona college and Simmon's college at Boston. After working for a year in the library at the Orange county courthouse Miss Wents went to Honolulu where she has been for the past year. Her leave of absence for six weeks was given her on conditions that she sign a contract for another year on the island.

Bidden to the dinner were Miss Wents, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wents of Los Angeles, two daughters of the hostess, Mrs. Helen Greve and Mrs. Sam Kraemer jr., Mr. Kraemer and their daughter, Rosemary.

SON HOME FROM SCHOOL

BARBER CITY, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. James Winslow have with them for tthe remainder of the summer vacation, their son, Lawrence Winslow of Williamette university of Salem, Oregon, who motored home and will return in the fall to resume his studies. As guests in their home Mr. and Mrs. Winslow have been entertaining a cousin of Mrs. Winslow's, Mrs. Raymond Fuller and Mr. Fuller, of Jacksonville, Florida, who made a flying trip to visit California relatives. It had been 23 years since the cousins last met and on Sunday a family reunion and picnic was enjoyed by a party of 14 at Point Fermin where they took their lunch, going for the day.

HOLD PICNIC PARTY

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—A picnic party at Bixby park, Long Beach, was given in observance of the birthday anniversaries of Miss Helen McCoy of this place and her college friend, Miss Lillian Faber of Anaheim, the latter of whose anniversaries was upon that date and Miss McCoy's a few days later. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Miss Helen McCoy, Bryceand Wallace McCoy and Miss Pearl Breedlove of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Faber, Miss Lillian Faber and Homer Faber of Anaheim; Miss Grace Koch of Hollywood, formed the picnic party.

HAPPY WORKERS OF WESTMINSTER MEET

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—Plans for several coming events were made at Wednesday's business meeting of the Happy Workers' society which followed the public dinner which was served at the church hall by Mrs. Harry Penhall's serving committee. Two excursions were planned, among these one to an Anaheim ice plant on August 5, the other to Barker Bros., Los Angeles, on Sept. 12.

A pot-luck dinner will be held by the Happy Workers for the August meeting on the fourth Wednesday of the month, it was decided.

A friendly contest among members of the Happy Workers was arranged for a six months' period, each committee chairman being appointed to see that members of her committee attend meetings. In this way it is expected to secure a larger attendance at meetings.

Mrs. Thomas Hosack was appointed to see the trustees of the church about cleaning off of the church lots and the Happy Workers society is willing to serve dinner to the men if they donate their labor on the clean up.

Mrs. A. G. Snow was appointed as chairman of a regular program committee to furnish entertainment at the Happy Workers meetings, Mrs. Snow being allowed to appoint her own committee.

A total of $16.30 was taken in at the dinner which was served by Mrs. Harry Penhall, Mrs. George Clough, Mrs. Ruth Penhall, Mrs. A. G. Snow and Mrs. Clyde Day.

Bride-Elect Given Shower By Mother

FULLERTON, July 25.—Among the many parties given in honor of Miss Winifred Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moore, 117 South Pomona avenue, who is soon to marry Alvin Blackford of this city, was a recent one given by the mother of the bride-to-be at the Moore home.

An evening of bridge was enjoyed and a salad course refreshment was served on the card tables. The ice cream was molded into cakes with the daisy suggestion on the top of each.

Yellow and white was the color scheme emphasized in Shasta daisies. Gladiolus was also used in the decorative theme.

The bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Betty Woolson, Hazel Vilott and Evelyn Heitzman.

Miss Moore and Blackford both attended Fullerton grammar school and high school and are well known through northern Orange county.

COMMERCE CHAMBER MEETS

MIDWAY CITY, July 25. — A smoker is being planned by the Midway City Chamber of Commerce for men of the community as a Midway City booster meeting. The exact date has not been set but it will be within two weeks.

Buyers have advantages in Horton's August Furniture Sale that probably have no equal anywhere in this part of the country:

1. All furniture on sale is part of the complete new stock with which we furnished our new store, and which was bought on the recent extremely low-priced market.

2. These low prices are reduced just the same, following our usual clearance policies.

3. Furniture prices are rising higher every day; an unmistakable upward movement from the recent low level, making Horton's sale prices the lowest that will undoubtedly be seen again for years at least.

The combination of these circumstances could only be found in a store that paralleled our activities this year; the opening of our new store with stocks purchased on this unusually low market; the August clearance policies of Horton's which will not be deviated from because of our rigid twelve-months program mapped out long ago.

They make low prices for you. On new furniture, the modern types. Values that it doesn't seem reasonable could recur again. You can judge them for yourself and make comparisons.

You're invited to this sale, which begins tomorrow, Saturday. Horton's August Furniture Sale. Our Easy Payment Plan will help you to save now. Very little cash down will be necessary.

The opportunity is yours to profit by as you see fit.

Laguna Busses May Include Newport And Balboa

MOTOR TRANSIT WANTS CHANGE OF SCHEDULE

NEWPORT-BALBOA, July 25.—All Motor Transit busses now running between Santa Ana and Laguna Beach may run via Newport bay and later on may go up and down the coast either via Balboa Island or Corona del Mar ferry, it was learned today.

The Motor Transit company is making an application to the Railroad commission to route its Santa Ana-Laguna Beach busses via Costa Mesa, Newport Beach and Balboa, instead of via Irvine and the inland route. Five are run each way on this route daily.

The Motor Transit company and the Pickwick stages will also ask that the three local Newport Beach-Laguna Beach busses each way daily now operated by the Pickwick be operated by the Motor Transit company. This would not affect the through Pickwick stages, which now run between Long Beach, Los Angeles and San Diego via the Coast route.

At present the Motor Transit runs eight stages each way daily between here and Santa Ana. If it operated the five now running to Laguna via this city, this would make 13 daily each way between here and the county seat. The plan will be strongly supported by the chambers of commerce and others of Newport Beach and Costa Mesa, it is stated.

With the putting into operation of a new, larger ferry between Balboa island and Balboa, a deal was reported to be under discussion whereby the busses would come to Balboa, cross to the island by ferry and continue to Corona del Mar and down to Laguna.

The Motor Transit company, as well as Pickwick, would be interested in a ferry from Balboa Peninsula to Corona del Mar, but until such a ferry service is established, they may use the Balboa island route.

MILITARY STUDENTS CAMPING ON BEACH

CAPISTRANO BEACH, July 25.—Thirty boys from the Oncenta Military academy, of South Pasadena, are camped on the beach near the bath house. Major W. A. Smith is in command. The boys, who range from the lower grades, through high school age, will make a three weeks' stay on the beach, to be followed by a trip to Grand Canyon. They travel in their own bus, and are accompanied by their own chef. Billy Burnett, son of Henry Burnett, of Santa Ana, who has been with the encampment, returned home last week, because of illness, but will make the coming trip to the canyon.

HANSON ENTERS HORSE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Ole Hanson jr., director of the El Rodeo Riding club of Orange county and San Clemente's leading horseman will enter his star mount, The Captain, in the Third Annual Horse Show sponsored by the Coronado Riding Club at Coronado on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Hanson jr. will ship his horse south in a special motor taxi and ride him in the lightweight stock class on Saturday afternoon. On Sunday Hanson jr., will enter his mount in the $500 stake race.

Make Record With Laguna Beach Hotel

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—Making a record for speed in construction and exceeding the schedule set, the Laguna Beach hotel, started seven weeks ago, will be open for business next week. This is the statement of William Cochran, president of the company. H. W. Baum and B. F. Baum of the Baum construction company, builders of the hotel, were visitors this week with Cochran watching progress.

Specially made carpets arrived Thursday morning and are being laid. Spanish Mediterranean furniture, also made to order and beds claimed to be the best made, will be placed as soon as the carpets are down. Landscaping of the grounds is to start Tuesday.

Though August 12 was set as the opening date, the rapid progress has made possible opening two weeks sooner.

CONDUCT LIFE LAGUNA BEACH SAVING CLASS

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—The second course in the series of training courses in swimming and life saving sponsored by the local branch of the American National Red Cross will start July 28. The class for beginners will be under the supervision of Miss Louella Marshall, from 10 to 11 a. m. devoted to this, in front of the life guard tower on the main beach. Classes are under the protection of life guards, children in this class to be those between 6 and 15 years of age.

Classes for swimmers are held from 11 until 12 a. m. every morning excepting Sundays. This class is for those knowing how to swim, but who wish to learn the various strokes for speed and distance, and earn the American Red Cross Swimmers Badge.

Classes for those who wish to earn the American Red Cross Junior Life Saving emblem and certificate, are held every morning frmo 10 until 11 a. m. And boy or girl between the ages of 12 and 17 is eligible.

Classes for the senior grade are held every afternoon from 4 until 5 p. m. Men and women from 17 years of age and over are eligible. Those completing this course will receive the senior life saving corps emblem and certificate. This is a real mark of distinction, and it is hoped that no one will miss this splendid opportunity. These courses are free to everyone.

Those wishing to enter any of these classes are asked to register at the life guard tower on the Central Beach.

The first junior and senior life saving course came to a close today, at a beach and plunge party. The group was to assemble at 5 p. m. in front of the Pomona College Marine laboratory and drive from there in a group to the San Clemente Beach club. The features of the evening included final examinations, swimming, life saving contests and games, after which the group assembled around a camp fire on the beach for an evening of entertainment.

BEAN DISTRICT AT BEACH HAS LARGE ACREAGE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—The Huntington Beach agricultural district has 6000 acres planted to beans, according to estimates of the Smeltzer Bean Growers' association. This is probably the largest acreage ever planted in the vicinity of this city. Outlook for the crop is fair and the estimated yield is 15 sacks to the acre. It is estimated the bean growers will receive not less than 10 cents a pound for beans which would mean the bean crop this year will yield $900,000.

These estimates are conservative and it is reasonable to expect the bean crop, if the growing period between now and the harvest season a few weeks off, will be a million dollar crop. This money goes to the farmers and adds to the wealth of the Huntington Beach trade territory.

Look Good Now

Beans are looking good now. The bean crop here is lima beans. Orange county has many thousand acres in beans in the semi-arid sections of the county. The acreage outside of the Huntington Beach district is smaller this year than the average, owing to the turning of portions of the bean acreage to other crops and to young orchards. The big bean acreage and bean crop of Huntington Beach district will not be sufficient to bring the yield of Orange county to the average and will not have a depressing effect on the price of beans to the grower.

The crop is comparatively free from worms or other pests and the bean growers are expecting a good season with a satisfactory profit on their crop. The market is strong with the price firm.

It will be several weeks yet before the actual harvest starts and unfavorable weather conditions may change the situation but right now the bean growers are optimistic, in this immediate section.

The chili pepper acreage this year is slightly larger than usual. It is a little early yet to make any estimate of the pepper crop as to yield and price, but the pepper growers are hopeful of a good crop with a fair price. If the pepper weevil does not cause damage this year the pepper growers are in a way to make some money out of their crop. The pepper crop in this vicinity yields more than a million dollars a year to the farmers. The Japanese farmers do most of the pepper growing on rented land, paying cash rentals for their land.

WILL ATTEND JOINT MEETING

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Hal Warner, secretary and Trafford Huteson, president will represent San Clemente at the regular monthly meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county which will be held at Los Alamitos Tuesday night, July 29. Warner, chairman of the transportation committee, will make a report.

RUSH WORK ON $100000 MOTOR INN AT POINT

DANA POINT, July 25.—Work is progressing on the new motor inn, which is under construction at the intersection of the Roosevelt highway and McKinley avenue. R. N. Burnett, of Santa Ana, contractor on the job, and a crew of nearly 20 men, are engaged on the first unit of the court.

Plans call for one of the most unique and elaborate tourist apartment inns on the southern coast. A strip of land, 1000 feet long, extending from the highway to the water line, was purchased by W. D. Moore, of Dana Point; Frank Daniels, of Los Angeles, and F. Laurence, of Pasadena. The buildings will occupy about 500 feet of the site, and will be in the form of a hollow square, facing the highway. Two units, each two-story high, and 500 feet long, will be connected across the end, facing the ocean. These will contain about 60 apartments, of two, three and five rooms each, modern to the last degree, and equipped with cooling systems.

A 15-foot broad walk will be constructed around the square, and an auto driveway, entering from the highway, will circle the walk. Landscaping and a fountain will beautify the square. Between the building and ocean a sunken garden will be made, with a bathing pool for children. A grocery store and filling station will flank each side of the entrance to the apartment court. The station will have a tower 38 feet in height.

The project will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

BURNS FEET

LA HABRA, July 25.—The small son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stanley is confined to his home with badly burned feet as the result of an accident when he ran through a pile of ashes while at play with his bare feet thinking them to have been cold. Instead of the ashes being cold they contained live coals and the lad received first and second degree burns on his feet.

Newport Is Planning for Yacht Regatta

NEWPORT-BALBOA, July 25.—The complete official program of the Pacific Coast championship yachting regatta, to be held here August 4 to 9, was announced today, a former program announcement being declared erroneous.

Newport Bay is planning a gala week for the double regatta, as the Southern California Yachting association holding its annual regatta here at the same time as the Coast title event.

The regattas follow the recent completion of the latest harbor improvement of the City of Newport Beach, providing a channel at the bay entrance 250 feet wide and 15 feet deep at low tide, and yachtsmen and others from all up and down the coast are expected to spend regatta week here.

Laguna Beach Host To Lodges

Others visiting from lodges away from here, some residents of Laguna Beach, however, were David Meyer, Darold C. Meyer, Paul A. Andres, Allen Lair of Santa Ana; H. T. Wolsworth and E. D. Marion of Anaheim; James A. Russell of Alma, Nebr.; J. L. Hannaman of Ottumwa, Ia.; Ronald H. Ross of Los Angeles, W. H. P. Goddard of Morenci, Ariz., J. L. Lattin of Galvin, Kans., and D. V. Estep of Burr Oak, Kas.

EXPECT CHANGE IN BUS ROUTES AT FULLERTON

FULLERTON, July 25.—A more extensive bus service through Fullerton is anticipated in the near future with the announcement that a new application had been filed with the state railroad commission regarding proposed changes, it was announced here today.

The combination of Pickwick and Motor Transit lines centering through Fullerton with the new rerouting would effect the recently curtailed service of the Pacific Electric. The application will be heard in Los Angeles August 2, it was announced.

Under this plan a line from Los Angeles to Riverside by way of Norwalk, Buena Park, Fullerton, Placentia and Corona is contemplated.

The Pickwick line to San Diego would be rerouted through Whittier and La Habra and follow the U. S. Highway 101 to Fullerton and points south.

Just what changes may be included in this proposed revision has not yet been announced, but is expected to be revealed when entirely completed.

Yorba Linda service is one of the issues and a parallel line of the Motor Transit from Los Angeles to Santa Ana by way of Whittier, La Habra and Brea is another point on which a possible change of plans is being considered.

The proposed changes would make Fullerton a junction point for travelers to the interior cities, it was said. Final working out of the plans is now under way and definite routes are expected to be scheduled for the hearing.

The proposed Los Angeles-Riverside line through Santa Ana canyon would give Fullerton and Placentia better service to the east, it was said.

Plan Action For Laguna Ninth Grade

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—Action on the ninth grade which will be installed in the grammar school this September will be decided upon early next week, when a joint meeting of the school district will be held with Tustin.

Tustin has been asked to provide teachers for the students, if Laguna Beach will furnish the room, and equipment. This is being done to save ninth grade students from riding the long distance to Tustin high school each day.

According to G. B. Dunham, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Palm Springs has made a similar request of Banning high school.

COAST ASSOCIATION PLAYS GOLF MONDAY

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—One of the largest gatherings in Orange County Coast association golf tourney history is scheduled to take part in the regular monthly competition at Catalina on Monday morning, according to Hal Warner, chairman of the sports committee of the organization. Play will be for the Tom Talbert cow, Press-Telegram set of golf irons and minor trophies.

Players from all cities on the Orange county coast have signed for the trip. From San Clemente will go Hal Warner, G. Scherck, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murphine jr., Tom Murphine sr., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mulherron, Win Keerl, Jess Heinecke, J. C. Herbsman and Bob Plume.

The party will leave Wilmington on Sunday afternoon, play golf Monday morning and leave for the mainland on Monday afternoon. The golf banquet will be held aboard ship on the way back from the island.

Fraternity men from San Clemente plan to stop at the Irvine ranch beach just north of Emerald Bay on the way home and take in the regular monthly meeting of the Inter-fraternity association of Orange county.

DISCUSS WATER SITUATION AT CHAMBER MEET

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—A special meeting of the Westminster Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing the coming water bond election of next Monday, July 28, which is to be held in the Wishart building formerly occupied by the Fountain lunch on Westminster boulevard.

The present water committee, Charles Sigler, George Clough, Francis Penhall and James Monroe were appointed to see that the voters in the prescribed territory get to the poles which are to be open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. Mrs. Ruth Penhall, Judge W. H. Bentley and Mrs. Nell Morgan will form the election board.

It was stated that the water level in the district has fallen another three feet the past week or so making it doubtful just how long the present water supply may hold out. Mr. Basse, president of the Westminster school board, stated that the water situation at the Westminster Mexican school is already at the point where something has to be done to secure a new water supply and many property owners who have their own private wells now have their pumps lowered to the last level possible for pumping.

The company present was unanimously in favor of the proposed bonds of approximately $31,000 which would put in the water works for the entire territory of Westminster about one half mile in each direction. There are about 200 water users interested in the proposed election.

Property owners signing the petition which was circulated when the plans for the election were formulated, included besides local persons, a number from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach, Glendale, Compton and Alhambra.

Included on the program will be a hymn story, with song by Ann Wetherell, a Bible story play with Maurice Lycan, Herbert Lycan, Robert Reid and Billy Musick, and a character story.

The program is broadcast every Sunday morning from 10:30 to 11 o'clock and is in charge of Mrs. Hazel Maxwell.

NEIGHBORS MEET

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—The Royal Neighbors of America met Wednesday in their new club rooms in the Smith Grote building. Mrs. Anna Slater told of her recent trip east for six weeks, traveling through Nebraska and Iowa. Plans were made for a picnic to be held Wednesday at the Anaheim park. The picnickers will leave the club rooms at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

MASONS HOLD DANCE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—The Masons held a dance at I.O.O.F. hall Wednesday night for the benefit of the De Molay being organized here. The affair was largely attended. Punch was served and an excellent orchestra provided music for the dancers. The dance was a financial success as well as a social success.

MARATHON TO OPEN TONIGHT IN BEACH CITY

The Society marathon, a dancing and walking contest, starts tonight at 8 o'clock at the Casino ballroom at Balboa. The marathon, a continuous event, will be broadcast over KREG from 12 to 12:30 o'clock every day and from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock every evening.

The contest is sponsored by the Meiklejohn brothers, lessees of the Casino, formerly known as the Pavilion. A program of high class vaudeville has been arranged and "something doing every minute" is promised by the management.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Whitie Clinton and His Music Masters, a 12-piece orchestra. Public dancing will be featured during the marathon.

Co-operation of Newport Beach authorities has been promised the Casino managers. An experienced master of ceremonies has been secured.

HOOKS and SLIDES

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Dividends checks of the San Francisco Seals have been nice healthy ones since 1921 as $600,000 worth of ivory has been disposed of to the big leagues..George Putnam, Seal magnate, says the coast loop would show financial success without major league asles ..He bases his opinion on Sacramento figures, which show only two sales since 1924..Catcher Joe Sprinz made one of the fastest shifts on record when he came to the majors..Just before a night game at Indianapolis, Sprinz was surprised by being told he had been sold to Cleveland..He caught the night game for the Hoosiers, took the midnight sleeper, and was behind the bat for the Indians at 1:30 p. m. the next afternoon.

AT LAST IT IS DONE

They are passing out the bouquets these days to E. K. Hall, who once upon a time was a $50,000-a-year executive with a big telephone company, but who gave up that job to become a teacher at Dartmouth college.

Aside from being a college professor, Hall also is chairman of the Intercollegiate Football Rules committee that recently finished setting up grid rules for 1930 season. They say that Hall and his group did a noble piece of work.

For one, I'm going to give the committee a vote of thanks for writing anew the rules in much simpler and more condensed form. It's so seldom any more that committees and commissions do anything worth while. But as Jackson Cannell, Dartmouth football coach said: "The study and time given this work have been tremendous, and every lover of football should feel grateful to the men who achieved such splendid work."

Wouldn't it be nice if we could say that about the various boxing commissions?

* * *

GOOD WORK, ANYHOW

At this point, however, I am prompted to ask who reads the football rules?

Fans won't, you can gamble on that. Oh, some fans, out of curiosity, might read the first page or two and then give up because of technicalities. Anyway, it's so much simpler for them to ask the fellow in the next seat what that particular penalty was all about, even if the answer they get isn't very intelligent.

But the fact that the rules have been recodified and shortened considerably should help the game.

I compliment the committee on the fact that they made such few changes in the actual playing rules. And as I mentioned before, isn't it something to know that there is one committee that actually accomplishes a good thing?

SHAWKEY SMILES

Happines brings out a smile every time, and for proof—well, take a look at Bob Shawkey just now. His smile is more pronounced on days when he names Sharlie Ruffing or Roy Sherid as his pitching selection.

For the first time this season, Bob the Gob can discuss Yankee pitching without a scowl. Happenings during the past few series' have made a change in the Yankee pilot. He even sees better days ahead.

Ruffing and Sherid are the tonic that has caused the Shawkey features to crack. They were relief pitchers only a few weeks ago. Today they are starring pitchers who have displayed a talent for dishing up nine innings of winning baseball.

THEY'RE EFFECTIVE

Sherid was a great prospect when the Yanks acquired him right out of college in 1928. They optioned him to Montreal, where he pitched 34 games that year, winning 15 and dropping seven. The Yanks recalled him last year and although he worked in 33 games, he toiled only 160 innings for an even .500 percentage that entailed six wins and six losses. Recent averages showed Sherid's efforts at five and five, but the part that pleases Mr. Shawkey is the effectiveness of the tall right-hander in the more recent games. He's a starting pitcher now.

Since Ruffing came into the American league in 1926 with the Red Sox, the big blond right-hander never has completed a season with his head above the .500 mark. In spite of his inability to win games, which can be attributed largely to the fact that he pitched for a tail-end club, Charlie held the

YANKS, FRENCH BREAK EVEN IN SINGLES PLAY

PARIS, July 25.—The United States and France got away to an even start in challenge round play for the historical Davis cup today.

William T. Tilden II, defeated Jean Borotra in singles, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, but Henri Cochet evened matters for France by meating George Lott, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Fought before crowded stands in the Roland Garros stadium, the day's matches resulted quite as the tennis experts had predicted and left the issue—the possible return of the Davis cup to the United States—still very much in doubt.

In the doubles match tomorrow, Wilber Allison and John Van Ryn will play Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon at 3 p. m.

Cochet to Play Doubles

The presence of Cochet in the doubles lineup for France indicates that little Henri is at his best and that the French will make a bold effort to add another point in defense of the cup.

Two more singles matches will follow Sunday with Tilden meeting Cochet and Lott facing Borotha.

The original plan has been for France to play Christian Boussus as Brugnon's partner in the doubles, providing an even break was obtained on the first day. The team of Allison and Van Ryn is regarded as virtually certain of victory.

Lott Is Outclassed

Cochet, on whose slender shoulders rest the chief hopes of the French, was superb in his victory over Lott and apparently sought to finish off the match as quickly as possible so to to rest up for his doubles effort. He extended himself in the third set and quickly ran it out, scoring ten placements to three for the Chicago boy.

Tilden was well off his game when play started, but improved as the contest wore on. He won five consecutive games in the third set after having trailed Borotra by two games to five.

The referee called a game point against Tilden who protested that he was not ready to play. This ruling made Tilden angry, just as similar adverse decisions have annoyed him in the past, and he uncovered his old clashing, slashing attack.

HE SHOULD BE SOME TACKLE

Primo Carnera has not enrolled at Notre Dame but his barnstorming tour recently took him into South Bend, Ind., the home of these Fighting Irish—Savoldi, Carideo, Schwartz and some others. Carnera expressed a desire to come back next fall and play tackle for Rockne. "Smash 'em" Joe Savoldi, left, stocky fullback of the 1929 championship eleven, greeted Carnera and his French manager, Leon See, right.

REESE BOXES RINGS AROUND CHAVEZ, WINS DECISIVELY IN DELHI "GRUDGE FIGHT"

"How can you hit 'em when you can't see em?" they used to ask in the One-Old-Cat league, when "Skinny" Smith whistled his fast one down the grove.

"How can you hit 'em when you can't see 'em?" echoed Zenaydo Chavez today, as he gathered together the fragments of a far-flung reputation as a "knockerout" that was smashed to smithereens at the Orange County Athletic club last night by a boxing wraith—Joe Reese, by name.

He won six of the ten rounds. Two were even. Chavez got the others by narrow margins.

This fellow Reese is naive. He believes the only way to become a successful boxer is to fight, and the only way to spurn a defense is to hit your opponent first. In other words, this fellow really wants to fight. So what can you do with a guy like that?

Nothing.

That is exactly what Chavez did—nothing.

Reese simply demoralized Chavez with an attack as nicely planned and as well executed as you might expect of a champion.

By a simple but effective expedient of hitting Chavez before Chavez hit him, Reese won the fight. He won it as deliberately and as decisively as it could have been won by a dancing master, a "powder puff puncher.

He smothered Zenaydo with lefts, showered him with rights. He moved in and out, jabbing to the body, stabbing to the face.

In the early rounds he showed a wholesome respect for Chavez's vaunted right—the hand that is supposed to rock them to sleep.

Toward the end he didn't even worry about that.

He mixed freely with Chavez in the last two rounds, even too recklessly in the tenth. Chavez almost knocked him through the ropes with his only punch of the fight, which, at that, was half a shove. This was the only weakness in the whole Reese plan. He had the decision in the hollow of his hand and he took a fool chance when he slugged with Chavez in the last heat.

One of those wild Chavez rights—wild as they were—might have undressed him, and then Joe would have looked like a sucker, instead of a champion.

As a fight it wasn't much of a fight. It was too monotonously one-sided.

Referee Bob White gave the first round to Chavez, chiefly on aggressiveness. Reese did a lot of running in this round, which was almost devoid of actual combat.

The second was even but only in

NATIONAL NIGHT LEAGUE

Garden Grove	5	5	.500
Olive	4	7	.364
Fullerton	3	7	.300
Huntington Beach	2	8	.200
Orange	1	9	.100

Santa Ana and Anaheim will not put on the only night baseball "natural" tonight.

There will be a lot of shootin' up Whittier way, too, because it is there that La Habra's Violet Rays, chief contender for the championship which Santa Ana seems to have fairly well in hand, go to meet the powerful Quakers, champions of the first half of the split season.

With Chico Sabela and Lloyd Johnson billed to pitch, the outcome is regarded as a tossup.

If Whittier beats La Habra and Santa Ana wins from Anaheim, the Stars will virtually cinch the second half pennant. In that case they would be three ful games ahead of the field with only six more to play.

Other games tonight are Garden Grove at Olive, Long Beach at Fullerton and Huntington Beach at Orange.

MAY HOLES TEE SHOT ON NO. 6 AT GOLF CLUB

If holes-in-one chase the blues away there should be a lot of happiness today around the Santa Ana Country club where Arthur A. May, local tractor dealer, made an ace on the 175-yard No. 6 yesterday.

It was the seventh hole-in-one made on the Newport boulevard course this year and the twenty-first recorded since the club opened five years ago.

R. C. McMillan, W. C. Pixley and J. Leabey were playing in a foursome with May and attested his card which will bring the former University of Nebraska track star a case of ginger ale, a dozen golf balls and numerous other nationally advertised merchandise.

May used a spoon. He was playing with one of the new and larger golf balls. His drive landed on the edge of the green, hopped several times and then rolled directly itno the cup without even touching the flag pin.

May's hole-in-one only added to the remarkable record established at the Santa Ana club, a mark many believe has never been equalled anywhere in the world. Twenty-one aces in five years is an average of more than four a year. Members have maintained an average of better than one a month since the first of the current year.

The hole-in-one makers, in order, are George B. Shattuck, District Attorney Z. B. West jr., A. W. Rutan, C. E. Parker, M. B. Lacy, Miss Enid Twist, Roland E. Dye, Paul Williams, Warren Fletcher, J. S. Warner (twice), Van Pomeroy, George A. Parker, B. V. Curry, Eugene Fenelon, Lawrence W. Bemis, Gordon Talbert, Judge G. K. Scovel, E. K. Gerhardt and A. A. May.

In addition to his official ace, J. S. Warner, a southpaw, made an unattested hole-in-one. He made it while playing alone.

FAVOR PERKINS IN WESTERN AMATEUR

CHICAGO, July 25.—While the defending champion merely stayed around to watch the play, T. Philip Perkins, bespectacled Englishman, assumed the role of popular favorite as the Western amateur tournament went into the semi-final round today.

The 1929 titleholder, Don Moe, Portland, Ore., was eliminated by Johnny Lehman, the angular Chicagoan, one up in a gruelling 37-hole match yesterday.

With Perkins as the suvivors were Lehman, Ira Couch, Chicago, and Bob McCrary, Des Moines, Ia., who twice has won the trans-Mississippi championship.

Lehman was to meet Perkins in a 36-hole match today. McCrary was to battle Couch.

CORNELIUS, BUSHMAN DUE FOR MOUND ASSIGNMENTS; SCHUCHARDT JOINS ENEMY

Night baseball's round-robin reaches the bursting point at Anaheim tonight. We shall know all—everything—within a few hours.

Santa Ana and Anaheim, bitterest antagonists of incandescent sport, come to grips at 8 o'clock. It will be their fourth and final set-to of a baseball season that has fanned into flame a smouldering fire of intense rivalry.

As usual when these two teams meet, there is no way of knowing what will occur. Anything may—and probably will happen.

If the Stars of Santa Ana win they will all but cinch the second half championship of the National Night league.

If Anaheim wins, Santa Ana still will be ahead of the pack but there will be general tightening around the baseball wheel and La Habra, Whittier and Long Beach, as well as Anaheim and Santa Ana, will have a chance to sneak up to the wire first.

Iron Man Joe ("McGinnity") Cornelius, rugged, nonchalant ace of Manager Herb Salveson's somewhat limited pitching staff, will fire 'em over for the Stars.

Al Bushman will work for George Pace's Valencias, according to word from Anaheim. Joe Ochoa is a possible starter, however.

Cornelius has two victories to his credit over Anaheim already this year. The last time he faced the Pacemen he cowed them with three hits while pitching a shutout game that was a credit to the masters.

Bushman, a husky youngster with lots of natural ability, is usually effective against Santa Ana, although the Stars knocked him out of the box on one occasion this semester. He is inclined to bad innings, especially if things break badly for him, and the Stars' best chance appears to be to get to him early. Olive made ten runs off Bushman in the second inning Tuesday.

Orville Schuchardt, stormy petrel of a recent quarrel between Santa Ana and Anaheim baseball and civic officials, will be in an

by DENNY SHUTE

Many golfers go stale. They play so many exhibits and tournaments that after a while they get sick of playing golf.

It's just like going to the movies. If you go once in a while, you enjoy them all, but go every day and soon you'll get to the point where you never want to see one again.

I've had a lot of people ask me if Walter Hagen is through as a big tournament winner. I can answer that quickly. I don't think he is.

Out in California during the tournaments there, he was hitting longer wood shots than I'd ever seen him hit before in his life. His trouble was on the short shots to the green and his putts.

I guess everybody knows that Walter Hagen is one of the most deadly golf players around the green who ever lived. Take that away from his game and he's lost. He's just stale from too much golf. But he'll be back up there.

Most of the time out in California, Horton Smith wasn't getting on the greens in par figures. And he wasn't sinking those 15 and 20 footers like he did last year. Ordinarily, Smith is noted for his straightness and distance off the tee and for his accurate putting. Too much golf made his strong points weak. He'll come back—and so will Hagen. Johnny Farrell is another in the same boat.

After I had won the Los Angeles and Texas opens, I traveled 1250 miles home for a three weeks' vacation. I was fed up on golf; I was homesick and I had lost 20 pounds. Even though I was quitting just after winning, I decided to take a vacation. I was afraid that if I didn't I'd get way off my game.

MISS CRUICKSHANK IS DOUBLES VICTOR

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 25.—For the first time in its history the annual Essex Country club women's invitation singles tennis tournament was won by an Easterner today.

Marjorie Morrill of Dedham, seeded seventh, decisively defeated Marjorie Gladman of Santa Monica, Calif., the sixth seeded player, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2.

Results of quarter-final doubles matches included:

Marjorie Gladman, Santa Monica, Calif., and Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana, Calif., defeated Mrs. Roger Griswold, Boston, and Mrs. George Harding, Boston, 6-2, 6-0.

Semi-finals of the doubles were scheduled for this afternoon.

LEMON IN BIG BOUT WITH BENNY MILLER

HOLLYWOOD, July 25.—Benny Miller, Hebrew welter sensation, will meet Romeo Lemon in the 10-round main event at the Legion stadium here tonight. Miller was favored to win because of his past performances, but Lemon's record indicated he will not be a setup.

"Red" Humphries will encounter Jimmy Alvarado in the six-round semi-windup, and Young Papke is paired with Frankie Abendino in the special.

"Bomo" Koral, former relief pitcher for the Stars, made an auspicious entry into the Santa Ana City league last night.

Toiling on the knoll for the Eastern Oil company, Koral let down the Orange County Builders' exchange with three measly hits, two of them bunts, while the Easterns were winning, 3 to 1.

Ray Griset hurled well enough to win the average game but the Oilers bunched hits on him in the first two innings to make al ltheir runs.

Koral's puzzling floaters had the Builders striking out or popping out feebly throughout the entire contest. Griset got two of the hits, Joe Harless the other.

SANTA ANA AND ANAHEIM MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

Anaheim unie for the first time tonight.

Pace is sure to send him to center field. Schuchardt also is likely to head the batting order.

Schuchardt "jumped" the Santa Ana team of which he was an outstanding star when he was given employment at the Anaheim city plunge. He said he had been promised a position here but did not get it.

Schuchardt is sure to be of great help to Anaheim. There is no outfielder in night ball who can go and get 'em like this fleet southpaw, a wonderful judge of a fly ball. He also is a fine bunter and a dangerous straightaway hitter.

Otherwise the managers are expected to stick wit hthe lineups they have been using most of the year.

The young veteran, "Eeny" Wilcox, will be Cornelius' batterymate as usual.

Salveson said he would use Curt Youel at first base, Leavitt Daley at second, Darwin Scott at third and "Memphis" Hill at short. Randolph Bell will be in left field, Wayne Nelson in center and "Rosy" Merrill in right.

Pace plans to use Bill Bushman behind the log, Lou Schrott at first base, George Preble at second, Phil Schroot at third and either Murry, a former Garden Grove "B" league star, or "Doc" Blakely at shortstop. Max Moody, Schuchardt and either "Cy" Mann or Rockwell will be in the outfield.

Anaheim's seating capacity is limited and an overflow crowd is certain to overrun the city park diamond.

Three hundred tickets for reserved seats were put on sale here today at 8 o'clock and they were all gone before 9 o'clock.

Fans who lost out on these will be able to break their way into temporary bleachers that have been installed along the first and third base lines, however. Admission to these sections will be a nominal sum.

Mack House Beats Wiggins Decisively

PASADENA, July 25. — Mack House, colored light heavyweight, won the acclaim of fans here last night by his victory over "Chuck" Wiggins, veteran Indianapolis fighter. Mack won in impressive style and had Wiggins down on four different occasions.

REESE IN DECISIVE WIN OVER CHAVEZ

White's opinion. Reese really had an edge.

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh were all Reese rounds by decisive margins.

Chavez snapped out of it in the eighth. A few good body blows gave him the round by a slight margin. The ninth was even. Chavez won the tenth.

Reese got off his bicycle in the last three rounds and punched with his countryman. He might have lost had he fought 10 rounds that way. Chavez always looks best when the boys trade with him.

Hereafter Chavez should confine his attention to slow-moving targets. He is too slow afoot and too wild and erratic with his punching to meet clever fellows like Reese.

Proving himself of main-event caliber, Urban Hernandez, young Placentia Mexican lightweight, put on a Wykoff finish to beat veteran Frankie Boldt in the semi. Boldt got the jump and was out in front at the halfway mark, but Hernandez had the most steam. Boldt was out on his feet at the end after making a good match of it.

This was the best fight of the night. Properly matched, Hernandez has as much right on top of a card as Chavez, Reese or Macias.

"Spike" Harvey, a college welterweight, decisively defeated Mickey Thomas in a six-round special event that was lukewarm for four rounds. Harvey had Thomas in a bad way in the fifth and sixth, particularly the last one. Mickey's "cauliflowers" were all in bloom.

Leading too much with his chin, Cliff Burrier made a miserable showing against Indian Kid Crow, a substitute for Packy McMullen. Crow won every round, completely outboxing the rugged Cliff who absorbed a lot of unnecessary punishment.

Ralph Garcia and Carl Seibel fought a great draw in the first bout. Garcia looked better until Seibel dropped him in the third and had him on the verge of a knockout.

The house was comfortably filled, and must have made Promoter H. T. Foust some money.

PITCHER WINS OWN GAME WITH BASEHIT

Pitcher Hodginson won his own game with a tenth inning single when Garden Grove nosed out Orange, 6 to 5, in an Orange County "B" league baseball game at Orange last night.

Umphress opened the extra inning with a single, took second on Arkley's sacrifice and scored on Hodginson's single.

respect of American league batters. He was wild, it is true, but he had something on the ball and kicked up quite a lot of trouble any time he took the mound. Proof of that lies in his record of 426 strikeouts in 177 games over a period of five years.

Yankee efforts to get Ruffing in a trade with Boston were unsuccessful until this semester. The late Miller Huggins always liked Charlie's twirling but never could make his offer look attractive enough to the Red Sox owners.

* * *

CHARLIE HITS, TOO

Ruffing met his ups and downs even after he donned Yankee spangles. Shawkey employed him during the first few weeks mainly as a relief hurler. Then he reached his stride, both in pitching and batting. Latest averages showed Ruffing enjoying a winning percentage for a change, with a record of strikeouts surpassed by only a few. His batting average was the nifty figure of .365, a sizeable average for a moundsman.

Not many critics are figuring the Yankees as pennant winners this year. As it stands now, however, the classy pitching dispensed by Sherid and Ruffing makes them bang-up opposition for the Mackmen or the Senators on any given afternoon.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Johnny Evers, once great Cub infielder now scouting for the Braves, says there are no wonderful prospects in the sticks this season.... Johnny declares most of the young hopefuls need at least two or three years in which to ripen..He thinks the minors are paying the kids too much money.."I can name hundreds of youngsters making more money in the bushes than some of the stars in my day," declares the Braves' scout..Johnny Kling, another fellow who, like Evers, helped the Cubs win pennant years ago, makes golf his hobby today.."I'd rather play a round of golf than watch a ball game," says the Cubs' old backstop—He hits the low 80's for an 18..and once in a while comes in in the 70's..Kling is 54 and plenty active..Besides his golf, Johnny runs nis billiard hall, hotel, manages a theater and inspects his farm..He has a sackful of dollars laid away for a leisurely tour of Europe with his wife and two daughters this fall.

The Macmillan "more mileage" guarantee is made possible by the "Boner-Campbell process" of manufacture, recently developed by the Macmillan Petroleum Corporation and owned exclusively by this company.

PEOPLE said... "there is nothing new under the sun"... but astronomers discovered a new planet. People said... "All gasolines are alike"... but chemists of the Macmillan laboratories discovered a process of refinement that is revolutionary in its nature . . . a process that turns topsy-turvy many of the old theories and established methods of manufacture. It is protected from infringement by full patent rights. By this method certain desirable elements, lost in the ordinary processes of refining, are retained.

You as the owner of a motor car are not interested in the technical chemistry of this process. But you are interested in its results.

...a clean, crystal clear, odorless gasoline, free of carbon causing elements. A gasoline that starts quickly in cold weather as well as warm..¶provides quick pick-up and 12 per cent greater power..¶is guaranteed to give more mileage than any gasoline you ever used, or your money back. ¶ In short, this exclusive Macmillan process of manufacture gives you in Macmillan gasoline a combination heretofore thought impossible to obtain . . . quick starting, maximum power and greater mileage (guaranteed).

Proof is waiting for you at Macmillan pumps, or your money will be refunded.

TWO GIRLS SIT FOR RECORD ON TOP OF GARAGE

MIDWAY CITY, July 25.—Other towns throughout the country are put onto the map by their "flag pole" sitters, tree sitters, etc., but it has been left for Midway City to have its "garage" sitters.

Two little girls, Doris Gorrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert M. Gorrell, local postmaster and pharmacist and Mrs. Gorrell, and Marjorie Field, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keller, are those who aspired to be winners in the new form of sport. Both girls are 10 years of age and are of those who have eagerly kept up with record breaking events of sky and earth since these became the rage of the day. So on Monday afternoon the two little girls took to the roof of the Keller garage at 200 Adams street, taking with them their beds with the firm intention of not coming off their chosen site until they considered they had won a record.

All went well until along in the middle of the night when parental fear for the safety of the children won out over the determination of the little girls to stay and they were taken from the room. Not to be outdone on their first "marathon" the girls climbed back upon their perch at an early hour the next morning and there they stay until about the middle of each night when they are bodily removed by their respective parents.

The girls are bound to make a "daylight" record if not possible to make a continuous one, so anyone passing along Adams street, Midway City, and seeing two young girls perched upon a garage may know they are Midway City's aspirants to the breaking of the "garage" sitting record.

ART ASSOCIATION HAS PICTURE SALE

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—Expecting to approximate if not duplicate its success of a year ago, the Laguna Beach Art association is exhibiting a fine assortment of watercolors and oil paintings, all small ones, which are being sold at a "silent" auction.

Most of the resident artists have contributed and many of the members of the association who do not live here have sent in paintings which are to be auctioned for the benefit of the gallery.

Bids on the small paints start at $10 and are raised not less than one dollar each. Bidders write their bids, each subsequent one adding his name and bid to the list under the painting of his choice.

Among the artists whose paintings are displayed in the auction are Edouard Vysekal, Ross Shattuck, A. J. Hammond, John Hinchman, Thomas L. Hunt, John Hubbard Rich, Julie Raymond, Joseph Kleitsch, Theodore Modra and William Wendt.

Separate Junior College Favored By Chamber Heads

DIRECTORS IN OPPOSITION TO CENTRAL PLANT

FULLERTON, July 25. — The board of directors of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce went on record as favoring a northern Orange county junior college as opposed to a county college, at the weekly meeting of the board at McFarland's cafe yesterday. The vote was unanimous.

"Politics or education" was the challenge hurled before the directors with the junior college as the issue by J. A. Prizer, chairman of the Fullerton union high school board of trustees.

Following a discussion and talks by Prizer and Albert Launer, also of the school board, the directors passed the following resolution:

"Whereas the recent census shows a population in the northern part of Orange county sufficient to fill the present junior college to capacity.

"Be it resolved that the directors of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce hereby place themselves as definitely on record for a northern Orange county junior college as a separate campus located to best serve all northern districts."

Attacks Survey

In commenting on the meeting of Fullerton and Santa Ana junior college trustees at the county seat Tuesday night, Prizer declared that the information was generally conveyed that the session was called for the purpose of discussing a county junior college move, and that the proposed survey was intended to further the program.

"I went to Santa Ana for this purpose of discussing junior college problems and not with the idea of talking over the county junior college, as was indicated," Prizer said.

"It was my opinion that the action of the Santa Ana board was all prepared in advance and rushed through to gain the survey and that it is their hope and recommendation that when this work is completed the data may be used to force the county junior college, indicating that such an institution should be placed in the Santa Ana district.

"Santa Ana has everything to gain and nothing to lose by such a project. That gang and the Associated Chambers of Commerce have consistently fought for one our junior college from us only by junior college, but they can take a process of eliminating revenue such as by taking Anaheim and all junior college district and leaving the rest of the county into one the Fullerton union district with not enough students to support the school.

Politics Claimed

"I think they are trying to jam the thing down our throats and we are in no hurry for it. This survey is obviously to be used to halt friendly interest toward a northern Orange county junior college and to favor a county junior college. I have no objections to getting the information desired, but I object to the way it is being put across. I am in the minority in both boards and I may be wrong. I think it is largely politics. Why can't we wait for six weeks until after election before going ahead with such a plan."

Albert Launer spoke briefly in commenting on the survey, declaring that he believed the survey would provide information of value on which to base a decision in the junior college matter.

"I have no fear of Santa Ana's domination," he said. "I feel that that we should have the question of one or two junior colleges settled definitely. We want the survey with its benefit of impartial advice and facts on the junior college situation. For that reason we have merely asked the supervisors to make the survey, believing the expenditure of the six or seven thousand dollars necessary will be justified before we spend money for new buildings or changes."

CHAMBERS MEET TUESDAY

LOS ALAMITOS, July 25.—The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county will meet at the Woman's Improvement clubhouse for a dinner Tuesday night which will be served by the Aid Society of Community church.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS

The American Gold Star mothers have aroused widespread admiration while on their pilgrimage to their sons' graves in France. Each group, while in Paris, pays homage at the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier. Here you see a typical group of Gold Star mothers placing wreaths on the tomb.

PHOTOGRAPHERS IN ANAHEIM GATHERING

The Photographers' Association of Orange county met last night at Anaheim park for a pot luck dinner. At the beginning of the dinner, a large cake was given to Miss Mary Smart, of Santa Ana, in observance of her birthday.

Following dinner, the group repaired to the Betzold studios for a business session. Each photographer, commercial and portrait, presented a picture for judging as to lighting, retouching, composition and technique.

Miss Smart won first prize for portrait work and Clifford Green first and second for commercial photography. Mrs. Betzold was awarded second prize in the portrait contest.

At conclusion of the business session ice cream and the birthday cake were served.

FIRE BURNS HILLSIDE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Dan Mulherron's tractor was held to rest on a hill just east of town the other night. Early in the morning, some time shortly after midnight, some one visited the tractor, drained all the gas in the tank and in some way set fire to the grass. Before morning the whole hillside was burned.

A number of the 150 cars which it is expected will be seen in the parade, will be entered by Orange. The parade will form at the most northern point of the new highway .

Automobiles will be decorated, it was said. Following in order will be cars from Orange, Garden Grove, Anaheim, Buena Park, Fullerton, La Habra, San Juan Capistrano, San Clemente, Dana Point, Laguna Beach, Newport and Balboa, Huntington Beach, Seal Beach, Sunset Beach, Milway City, Cypress, Westminster and ending with cars entered by the Manchester Avenue association.

TALKS ON AVIATION

BUENA PARK, July 25.—"The Safety and Principles Involved in Aviation as a Means of Commercial Transportation" was the topic of an address given by Frank W. Hainey, representative of the Western Air Express, before the Buena Park Kiwanis club meeting, Tuesday evening in the Woman's clubhouse. Henry Schmitz was program chairman for the evening. Archie Raitt, northern Orange county Y. M. C. A. secretary and son Walter, of Fullerton, were special guests.

STATE PLAN OF FINANCING HELD COUNTIES' NEED

BY ELWOOD SQUIRES
United Press Correspondent

California counties eventually will b eforced into a plan for financing public constructions much like that used by the state, in opinion of state officials.

Bond issues are now used almost exclusively by counties in this construction work, with heavy interest burdens placed on future generations, it is pointed out.

In Orange county, $5,022,000 in bonded indebtedness is now outstanding, requiring interest payments of $275,152 each year, according to a report compiled by State Controller Ray L. Riley.

The state some time ago adopted what is known as a "10 year building program." Under this plan all improvements are figured ahead, estimating year by year what the increase in prison, institution, and educational populations will be and how much will be needed by these various units of the government for new construction.

Each year a certain definite project is started and completed, with funds made available through the longtime planning.

Although state officials admit that counties have a somewhat different problem, they contend that the scheme could be used with modifications to cut down the burden of bond indebtedness now being carried by taxpayers.

Careful estimates should be made for example, in the growth of a county hospital. Additions to take care of this increase can then be constructed as needed from current funds, with no necessity for sudden outlays after an institution has become so overcrowded that an urgency exists.

Schools should also be studied, to determine usability of present buildings and an estimate of the date of obsolescence of each. Such a study would indicate the manner for developing each school gradually as finances permit. County authorities too often no wsuddenly discover woefully overcrowded conditions and an immediate need for new buildings, which under the present system must be met by a bond issue.

WILL PRESENT RECITAL

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—The students of Mrs. Wilma Kammeyer Thompson will give an expression recital in the Community Presbyterian church Saturday, July 26. This is the closing one of the season, classes going on vacation until September. Those who will appear Saturday are: Maurine Jones, Nevalle Ropp, Verda Mackey, Janell Nolan, June Lighthart, Marian Bennett, Marjory Blakeney, Beverly Wilbur, Margaret Wilbur, Helen Parry, Marian Parry, Janese Browne, Bobby Cook, Patsy Snyder, Beryl Warren and Gail Palmer.

MEEK TO GIVE HIGHWAY TALK IN YORBA LINDA

B. B. Meek, state director of public works, is expected to be present at the meeting of the Imperial Highway association to be held at Yorba Linda this evening and a large delegation will be present from El Centro.

George Kellogg, of Yorba Linda, secretary of the association, who has returned from a camping trip over various roads suggested for the eastern end of the "cannonball" route, will tell about these various roads.

The first road inspected was east of Corona and this was found to be a steep grade. The Beaumont cutoff on the Riverside-Beaumont road over the Morena grade was then gone over, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg went to Hemet and made an inspection of the route over the San Jacinto mountains.

They went up the Idyllwild grade and beyond Lake Hemet to Vandeventer Flats. This road, to two miles east of Keen camp, is a high gear road and has been completed by Riverside county with prison labor. It is expected that it will be completed to Indio by October, 1931.

Going back to Hemet, they went over St. John's grade to the junction with the Temecula road and doubled back to Temecula, covering the road as far as the junction with the inland route of the state highway. Kellogg states that very little improvement work has been done by Riverside county on these country roads and that their condition is extremely poor.

Going from Aguanga to Warner's Hot Springs, San Diego county, was entered, and the roads were found to be of decomposed granite, well cared for, and a speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour could be maintained, while in Riverside county it was not possible to average 20 miles per hour.

Going on to Sentenac canyon, the road through The Narrows to Kane Springs was found to be improved as far as Kane Springs, where the old road will be abandoned and a new road will be built to the valley at a cost of $100,000 to Imperial county. Because of a lack of funds it is expected that it will take five years to complete this road.

Coming back home Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg took the usual route through Banning, over the Moreno grade to Riverside, and made the trip home in six hours running time. The proposed route through Warners Hot Springs and down San Felipe valley will cut 15 miles from the trip, besides providing a road of great scenic beauty.

LARGEST CABIN SHIP

DR. V. A. WOOD RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

ORANGE, July 25.—Dr. V. A. Wood and family, returned yesterday from a trip to the middle west where Wood has property interests. At Sioux Falls, S. Dak., business conditions are the best he observed on his trip, the local dentist says. He attributes the flourishing condition of that vicinity to the fact that the greater number of people around the city own their own farms. Crops are very good in this part of South Dakota, he says.

OFFER $15,000 IN PRIZES FOR FAIR EXHIBITS

A chance for women and girls of Santa Ana to earn part of more than $15,000 in cash prizes is offered in the domestic art and domestic science department of the state fair August 30 to September 7.

The whole range of housewife handicraft is covered by the prizes —from china painting to cake and bread baking, according to Charles W. Paine, secretary-manager of the exposition.

Premium lists together with entry blanks may be obtained by writing Mrs. Jane Amundsen, superintendent of the women's building at the State Fair grounds, Sacramento. Entries close August 20.

In the china painting division the premiums total $225, including a sweepstake of $15 first and $10 second. For specimen embroidery, lace and drawn work, hand-made, the premiums total $120; living room fancy work, $145; dining room linen, $75; bedroom linen and quilts, $175; wearing apparel, $170; arts and crafts, such as lampshades, picture embroidery, etc., $185; home-made jams, jellies and candied fruit, vegetables and meats, $180, with a sweepstake of $15 first and $10 second; home-made preserves, pickles, catsup, etc., $120, with a sweepstake of $15 first and $10 second; home-made bread, $33.

The entire fee is 20 per cent of the first premium offered on any article. The articles are to be shipped or taken to the women's building at the fair grounds. For the first time in history, second premiums are being offered in all departments in all classes of the department.

Bridge Club Members Bidden to Meet House-Guest

That charming and hospitable home, the Harry Spencer residence on North Park boulevard, was the setting for a pleasant affair of Wednesday, when Mrs. Spencer was hostess to her bridge club and presided over an attractively appointed luncheon. Members were delighted with the opportunity of meeting the guest of the home, Mrs. R. C. Troeger of Los Angeles.

The inviting menu was served at the dining table, spread with exquisite ecru lace over deep rose hues. Tapers and candle holders in pink and green added their colorful note, as did the cluster of mixed blossoms which centered the table.

Bridge was the afternoon diversion, and prize awards were made to Mrs. Howard Stone, holder of high score; Mrs. Fred Catlin, second high, and to Mrs. J. L. Allen, who held high score among the guests.

Club members present other than the hostess, Mrs. Spencer, were Mesdames F. E. Museus, S. Jones, Fred Catlin, C. H. Overstolz, La Vern Katz, Howard Stone and James D. Farrage; while guests were Mrs. George Catlin, Mrs. J. L. Allen, Mrs. Ward Lindley and Mrs. R. C. Troeger, of Los Angeles.

Miss Ruth Davis Wins Master's Degree

Returning this week from New York, where she has been attending Columbia University for the past year, Miss Ruth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis of 1316 Cypress avenue, is receiving congratulations from her many friends, occasioned by her having just obtained her Masters degree from the Teachers' college of that institution.

Miss Davis will remain in this city until about the first of September, at which time she will go by train to Columbia, Mo., where she will be on the teaching staff of the athletic department of Missouri. She has a host of friends in this city, where she has lived for a number of years. Graduating from Santa Ana high school, she began her advanced studies in the local junior college, and continued them at the University of California at Berkeley, later entering Columbia University.

Messrs. Fred Hein and Albert ("Charley") Blower lent their aid in planning the festivity down to the last detail, and in seeing that Miss Beemer and Mr. Walworth arrived according to schedule.

The honored guests are to be wedded at high noon on Thursday, July 31, and the few days remaining before the nuptials, are being crowded with just such pleasant affairs as the garden party. In recognition of the approaching wedding date, the guest group joined in presenting a handsome bridge lamp to the happy couple, with Lloyd Smith making the presentation talk.

Sharing the hospitality with the host group, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hein, Miss Frances Hein and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hein, were their honor guests, Miss Beemer and Mr. Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Caldwell, the Misses Irene Blower, Julia Nissen, Frances Knudson, Eleanor Guyer, Ruth Beemer, Pearl Jaggers, Ada Falkner and Elizabeth Gilmour, and Messrs. Lloyd Smith, Frank Humphrey, Victor Morrison, Millard Beemer, Elbert Blower, Albert Blower, Wallace Miller and Huestis Snow.

Flying Needle Group Welcomes Return Of Member

Yesterday's meeting of the Flying Needle club with Mrs. Clara Belle Barnes as hostess in her home at 1114 South Birch street, was one which the members had long been awaiting in anticipation of greeting one of their number, Mrs. Nettie J. Bergendorff, who has just returned from her mission overseas as a Gold Star mother. She seemed as delighted about her return as did the club members, and was very entertaining as she told some of her interesting and impressive experiences, illustrating many of them with pictures.

A delectable luncheon was served at noon on card tables spread with attractive linens, and provided a delightful intermission for the needle workers. In the afternoon they continued with their dainty handwork, and Mrs. Adolph Erickson received the hostess prize of the day, a charming vase.

Guests present were Mrs. Ruia Hampton and Mrs. L. A. Hampton, of Fullerton, who will be co-hostesses in entertaining the club members at their next session.

Members present other than the hostess, Mrs. Clara Belle Barnes, were Mesdames Erroll Barnes, William Kintz, Delbert Johnson, Barnard Snee, Frank Brown, Adolph Erickson, Nettie Bergendorff, and Miss Verena Bailey.

Church Group Honors Natal Day of Pastor

Members of the Orange Avenue Christian church succeeded in honoring their pastor, the Rev. C. F. Martin, of 2213 North Main street, with a delightful surprise party, recently, when they urged him to attend a board meeting which, they explained, was to be held in the church. On arriving, the Rev. Mr. Martin discovered that about 50 members of his congregation were awaiting the opportunity to wish him a happy birthday.

The evening hours flew by as the merry group indulged in various games and contests, and the most interesting event of all took place when the honor guest was presented with a purse containing quite a sum of money. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at a late hour.

Card Club Guest Plans Party As Return Hospitality

Entertained so frequently by members of the Friendly Neighborhood Card club of French street, that she has sometimes been accorded the title of "official substitute," Mrs. L. L. Beeman (Estelle Card Beeman) paid a graceful compliment to her friends of the club, by inviting them to accept her hospitality in return, extended in the form of a charmingly informal little evening party in her home, 910 French street.

That pleasant California courtesy of sending flowers to hostesses, was observed in this case, by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Smith, who culled choice gladioluses and dahlias from the extensive gardens of their ranch east of the city, and sent them to Mrs. Beeman to deck her home for the event. While the blossoms represented all the lovely flower hues of the summer season, pink and yellow tones predominated, establishing the decorative motif for the evening.

In the bridge session the prizes were awarded Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Arthur Lyon, formerly Mrs. Grace Zaiser, and also one of the club's favorite substitutes.

As the evening drew to a close, Mrs. Beeman spread her tables with dainty linens for serving refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Gay Engagement Party Given For Friends Of Young Couple

Flowers in white and pale pink were used with much graceful greenery to give a festive aspect to the home, and in the living room a large arch was wound with flowers and festooned with vegetables to provide setting for a mock wedding. The ceremony gave a world of entertainment to the guests with its mirth-provoking features.

Additional entertainment was given by a series of games, while musical numbers by Mrs. Moody Schrock, Mrs. Basil Mark, little Margie Lee Buck and Donna Jean Buck were followed by a humorous reading by Mrs. C. D. Hicks and an original poem by Miss Sallie Correll, relating the romance of Miss Jones and Mr. Best.

Late in the evening, Mrs. Jones added the final pleasant touch to the hospitality by serving a daintily arranged refreshment course to the guests who included in addition to the happy young honor guests, Miss Lorece Jones and Mr. Best, the Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Hicks, the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Domestic Arts Club Is Anticipating Picnic Affair

Adding to the pleasure of the recent meeting of the Domestic Arts club with Mrs. T. E. Williams of 926 Hickory street, was the fact that one of the members, Mrs. Charles L. Johnson, was able to be present after a long and serious illness from which she is slowly convalescing.

This little group, which has been meeting at semi-monthly intervals for a number of years, spent the usual busy and enjoyable afternoon with pieces of dainty needlework.

Plans were made for an equally happy time in two weeks, when the members will motor to Laguna Beach and enjoy the hospitality of the J. R. Mayer home on the Coast boulevard, with Mrs. Mayer (LaRue Fipps Mayer) as hostess. Each member will take some special dish to add to the menu of the covered dish dinner to be enjoyed.

To complete the hospitality of the afternoon, Mrs. Williams served refreshing pineapple ice with angel-food cake and iced tea, to her guests who included Mrs. Johnson, her daughter, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. C. F. Skirvin, Mrs. C. J. Skirvin, Mrs. W. B. Williams, Mrs. A. W. Gerrard, Mrs. E. G. Summers, Mrs. H. W. Leecing, Mrs. W. B. Martin and Mrs. T. P. Kingrey.

Birthday Celebration Takes Form of Gay Beach Party

In honor of the seventeenth birthday of Miss Margaret Guthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Guthrie, 824 North Olive street, Mrs. Guthrie entertained yesterday afternoon at the beach cottage of Mrs. A. J. Rutter, on Balboa Island.

Much merriment was caused from the various swimming and boat races, held in the cool waters of the bay, and for which athletic feats, prizes were awarded the Misses Lola Christie, Kathryn Budd, Ruth Beemer and Betty Walker.

In the early evening hours, a delectable supper and weiner bake was enjoyed on the beach, climaxed by a huge birthday cake, attractively iced in pink and white, and presented the honoree.

Those present were the honoree, Miss Margaret Guthrie, Miss Lola Christie, Miss Kathryn Budd, Miss Ruth Beemer, Miss Betty Walker, Miss Charlotte Stewart, Miss Mary Beth Campbell, Miss Dorothy Grizzle, Mrs. T. H. Budd and small children, Ruth and Edwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Guthrie.

Informal Dinner Party Draws Close Friends In Congenial Group

That congenial spirit engendered when a small group of intimate friends is brought together around a dining table, was manifested last night when Dr. and Mrs. Cassius Paul entertained at dinner in their Wright street home, complimenting Mrs. William Weeks (Virginia Russell). Mrs. Weeks will leave at the end of the summer for her new home in the north where Mr. Weeks has already preceded her to enter upon his duties with a lumber company with headquarters in San Francisco.

Mrs. Paul had planned a Southern dinner menu for her guests, serving it at a table charmingly centered with flowers in French bouquet effect, their delicate hues harmonizing with the pattern of her dinner service and the colored crystal used.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Taylor jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Neil Stanley and Edward Miller of Long Beach, were the guests asked to complete the little circle with Dr. and Mrs. Paul and Mrs. Weeks. After a leisurely dinner the group concluded the evening with dancing at Balboa.

Mrs. Paul returned only recently from an extended stay in Forest Home where Dr. Paul joined her for the week ends in the pleasant cabin of the Dr. James E. Pauls. The mountain outings have also been varied by several weeks at nearby beaches.

Ebell Members Plan Benefit Bridge

As the summer season nears its climax, and people are returning from their vacation travels, Ebell members are beginning to anticipate two especially prominent events of the year, plans for both of which are well under way.

The first is the public benefit party for the Ebell day nursery which is to be held August 14 on the beautiful grounds of the T. F. Ham home at 2439 Heliotrope drive. Mrs. C. A. Bach, as chairman of the day nursery committee of Ebell society, has promised that this will be a most delightful affair which it is expected will draw a large crowd of Orange county women who are anxious to help the nursery through one of the most trying years it has experienced.

Always anticipated by nature lovers, is the Ebell Flower show given once a year, but the one scheduled for September 25 and 26 is expected to surpass any previous ones, as the entire club house is to be devoted to the exhibition. The members are uniting in their efforts to have their plans materialize.

Lovely Young Musician Wedded at Church Ceremony

Much interest has been aroused by announcement of the quiet marriage in Long Beach on Sunday, July 20, of Miss Ariel Thompson, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, 714 West Second street, and Clark Barr of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Barr, now of Medford, Ore., but formerly of Santa Ana.

The ceremony uniting the two young people, was a morning event taking place in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Long Beach, with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Tanbaum, officiating.

Miss Thompson was altogether charming in a demurely graceful gown of white georgette, with all dress accessories in bridal white. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Barr and the little group of guests, returned to this city where the wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson, 619 West Third street.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Riddelle of Dauphin, Manitoba; Mrs. William Snyder of Winnipeg, Canada; Mrs. Louise G. Stoneman, the Misses Alsa, Maxine and Vivian Thompson, Miss Gladys Stoneman and Chester Bratsch.

The happy young people left for a brief honeymoon, Mrs. Barr traveling in a smart costume of white wool crepe with black and white accessories. Their plans embrace taking the family home of the bride's parents on West Second street, while Mr. and Mrs. Thompson take a northern trip which will take them into Vancouver, B. C., and other points and from which they will not return until October.

Mr. Barr is a graduate of Tustin Union high school and of a local business college. His bride attended Polytechnic high school and later a business college of this city. She is a talented musician, and as a member of the Russell Thompson Hawaiian trio, has delighted many audiences in the community and won a large radio following by playing over Station KREG.

Lemon Heights Home Is Setting For Lively Party

Now that pajamas are becoming so universally popular for so many occasions, it was quite fitting that Miss Florence Ulrich should entertain with a pajama party, when she invited her most intimate friends to share the delights of her Lemon Heights home last evening. The long living room of the home was a veritable flower garden, with its innumerable bowls and masses of gladioluses, spicy carnations, zinnias, marigolds, fragrant rosebuds and dahlias, garnered from the pretty Ulrich gardens.

Cootie was enjoyed early in the evening, for which first prize was awarded Miss Ramona Smith, while Miss Lola Christie received consolation. Other clever and amusing games followed, with dancing as a variation. By special request Miss June Arnold entertained with a most amusing reading, which which was a take-off on "Romeo and Juliet." Fortunes by cards were effectively told by Miss June Arnold, until the wee hours of the morning when refreshments carrying out the pink and white color scheme, were served. The girls then retired to their various assigned rooms and the affair resolved itself into a slumber party.

The happy event drew to a close this morning, with a prettily appointed breakfast, after which, the girls dispersed, several going to the beach.

Those present were the hostess, Miss Florence Ulrich, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. E. Ulrich, Miss Lola Christie, of Balboa; Miss Ramona Smith, Miss June Arnold, and Miss Zelma Beemer, of Santa Ana; Miss Lorain Comer and Miss Miriam Samuelson of Tustin.

Engaged Couple Honored at Party

In honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Zelma Beemer and Ray Walworth, which will be an event of next Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walworth entertained last evening in their ranch home on Lewis avenue, West Orange. Colorful nodding dahlias were used in profusion about the home. Bridge and five hundred were pleasant diversions of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Many lovely gifts to be used in the kitchen of their new home, were showered upon the young couple.

Those present to enjoy the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. James Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shirley, Mrs. J. J. Beemer, the Misses Ruth Beemer, Laura Morrow, Edna Kinsell, and Roddie Deull, Willard Fitch, J. D. McNutt, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walworth.

Cheese-Seasoned Dishes

A convenient quick way to prepare au gratin or escalloped dishes seasoned with cheese, is to use a package of cheese wafers, rolled fine. All the bother of grating cheese is gone, and if a crustier cheese top is desired, have on hand a package or two of grated Parmesan cheese.

A delicious luncheon dish can be quickly made by combining small quantities of cooked vegetables in a cup of cream sauce, arranging this mixture with alternate layers of crushed cheese wafer crumbs, the crumbs topping the dish. Ten minutes in a hot oven si all htat is necessary to add that delectable crusty brown that makes jaded appetites sit up and take new interest in life.

Another use I have found for these cheese wafer crumbs is in breading chicken, veal or pork chops for frying. The cheese flavor adds tremendously to any of the three mentioned meats. Single or double breading may be used, but I think for fried chicken the double breading method is better.

Dip the pieces of chicken in egg, then into the fine crumbs, place on waxed paper and allow to dry. Repeat the process just before the chicken is put to fry.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Fried Corn Omelette

(Six Portions)

12 ears green corn
3 eggs
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon sugar
1-4 cup thin cream
Butter to fry corn

Strip the husks and silk from the ears and with a sharp knife score down each row of kernels to release the milky pulp. Now, turn the back of the knife nad press the pulp out of the kernels, scraping part of the kernels along with the pulp. Have a small amount of melted butter in a small fry pan, gently saute the corn pulp, just enough to take away the raw taste, but at no time must it be allowed to brown.

Beat the eggs very light, add cream, salt and sugar. Combine with the sauted corn and make little omelettes the size of a large hot cake—two spoonfuls dropped into hot butter is enough for each omelette and they must be cooked and turned just as you would cook hot cakes. Roll up and serve on a hot platter garnished with curls of crisp bacon.

Don't they sound sum'shus? They are!

* * *

I don't know exactly how many little omelettes you can get out of this amount, but I do know that divided evenly between six people the individual calory total is a little less than 200. Proteins and fats account for most of the calories. Serve these omelettes in place of meat.

NOW "BOOTS" IS ALL SET FOR AFTERNOON OR EVENING

'GOOD INTENTIONS' DEALS WITH CROOK

A talkie with something of an underworld flavor, but radically different in theme and treatment from the usual gangster film, is offered in "Good Intentions," the Fox movietone production which closes at the Fox West Coast theater tonight.

The story, dealing with the troubles of a gentleman crook, who decides to retire and be respectable after having cleaned up a small fortune, is uniquely presented by a noteworthy group of players headed by Edmund Lowe and the various complications come in rapid succession and build up the audience's interest to a high pitch. Lowe's performance is remarkable both in spirit and execution and he manages to invest the character with much more sympathy than would seem possible.

Marguerite Churchill makes a charming heroine, and Regis Toomey gives a convincing portrayal of Lowe's rival in love. Hale Hamilton, Owen Davis jr., Earle Foxe, Eddie Gribbon, J. Carrol Naish, Georgia Caine, Henry Kolker and Pat Somerset all handle their roles in a pleasing way. William K. Howard not only wrote the original story but directed it as well, achieving a thoroughly entertaining picture.

See the Auto Circus. Orange County Fair Grounds, Saturday at 3 p. m and 8 p. m.—Adv.

KEN MAYNARD FILM AT STATE TONIGHT

It has breakneck horsemanship, stunts and plenty of action and Maynard followers are promised a fast moving yarn in a colorful setting.

Sequences in which Maynard rides three horses standing upon the backs of the outer two are particularly commendable.

'WAY OUT WEST' AT BROADWAY TONIGHT

William Haines' latest talking comedy, "Way Out West," opened today at the Fox Brodaway theater with a cast which includes Leila Hyams, Polly Moran, Cliff Edwards, Frances X. Bushman. The story, which is the work of Byron Morgan and Alfred Block, was directed by Fred Niblo and is the veteran director's first comedy in seven years.

The picture is adroitly named, part of it having been filmed on the famous Fort Tejon cattle ranch and the remainder in the Hopi Indian pueblo country near Gallup, New Mexico.

The picture is a howling farce which presents Haines as a carnival barker whose attempts at cheating a group of cowboys with a crooked roulette wheel land him on a Western ranch on the back of a bucking broncho. He becomes involved in a series of exciting escapades but beforce thep icture is over he proved that he can stand the gaff of the country where "men are men."

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

BOLSA

BOLSA, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth returned Sunday night from San Juan Hot springs where they were camping with Mrs. Farnsworth's cousin, Mrs. Bertha Gross of Los Angeles, who on Thursday will come to the Farnsworth home for a visit before terminating her vacation. Mrs. Farnsworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, will go that day to San Juan Hot springs to occupy the tent for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth also spent a night at Escondido with relatives during their vacation.

The Bolsa clubhouse has been rented to a man for the purpose of holding dances each Saturday evening so the card parties which have ordinarily been held on that evening have been cancelled. The first dance was held on last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pysden and children have returned from a motor vacation trip. They visited Oakland and San Rajhael and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garcia, formerly of this place, at Ventura and at several other points stopped with former Canadian friends.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Pysden and family were of a group composed of several Canalian families who were entertained at Wintersburg by Mr. and Mrs. Mills Cowling who were celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary.

Louis Walton is getting about with a cane this week as the result of injuries sustained when kicked by a cow at a dairy where he works.

Mrs. M. Shiffer will leave soon for Delta, Utah, where she will visit her children and their families. Mrs. Shiffer has received word of the birth of twins in the hcome of her son, Adam Shiffer and wife.

A police dog which was prized as a faithful watch dog and pet of the children of the Ralph Ross family was poisoned one night at the home. The dog was all right at bedtime the night before and when found early the following morning was in convulsions and died shortly after.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller of Hawthorne were entertained as evening guests by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ross.

Donald Ross who recently had the misfortune to break one of his legs is convalescing nicely. His little sister, Ruth, has been ill for several days.

Mrs. Fay Fuller who recently was operated upon at the Santa Ana Valley hospital, was to have returned home Monday, but owing to a slight turn in her condition was not able to come that day.

Normand and Donald Harding, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Harding, are convalescing most satisfactorily from tonsil operations at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bauer and family were at San Juan Hot Springs for the day, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fields and daughter, Virginia, and nephew, Harrell Howard, of San Bernardino, were week end visitors with relatives in Bolsa and Silver Acres.

Mrs. George Pysden and Mrs. John Farnsworth attended a meeting of the "Willing Workers" society held Wednesday, at the Newport Beach home of Mrs. Fred McIntee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gizson were visitors Sunday at San Juan Hot Springs.

The two new residences which are being erected by Louis Bauer, one on Bolsa boulevard, the other on Wright street, are progressing quite rapidly, one being ready for the finishing work, the other just going into the hands of the plasterers.

STANTON

STANTON, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson and their daughter Betty Lou attended the wedding of Carl Brown and Miss Olive Hirst of Long Beach on Sunday. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist church and was followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brown of Long Beach are moving to their new home recently built on Second street, of the Star subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Crockets of Hawthorne are spending a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thompson.

Mr. T. W. Clark is building a pergola and making other improvements to his ranch home. He expects to build a cottage at Lagune Beach this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reckinger had for Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. James McArdle and Mr. and Mrs. C. Wuytens of Long Beach. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Reckinger entertained 22 friends from Long Beach, Ventura, Norwalk and Cypress to a chicken barbecue at Irvine Park.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Rutledge, and two daughters Mary Jane and Katherine and Frank Rutledge drove to San Diego on Saturday to visit an aunt, Mrs. Charles Kernan. Mary Jane and Katherine Rutledge in company with young people from Orange spent two days this week at Balboa Beach.

Mrs. A. Minder of Lincoln boulevard gave a 1 o'clock three-course luncheon on Thursday. The home was beautifully decorated with large dahlias and other garden flowers. Those enjoying the event were Mrs. A. Quarten, Mrs. G. Mender, Mrs. R. Bennett, Mrs. A Hartlet and Mrs. H. Barnes. Mrs. Mender was assisted by her two daughters, Elaine and Bernice.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. W J. Chappelka of Redlands visited Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Johnson one day last week. Another day Mr. and Mrs. Johnson drove to Oceanside to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Curtis and two daughters started back to their home at Watsonville after spending a week with relatives here and at Fullerton. Before they left a beach party was given them Friday evening at Balboa Beach by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gillison, Mrs. M. B. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maurer entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fulscher of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Powell and Mr. and Mrs. M. Hughs of Long Beach. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Maurer and son Walter Maurer visited his sister, Mrs. Etta Barnhart of Los Angeles.

William Mrowfka, who has been in the Orange County hospital with infantile paralysis is out at work driving a team. It is reported that Walter Bitner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bitner is improving and that the paralysis has all left his body.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Surber of San Diego visited her two sisters and their families recently, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sitko and Mr. and Mrs. R. Stump.

Mrs. W. A. McKibben of Los Angeles is visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. F. McKibben a few days this week.

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a Daily Essential and Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one simple thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexity. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, such as bran muffins, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

The sights in Bagdad all seemed queer. "Oh, my, what funny people here," said Clowny. "They're not dressed like us at all. I wonder why. The flowing gowns in which they dress keep them all pretty hot, I guess. Yet they all seem real comfortable as they go walking by."

"They're used to it and do not mind," the Travel Man replied. "You'll find that when you're used to anything it always seems all right. No doubt they also smile at you 'cause they don't wear the clothes you do. In little suits like Tinies wear, you likely look a sight."

Then Scouty broke right in and cried. "Well, anyway, I'm satisfied! Come on, let's look around a bit and see what we can see. Some of the buildings look like clay. I'd think they'd crack and fall away. And, gee, how strange the streets all look. They're narrow as can be." They walked around beneath the sun until it ceased to be much fun. "Hey, this is much too hot for me," said Coppy, with a sigh. "If you all want to walk a bit, I'll wait here. In the shade I'll sit." "Oh, no! We're going to rest up too," he heard the others cry.

They sat for just a little while. Then Coppy broke out in a smile. "Oh, look!" said he. "I see a stream. I'll bet it's cool down there." "Why, that's the Tigris river, lad," replied the Travel Man. "I'm glad that we are right near by it. Come, I have a plan that's rare."

They reached the shore and all took note of quite a funny looking boat. Instead of like the usual boat, 'twas absolutely round. "Hop in," the Travel Man cried out. "We find what this is all about." And, so they did and shortly on a river trip were bound.

Missing Letter Links

RULES:

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

KEEP to BACK—Give your opponent a chance and KEEP BACK while he's trying to make this par four hole.

MANAGER WITHOUT LICENSE

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—James S. Dean, city manager of Sacramento, is learning rapidly about law and other matters connected with government.

While traveling along the state highway near here the other evening he was stopped by a traffic officer, who notified him that one of his headlights was out. Then the officer discovered that Dean had no driver's license.

Roy Bentson of Fullerton former resident of this locality was calling on relatives and friends Saturday afternoon.

Ida McCarter who was injured a short time ago in an automobile accident has recovered sufficiently to resume his work.

EL MODENA

EL MODENA, July 25.—Friends here have received word of the birth of a baby son to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noble of Bloomington, Monday, July 21, at the Colton hospital. Mrs. Noble before her marriage was Miss Florence Carlton, a resident of El Modena.

The many local friends of Mrs. E. H. Klaustermeyer will be gald to learn she is improving very satisfactory considering the seriousness of her illness. She will remain in the Bondes sanitarium at 801 Prospect avenue, South Pasadena for several weeks. The Woman's Missionary Society of El Modena of which Mrs. Klaustermeyer is a member joined by friends recently tendered her with a post card shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Noral Evans of North Alameda street are enjoying a motor trip of several weeks. In Portland and Condon, Oregon they will visit with Mrs. Evans' relatives.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—Honors were awarded local Camp Fire Girls on nature study at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Marie Hare. The girls have been studying birds, trees, grass and seashells and each of the group passed the necessary test to win the honors. The members present were Mary Lou Hare, Annabelle Day, Hattie Annis Edward, Ilamae Hensley, Virginia Ferguson, Rose Basse, Vallery Snow.

R. O. Prichard is on vacation and he and his family are spending it on various trips. One day they motored to Tia Juana, spending the day in company with friends from Long Beach, who joined them on the trip, and Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Prichard and family left for Ventura where they are spending several days with former Oklahoma friends.

Miss Fay McCall, who has been spending a vacation at Burbank where she was entertained by relatives, has returned home.

MIDWAY CITY

MIDWAY CITY, July 25.—There are two new families residing in Midway City. L. B. Johnson and bride, who came here from Huntington Beach are occupying a house on Jackson street, and Mr. and Mrs. Sage have rented a house on North Jackson street and have moved here. Sage is an employee of an oil concern.

Rolland Hazard who is convalescing from a lingering siege of typhoid fever, was allowed to sit up for the first time Monday.

A party composed of Miss Helen Shirey of Midway City, Harry Stephenson of Huntington Beach, Miss Ethel Osbourn of Sunset Beach and Bill Adair of San Diego, motored to Irvine park Tuesday evening, where they enjoyed a steak bake and spent the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall were afternoon guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Whittet of Roosevelt street, Monday afternoon and were entertained at dinner that evening.

Miss Helen Shirey was of a group of five young women who were entertained as overnight guests at a houseparty given by Miss Mirna Richie at her Long Beach home. The evening was spent attending a dance at Balboa and the following day on the "pike" at Long Beach.

Monday evening Mrs. W. D. Shirey and daughter attended a golden wedding anniversary reception in Huntington Beach in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Markers.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—Mrs. Blanche Platt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murdy, who is ill at her home in Safford, Ariz., was reported as in a most serious condition in the last word received by her relatives. Mrs. Murdy returned from Safford but a week ago.

Mrs. Harry Penhall and Mrs. Clyde Day visited at the Orange County hospital where Mrs. Penhall's young niece, Audrene Worthy of Covina, is a patient with infantile paralysis. This little girl's left leg is affected by the disease which she contracted while the family were at their summer cottage at Laguna Beach. She is improving most satisfactorily and no permanent effects of the disease is expected to be left, according to the attending physician.

Mrs. John M. Angell is regretting the disappearance of the family pet, a small cream colored spitz Eskimo dog which was highly prized. The dog, which had never been known to leave the place, was last seen the evening of July 4, when the family went next door to their son's to enjoy the fireworks display and returning home the dog was found missing.

Miss Fay McCall has returned from Burbank where she spent a vacation with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grandy motored to Pasadena Thursday, where they went to see a cousin of Mr. Grandy's who is a patient at a Pasadena hospital where he was operated upon this week following a six months' illness.

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, July 25.—The strength in corn and teh active demand for winter futures at the seaboard gave wheat a strong rally from the inside figures in the latter part of the session on the Board of Trade today and at the close prices had recovered to stand unevenly higher.

Little attention was paid to the reports of Russian export sales. Corn met severe profit taking and some selling on the forecast for unsettled weather, which caused prices to ease slightly but rallied late to again show a strong gain. Oats followed corn and was firm.

At the close wheat was ¼c lower to ⅝c higher, corn was ⅞c to 1⅜c higher nad oats were ⅜c to ½c higher. Provisions were weak.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 25.—(UP)—Trading on the stock exchange came to a standstill today as activity dwindled to around the lowest levels seen since the culmination of the bull movement last fall.

Most of the leaders showed a sagging tendency but a closing rally lifted the market to its previous closing level.

NEW YORK CURB

NEW YORK, July 25.—(UP)—Strong support in individual issues buoyed up the list on the curb market today and early offerings dried up as prices climbed from the lows reached on selling in the initial dealings.

Specialties were marked for extra attention, with Driver Harris an outstanding feature, spurting almost six points. Tampa Electric was bid up more than two points, while gains of more than a point each were scored by Columbia Pictures and Chemical National Associates, which responded to renewed buying.

Leaders in the public utility division encountered support on an early dip ad net advances ranging from fractions to more than a point took place in Electric Bond & Share, American Gas, United Light A and American superpower. Northern States Power was a feature of the high priced issues with this market gaining three points.

A better tone developed in the oils as a result of covering and a little buying attracted by the declines of the last few sesions. Humble and Ohio new advanced fractionally. Investment trusts were lethargic and backed and filled in a narrow range, with Goldman Sachs in supply at a fractional concessions.

Weakness in American Fork & Hoe was a feature of the industrial section. This issue attracted considerable realizing after its recent upturn. Deere & Company and Ford, Ltd., were freely offered and declined fractionally.

NEW YORK BONDS

Seaboard All Florida 6s were in demand around noon and this issue firmed up 1¼ points. Gains ranging from ½ to more tha a point were registered in such issues as Missouri Pacific 4s, Seaboard 6s, New York Central 5½s and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific 4½s. Atchison 4½s rallied from a recent depression and firmed up more than a point.

After a firm opening, foreign obligations developed irregular tendencies and this list presented a ragged appearance, as leading European issues suffered fractional losses. United States loans were quiet and steady.

The lethargic condition which has typified the industrial list for the past several days continued in today's session and trading was confined to a handful of standard issues, which held firm, oils and amusements wavering irregularly, but few securities moved out of a narrow price range. Utilities appeared slightly firmer as leading bonds of this class made advances under leadership of American Telephone & Telegraph 4½s, up more than a point.

L. A. STOCKS

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—An exceptionally dull market with prices fractionally off on what few sales were made, was experienced on the Los Angeles stock and curb exchanges today.

Transamerica, with little buying interest going its way, dropped off to 24¼ after having opened at 25⅜. Standard was off one half to 62 on a few small block shares.

Globe Milling dropped 1 point to 21 with 300 shares going at the last quoted figure. Banks and industrials were inactive, receiving only occasional bids but being held for higher.

New York money was at 2 percent.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION
No. 2218

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SANTA ANA, DECLARING THEIR INTENTION TO ORDER THE PAVING AND OTHERWISE IMPROVING OF PORTIONS OF PARTON STREET, ST. ANDREW'S PLACE, BROADWAY, SYCAMORE STREET, BIRCH STREET AND ROSS STREET, DECLARING THE SAID WORK AND IMPROVEMENT TO BE OF MORE THAN LOCAL OR ORDINARY PUBLIC BENEFIT; DECLARING THE DISTRICT TO BE BENEFITED THEREBY AND TO BE ASSESSED TO PAY THE COSTS AND EXPENSES THEREOF; DETERMINING THAT BONDS SHALL BE ISSUED TO REPRESENT SAID COSTS AND EXPENSES, AND FIXING THE TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OBJECTIONS TO SAID WORK OR IMPROVEMENT, OR TO THE EXTENT OF THE DISTRICT TO BE ASSESSED, OR BOTH.

The City Council of the City of Santa Ana pursuant to the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911, and the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, and amendments to said acts, do resolve as follows:

Section 1. That the public interest and convenience requires and it is the intention of the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, California, to order the construction of the following work and improvements in said City, to-wit:

That the portions of streets in the City of Santa Ana upon which work shall be done and improvements made as hereinafter set forth are upon and along those open public streets commonly known as and called Parton Street between the center line of Edinger Street and the Southerly line of Tract No. 289 as recorded in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 14, Page 8, Records of Orange County, California; St. Andrew's Place between the center line of Main Street and the Easterly line of Parton Street; Sycamore Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289; Broadway between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289; Birch Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289 and Ross Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289, excepting however from all of the above described streets any portions thereof which are already improved to the official grade as shown on the plans.

That the work to be done and improvements to be made upon and along the hereinbefore described portions of streets in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor as hereinafter mentioned shall be as follows:

Parton Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Parton Street, together with street intersections within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersections around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

St. Andrew's Place

That the hereinbefore described portion of St. Andrew's Place, together with all street intersections within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersections around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Sycamore Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Sycamore Street, together with street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Broadway

That the hereinbefore described portion of Broadway together with the street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street, and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Birch Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Birch Street, together with street intersection within above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersections around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Ross Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Ross Street, together with street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersection street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Change of Grade

Section 3. That the grade to which the work shall be done and improvement made which is provided for in this Resolution is shown on the profiles therefor on file in the Office of the City Engineer, to which said profiles reference is hereby made for the description of such grade, and it is hereby resolved by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana that the grade shown on the plans and profiles is the official grade to which the work herein ordered shall be done.

Description of Bonds

Section 4. The said City Council does hereby declare and determine and notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum will be issued hereunder in the manner provided in the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915," the last installment of which bonds shall mature nine (9) years from the 2nd day of July next succeeding ten (10) months from their date.

Description of Assessment District

Section 5. That the contemplated work and improvement hereinbefore mentioned is in the opinion of the City Council of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the expense of said work and improvement is made chargeable upon the district hereinafter described, and said City Council does hereby declare said district to be the district benefited by said work and improvement and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, which district is bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Located in the City of Santa Ana, County of Orange, State of California, and described as follows:

Time and Place of Hearing

Section 6. Notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of August, 1930, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. in the Council Chamber of the City Hall of said City of Santa Ana any and all persons having any objections to the proposed work or improvement may appear before the said City Council and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this Resolution.

That all persons desiring to so appear should file with the City Clerk of the City of Santa Ana before the hour herein set a written protest against the said work or the assessment district proposed to be assessed, or both.

Publication of Resolution of Intention

Section 7. The Santa Ana Daily Evening Register, a daily newspaper published and circulated and of general circulation in the City of Santa Ana is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published and the City Clerk of said City is hereby directed to cause this Resolution of Intention to be published by two insertions in said newspaper, in the manner and form required by law. The City Council does not deem it advisable that the Clerk mail copies of the notice of improvement to owners or reputed owners, and he is not required to mail the same.

Posting of Notices of Improvement

Section 8. The Street Superintendent of said City shall, after the adoption of this Resolution of Intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along the lines of said contemplated work or improvement and along all the open streets and alleys within the hereinbefore described assessment district, notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention, in the manner and form required by law.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution of Intention was duly and regularly introduced and passed by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, at a regular meeting thereof held on the 21st day of July, 1930, by the following vote, to-wit:

THE HARBOR PROPOSITION

It is interesting to watch developments on the proposed vote for bonds of a million and a half dollars for Newport Harbor. Newport Beach and Costa Mesa rolled up a big vote against the proposed dam in Santa Ana canyon, and since that time suggestions and plans have been rife for deals to induce this group to be favorable to the bonds the next time they are presented.

Rumor is quite strong that the powers which "are," are fully determined to try to put the same proposition to a vote over again, and they are confident that they cannot do it unlesss the vote at Newport and Costa Mesa shall have changed its mind. How to get it to change its mind has been the problem.

Finally out of it has come the suggestion that the Board of Supervisors call an election for $1,500,000 bonds for the harbor, and that the resolution be passed through the Associated Chambers of Commerce so as to give the proper background for the Board of Supervisors to take the legal action.

It is so perfectly patent and obvious that in a vote at this time there would not even be a start toward a respectable showing unless something else were tacked to it, and so it is proposed that the bonds shall not be voted or the money made available until the United States government has agreed to match this money. With this condition, it is suggested that they might get some votes in the northern section of the county, even in places where heretofore there has been an antagonistic vote to bonds.

But here a rather interesting situation develops. Those who are thoroughly conversant with the situation and know the inside facts concerning the harbor possibilities know that the Federal government will not put money into any harbor or proposed harbor until there is a demand for it by commercial interests that need it. They also know that there is no such demand and that no such demand can be created until Newport harbor has become a harbor of some commercial importance by its own activities or the activity of the county. This would mean that whatever money was available from the county would be held up indeterminately, maybe for 20 years, maybe for 50 and maybe for 100 years.

Some have even gone to the extent of actually suggesting that the government will aid this, when they know that there is not the remotest possibility of its being done.

Some months ago Major W. H. Lanagan, United States District Engineer at Los Angeles spoke to quite a group in Newport Beach after having made a survey of the harbor. He complimented Newport Beach on its enterprise, but very frankly told them that they could expect nothing from the government until there was a demand from those who desired such facilities, which now San Pedro was taking care of on the one side of them and San Diego on the other. He urged them to develop their harbor as a pleasure and yachting harbor. It was felt by those who listened to him that he was rather brutally frank, and particularly when he stated that there was no policy in effect in the government by which they would pay dollar for dollar for harbor development.

We ourselves had been favoring such a project because we had been informed that there was such a possibility, but on investigation we found that the only manner in which the Newport harbor can reach a point where government aid can be secured is for it to be developed to receive shipping, which in turn might demand aid from the government but that condition is preliminary to activity by the government, for the government will use its money for rivers and harbors at those points where already there is a demand. Hence to attach this condition to a vote would be simply to "horn-swoggle" Newport Beach and tie up any possibilities of our getting county aid forever. We doubt if Newport Beach herself will accept as a friendly gesture a bond issue coupled with this restriction.

To put this condition on the bonds is to put a joker in it at this time, and as a matter of fact, undoubtedly the leaders know this. Newport Beach leaders are rather shrewd and we have serious doubts whether they will accept such a proposition from either the Associated Chambers of Commerce or the Board of Supervisors in any belief that they are in earnest about furnishing money from the county for Newport harbor.

Many of the ones who favor the proposition of the bond election for Newport harbor, in the interest of getting their vote for a dam in the lower Santa Ana feel that if such a bond issue did pass, to take $1,500,000 just at this time out of the pockets of the taxpayers, would militate against any larger bond vote to follow.

The only way they can win in their proposed plan is to have the bonds defeated and yet make Newport Beach believe that the whole business was in good faith. We believe that some day it may be possible to vote sufficient money for the development of Newport harbor to complete the job thoroughly. We are confident that a million and a half dollars will not do it. We are among those who believe that eventually an amount necessary could be voted from the county itself. We would like to see an arrangement made whereby the Federal government would take the direction of its development and expenditure, but unfortunately Washington is not as interested as we are in the development of Newport harbor.

If, as it seems to be, it is impossible to get the aid from Washington, we want to say that we are frankly for the Newport harbor bonds in the county for a sufficient amount to really put the enterprise over.

We do not believe that the time is now. We believe it would cost nearer three million dollars than $1,500,000. If, however, those in authority submit the matter to a vote and hence say that now is the right time to put over a bond issue for Newport harbor in good faith, cutting out the meaningless restrictions in the light of the facts, and putting up an amount that will guarantee that the job will be done, and a further guarantee that the money will be expended under the direction of a business-like, non-political group of harbor commissioners, we would support a project, in spite of the fact that our own judgment would be that the chances are so remote that the expenses of an election would appear to be folly.

In the meantime while some are spending their time in discussion and using the whole matter as political football, Newport Beach itself is proceding to develop its harbor for yachting purposes to such an extent that it is attracting yachtsmen from the whole Pacific Coast, and the largest regatta ever conducted at Newport Beach will be held there the forepart of this coming month.

We believe in the meantime that all enterprises demanding bonds should be considered strictly on their merits. We do not believe in buying votes of cities or groups through a proposition to them of aid in return for votes for some other enterprise.

RADIO PROPAGANDA

Germany complains of Russian propaganda over the radio, and respectfully asks the Soviet government to stop it. Fortunately, we are not near enough to be troubled by radio propaganda from the Soviet government. Just how we could stop it, were it possible, would be quite another question. We recall that after the French revolution got started, the leaders of that movement announced to the world that the soldiers of France were at the service of any people who wished to overthrow their tyrant rulers. In the early history of our own country, when democracy was still in the experimental stage, and was feared by kings and nobles in Europe much as the Soviet ideals are feared today, our national leaders announced to the world that freedom of asylum was to be had in this country for all revolutionists who were exiled for their political opinions. It was in answer to that announcement that Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian revolutionist, received such a cordial welcome in this country, and was actually welcomed by the President of the United States in person.

There is a wholesale principle which has been advanced to the effect that truth must have an open market, and that in the open market it will always win its way. If democracy is the best form of government, and we believe it is, we do not look for its overthrow by any system that the mind of man may devise. The danger is that democracy may be overthrown from within. There are those in our midst, men who hold high position in the councils of the nation, who assert that democracy is in danger from an invisible government which is more powerful than the chosen representatives of the people.

We are not yet ready to concede that proposition; but as a possibility we would do well to guard against it. People are not at all inclined to revolt against what is for their good, and it is because we believe that on the whole this government is still a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, that we are not disturbed by any propaganda let loose upon us. But we should not forget the old maxim, that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

France and Italy Take a Holiday

Christian Science Monitor

Rarely has an international arrangement of such potential import been concluded with the modesty and discretion which has characterized the declaration of a naval holiday by France and Italy. It would seem that the authorities were chiefly concerned to minimize its significance. The press on both sides of the Alps was disposed to treat cessation competitive ship-building as a trivial incident or mere gesture. But it is apparent that the first steps have been taken toward a rapprochment of the two countries—a consummation greatly desired, not only by men of good will in Europe but in the whole world, for the whole world is deeply affected by the danger of naval rivalry in the Mediterranean.

Incidentally, the last doubt as to ratification of the three-power pact of London should vanish for the safeguarding or "escape" reservation now becomes for the time being a mere formality.

Negotiations between France and Italy will doubtless be difficult, and it would be well not to begin to count chickens before they are hatched. But the significance of this truce, accepted with sincerity by both sides, is that negotiations can now be pursued in a greatly improved atmosphere. Hitherto all effort to adjust the French and Italian viewpoints have proved fruitless. Now they have suddenly culminated in an agreement that makes possible further substantial agreements. The indispensable preliminary to accord is assured, and there is no reason why the new manifestation of desire for peace shoud not result in a solid pact of friendship which will be hailed with joy.

Italy suggested a twelve months' naval vacation. France felt that circumstances were unpropitious and suspected maneuver. The demand for naval parity and the denial of naval parity dominated respective policies. But at last, very quietly, Aristide Briand announced a six months' holiday without attaching conditions, and when this announcement was put in official form to Italy that country in its turn announced that it would imitate France. What better promise for dissipation of the cloud that has brooded darkly over the Alps could there be? The outlook changes overnight in consequence of this mutual consent to abandon rivalry for half a year, in which no pains will be spared to settle outstanding problems. Indeed, the trouble between France and Italy has not been so much specific problems as opposing sentiments, and now that better sentiments prevail the prospect brightens.

This happy beginning is due in a certain measure to British good offices. No country can afford to look on unmoved and immobile at the misunderstandings of others. There is an unquestionable solidarity of interests that demands tactful and friendly intervention. There cannot be private disputes between two nations. Thus thought the British Government, and it has worked unremittingly to bring about a suitable compromise. To give credit to Great Britain is in no wise to detract from that due both France and Italy for setting aside a largely imaginary quarrel in order to apply themselves to the settlement of tangible differences.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE SAME OLD BREED

I met a man the other day
Who mourned the good old times,
When daring bandits got away
With bold and clever crimes.
"The crooks that we have now," he said
"Are of a craven breed,
They just blow off a person's head
And take the cash they need.
But history will leave them out;
When all is said and done,
There's nothing picturesque about
A gangster with a gun."

But maybe when young Jesse James
Played wild romantic pranks
Like looting western gambling games
And robbing country banks,
The folks he blackjacked, robbed or shot
To gratify some whim,
Or personal dislike could not
See any charm in him.
For in the west, as in the slums,
When crooks run far and free
You'll find the picturesque becomes
Exteremely hard to see.

And if the James boys lived today
And plied their deadly trade,
Along the Kaw, or on Broadway
Their fame would swiftly fade,
And everybody would declare
That they were human dregs
And swiftly ought to get the chair
As low-browed murdering yeggs.
Though history, beyond a doubt
Is filled with false report,
There's nothing picturesque about
A crook of any sort.

Quantity Production of Quality

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

"What would happen to America," asks a critic of mass production, "if quality instead of quantity became the style?"

Did the household slave who once toiled all day over one copper kettle turn out a better product that the mechanical slave which now presides over a hundred vats of Ivory soap?

Did Abe Lincoln make better fences with his split rails than we make by machinery today? Or did the rails merely represent more hard labor?

Mass production in America has all but banished the idea that nothing can be well done unless it is laboriously done. Machines not only make more goods than we can make by hand; as a rule, machines make better goods.

Utility must be served. To the extent that machines meet the requirements of utility, men are released to consider the claims of beauty. But do they?

The New England Council is holding a series of "Art in Industry" conferences. Color and style, we are told, are revolutionizing merchandising methods. Industry, which used to have millions for utility, but not one cent for tribute to beauty, is getting line-and-color-conscious. Manufacturers know that beautiful advertisements pay. Why, they ask, shouldn't beautiful products pay?

Once American Industry becomes convinced that beauty pays, it will produce beauty. Our European critics will be the first to admit that.

But Industry will not forsake mass production. It will produce quality goods in quantity.

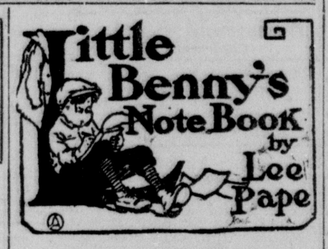
Little Benny's Note Book by Lee Pape



This afternoon I saw a dime laying in the street neer the cerb, and just when I was going to pick it up all excited a horse that was standing there put one foot on it and kepp it there.

Proberly being a good thing for men my hand wasent there at the same time, and I thawt, O well, Ill just wait till he takes it off again.

Wich he kepp on not doing. Being a brown horse attached to a white laundry wagon, and just then who came up but Lucky Leroy Shooster. Being the luckiest guy around, and I thawt, Heck, if he's here when the horse takes his foot off he'll be just lucky enough to grab before I do and get it.

And I sed, Are you going somewheres, Lucky?

Meening not to stop on my account, and he sed, Not specially, whats you standing here for?

O, I just thawt Id stand here a while, I sed. Its not such a comfortable place but Im here now. Im libel to stand here for a hour yet, I sed.

O well, Ill stand here a while, theres no place elts I wunt to be so I mite as well, Lucky said.

Wich just then the horse took his foot up and put it down another place, and here what was the dime was but only a little round bunk of tin the same size, me saying, Aw, gosh shang the luck.

Whats a matter? Leroy Shooster sed, and I sed, I thawt I saw something but I dident.

Wich just then the laundry man jumped in his wagon saying, Heres a tennis ball for one of you kids, it must of bounced in my waggon somehow.

And he quick threw it and Lucky cawt it while I was still getting my breth.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

MATTER-OF-FACT MIRACLES

Every day I grow less interested in arguments about the possibility or impossibility of the miracles accredited to the saints and seers of antiquity.

I have had my hour of sophomoric skepticism when I laughed at the ludicrous credulity of the village elder who took the folklore of far-off days seriously.

Today I pick up my morning paper and find a former Federal Radio Commissioner, O. H. Caldwell, casually listing the following achievements of contemporary scientists:

"In Pittsburg, a public school has its lights automatically switched on, when dusk or a passing storm makes it dark inside.

"In Boston, a hotel waiter carrying a loaded tray, approaches a service door, and it magically swings open in front of him.

"In Washington, experimenters use airplanes literally as the eyes of the army, so that headquarters back of the lines may 'see for itself' the situation in the enemy's camps.

"In New York, a concert of new electrical musical instruments produces tones and harmonies of a timbre and sweetness never heard before by human ear.

"In Chicago, crime is combated by instruments which detect whether a suspect is telling the truth, by revealing the microscopic sweat in the palms of the suspect's hands, if he attempts to dissemble."

And a dozen other things more amazing!

I cannot worry about ancient miracles until I have come to understand the modern ones.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

MAKING YOUNGSTERS OBEY

Tommie is four and a half and sturdy for his years. He plays hard and even a full day in the open leaves him with surplus energy to spend. He decided to use some of it in kicking his grandmother's shins.

"Tommie, Tommie, what are you doing? Why, you will hurt your granny."

"I didn't hurt her. Did I, granny?"

"Yes, you did. It hurts to be kicked like that. Little boys never kick anybody, especially grandmothers. You must never do that again."

That was all for that time but the next time came very closely upon the heels of the first. Grandmother lifted him to her lap and explained very carefully about kicking people, or animals, or anything whatever. "Little boys keep their feet on the ground. Never, never kick anybody or anything. Nice people never do so."

But the very next time that Tommie felt the urge to kick he kicked. Mother signalled to grandmother with her eyes and grandmother signalled back. She would try once more. "Tommie, you must not kick grandmother. I have told you that several times. It is very, very naughty. It is bad. The boys on the street won't speak to you if you do that."

"Yes they will too," said Tommie, scrambling back to the floor in angry protest. "They like me and they will to speak to me," and again he kicked at his grandmother. This time he missed his mark. It wasn't there. Grandmother had moved just an instant before and Tommie found himself lifted high, laid over grandmother's knee and smartly spanked. It hurt. Tommie cried loudly and ran to his mother for comfort. "Mean granny. She spanked me hard."

"And served you right. She is going to spank you good every time you lift your foot to her. Remember that. If she needs any help I'll be on hand to help her. The idea of a boy kicking his grandmother makes me sick. We tried to tell you how shameful it was for a boy to kick his grandmother but you were so stupid that we couldn't teach you. So we spanked you. If you had been an intelligent child you would have avoided the spanking. Only stupid children have to be spanked. Served you right."

This long speech was not made all at once. It was made while mother ran her small son to the bathroom, turned on the cold water, soaped the washrag, and rubbed and rubbed and rinsed with cold water the hands and face of the discomfited warrior.

Far be it from me to dispute grandmother's method. I agree that when a child insists that he is within his rights when he kicks his grandmother, or his mother, he needs to know how it feels to be hurt. Experience of pain may help him to understand that he inflicts it. We cannot hope to have him understand the higher reasons involved in the treatment of his mother and grandmother. They will come later if he is trained to the knowledge of the fundamental one. No gentleman, no lady, ever kicks anybody, or any living thing.

LEWIS AND CLARK

On July 25, 1805, the Lewis and Clark expedition discovered the three forks of the Missouri river and named them the Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin.

The party, consisting of Meriwether Lewis, William Clark and 27 other men, had started from the vicinity of St. Louis in May of that year.

After reaching the three forks, the explorers proceeded up the Jefferson, crossed the Rocky Mountains in September, then went down the Columbia river and, on Nov. 7, came in sight of the Pacific ocean.

They spent the winter on the coast and started the return journey on March 23, 1806, and arrived in St. Louis in September of that year, having traveled a distance of nearly 8500 miles.

For more than a year the explorers had been out off from all communication with the outside world and suffered terrible hardships. However, they collected a mass of valuable information about the physical characteristics of the country, its climate and the Indian tribes.

The expedition was commemorated in 1905 by the Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Ore.

DEATH TOLL IN ITALY STILL 3700

SYSTEM IS INCREASED

Another Highway Through Brea Canyon to Pomona Also Is Recommended

B. B. MEEK, state director of public works, revealed today in Los Angeles that the highway from Newport Beach to San Bernardino, through Santa Ana canyon, and the road through Brea canyon from Pomona to Fullerton are included in recommendations by the state highway commission for acceptance by the state into the secondary highway system in the southland.

Meek made the disclosure in an address at noon at a meeting of the southern council of the state chamber of commerce at the Alexandria hotel. In his address he outlined all the road projects in the state recommended by the highway commission, based on results of investigation authorized by the state legislature, and in accordance with promises made by Gov. C. C. Young.

The official recommendation concerning the Newport Beach-San Bernardino road is that it shall extend from Waterman canyon to San Bernardino and San Bernardino to Newport Beach, a distance of 63 miles. The Pomona to Fullerton highway is listed as 15.5 miles in distance.

Increases System

The total recommended additions increase the system in the north by 188 miles and in the south by 670 miles, or a ratio of one mile in the north to 3.56 miles in the south.

Additions for the southland are as follows:

Cambria to San Luis Obispo, 36 miles; Bishop to Nevada state line (Montgomery pass), 38; Bakersfield to Mojave, 60; Red box divide to Pine flats, 37; state highway route 26, near Colton via Pomona to Los Angeles, 42.5; Beaumont to Riverside (Jackrabbit trail), 19.5; Riverside to San Diego, inland route, 95; Pomona to Temecula, 56; Blythe to Colorado river and state highway route 64 to state hgihway route 26, near Indio, 23.5; National City to Tia Juana, 10; El Centro to Calexico, 8.5; Oasis to Nevada state line, 2; state highway route 2, Ventura to state highway route 4 at Castaic junction; from state highway route 31 near Cajon Pass to state highway route 23 near Lancaster.

Alturas to Oregon state line near New Pine creek, 34 miles; Burney to Burney Falls, 7; Marshall monument to Mother Lode highway, 1; Walnut creek to Oakland, 10; Quincy to state highway route 29, near Chat, 58; American canyon, 14.

Huge Expenditure

Basing estimates on possible requirement for a 10 year period from July 1, 1931, to July 1, 1941, to render the state system satisfactory in location, type, width and character for the probable

Tree Sitters In Santa Ana Thwarted

For at least four hours yesterday evening Santa Ana had representative tree sitting contestants when Bruce Harnois, 15, and a companion stationed themselves in a tree in the rear of the Harnois home, 414 East Walnut street and prepared themselves for a long siege.

Their hopes were thwarted however, when Mrs. Harnois arrived home about 10 o'clock and discovered the boys perched in the tree. Her objections resulted in the two would-be endurance contestants clambering down to seek their more comfortable if not so romantic beds, vowing to set tree sitting records at some future date.

JACOB BERMAN FOUND GUILTY ON 3 COUNTS

Judge Schauer, However, Acquits Him on Charges of Embezzlement

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—Jacob Berman, former Julian Petroleum corporation offical, today was found guilty of three counts of forgery but was acquitted of one count of embezzlement.

Judge B. Rey Schauer, who heard the case without a jury, announced the verdict shortly before noon and a few minutes after final arguments were closed.

The jurist first read his decision on the embezzlement charge, holding that Berman had not intended to defraud Daniel Barnes of $10,000 Barnes gave him to buy stock.

Judge Schauer then ruled there was sufficient evidence to prove that Berman was guilty on the counts of forgery and that he undoubtedly signed fictitious names to over-issued Julian stock certificates a short time before the Julian company collapsed in 1927.

The court set July 30 as the date for sentence. The three forgery counts carry a possible penalty of from three to 42 years in the penitentiary.

MURDERER DOOMED TO PRISON NOOSE

OAKLAND, Calif., July 25.—(UP)—Ed La Verne today faced the noose, convicted yesterday of killing Marcello Lagoria in the shortest murder trial in the history of Alameda county.

The verdict was brought in after a five minute deliberation by the jury which declined to recommend leniency.

Judge Fred V. Wood read the indictment to the jury at the start of the morning session and gave final instructions to that group 10 minutes after the final arguments were completed in the afternoon.

Le Verne will be sentenced next Monday, exactly two months after the crime was committed during a grocery store hold up.

The murderer claimed that the gun he was using in the robbery accidentally went off, killing Lagoria.

ACTRESS LOSES CAR FOR MOTORING NUDE

The 21 year old Hollywood casting director will continue motorless for a year if the court's recommendations are adopted by state authorities and Miss Egan's driving license is suspended for that period.

Miss Egan, appearing on a charge of driving while intoxicated, told the judge she was "very sorry" about the incident and her attorneys promised it would never happen again.

BILLINGS AND MOONEY TO GO BEFORE COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP)—Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, convicted of complicity in the San Francisco preparedness day parade bombing, July 22, 1916, may emerge from their prison cells and testify in person at the pardon application hearing to be held for Billings next Tuesday.

Personal appearance of the two prisoners would mean a faithful reproduction of the dramatic trials of 1916 and 1917 which resulted in conviction of the pair on charges of having murdered the 10 persons killed when a blast of dynamite disrupted the parade.

The possibility is strong, the United Press was informed by a reliable source, that the defense in the pardon hearing will request the supreme court to permit the appearance of the two men.

Refuses to Talk

Edwin V. McKenzie, attorney for Billings, refused to say anything when questioned but the fact that he conferred with Chief Justice William H. Waste was significant.

Should Mooney and Billings appear in court, the pardon hearing undoubtedly will be a "re-trial" of the entire bombing cases.

John MacDonald, star witness against Billings and Mooney, will be in a reversed role, however. This time he will seek to prove that he lied in identifying Billings and Mooney as the men who planted a suitcase containing dynamite at the scene of the explosion.

Charles M. (Thunderbolt) Fickert, the prosecuting attorney, whose throaty roar echoed through the court room when Billings and Mooney were tried for murder, may be on the scene but this time his efforts will be directed toward shattering MacDonald's story, rather than in strengthening it, as was the case at the original trials.

To Call Pair

The United Press informant said friends of Mooney and Billings desire that the pair be called from their prison cells as an offsetting factor to evidence the supreme court intends to hear apart from the MacDonald repudiation story.

One of the new developments which caused the defense to desire a personal appearance of their clients is the selection of Fred L. Berry, former assistant prosecuting attorney who aided in convicting Mooney and Billings, as a "representative of the people."

Thus the hearing on Billings pardon application may cover a much wider scope than originally planned. When MacDonald returned to California from Baltimore to tell the supreme court his repudiation story, it was thought that his claim of perjury in the trials would be the only feature of the hearing but now there is the possibility that every phase of the original trials will be reenacted, including the personal appearance of prosecutors, star witnesses and the defendants.

Convicted Killer Petitions Young

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—(UP)—George Riley, 21, alias "Kid" Riley, convicted in Oakland on killing George Jones in a holdup at Livermore last May, had a petition for executive clemency on file in Governor Young's office today.

Riley was convicted with Jack Gomez. Both were sentenced to be hanged August 15 at San Quentin. Riley's petition was submitted by his brother, Ralph, and will be forwarded to the governor at Los Angeles.

Former President of the United States

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 25.—Investigation of the Amtorg, which is a Russian trading company, may raise some important questions. Our government has no diplomatic relations with Russia. But it is perfectly lawful for our nationals, at their own risk, to trade with Russia, or for her nationals to trade here.

Our law excludes from this country persons of certain beliefs and practices which we think are inimical to our government and institutions. But it is not the practice to inquire very minutely into the beliefs of foreigners coming here temporarily for genuine mercantile purposes. Besides, we have held the opinion that trade and time would be the means of restoring Russia. It had been supposed that the agents of the Amtorg were not engaged in anything but trade. If any investigation shows that they are taking advantage of the hospitality we have granted them as merchants to participate in activities against our peace and order, our government will take proper notice of that fact. Meantime it is proper to await proof before reaching final judgment. Our people are so thoroughly attached to their own system of self government that we need not feel it is in imminent danger.

PRESBYTERIANS OPEN MEET IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—The tri-synod conclave of more than 1000 Presbyterians from California, Arizona and Nevada began second day sessions today with election of a third moderator and a number of lay conferences on the program.

The Rev. Clarence A. Spaulding, Santa Barbara, was elected moderator of the California Presbyterian synod, which includes Nevada, and the Rev. B. Wrenn Webb, Tucson, moderator for Arizona at the first business meeting last night. The United Presbyterians of California, holding a joint conference, will elect the third moderator late this afternoon. The Rev. L. M. Miller, Oakland, and the Rev. A. W. Webster, Salinas, were candidates for the office.

The Rev. Mr. Spaulding, the new California moderator, is a former Rhodes scholar and now has charge of selecting scholars in Southern California. He also is vice chairman of the national Presbyterian committee on marriage, remarriage and divorce, and

Calls Meeting of Executive Committee of G. O. P. For That Date

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(UP)—Claudius H. Huston, of Tennessee, has announced his intention to resign on August 7 as chairman of the Republican national committee, and has called for that date a meeting of the party's executive committee to name his successor.

Who the successor will be has not been determined definitely although there are strong indications Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio may be chosen to serve, at least temporarily in spite of some opposition. President Hoover is understood to be disinclined to make a personal choice.

Huston's announcement of his intion to retire was made with the same unruffled dignity he has maintained ever since the senate lobby committee's disclosures concerning him brought a concerted demand for his resignation.

Behind his announcement is a story unequalled for drama in modern Washington politics.

It dates back to last spring when Huston testified before the senate committee that he had used temporarily $36,100 of a Muscle Shoals lobbying fund entrusted to him by the Tennessee River Improvement association, to bolster his marginal stock market account.

During the frequent parleys over the situation the only important leader who has sided with Huston was Chairman Moses of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, who has objected to selection of Fess.

Others mentioned for the post are Ralph Williams of Oregon, vice chairman of the national committee, Republican Floor Leader Watson of the senate, his assistant, Senator McNary of Oregon, and Republican Floor Leader Tilson of the house.

Howard will attend the opening hearing of the Mooney-Billings appeal case in San Francisco next week.

Endurance Plane Flies Five Days

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—(UP)—Although a broken stabilizer caused brief anxiety yesterday, the endurance monoplane "Greater St. Louis" piloted by Forest O'Brine and Dale Jackson, swung into its fifth day aloft today.

The stabilizer, guiding equipment of the plane, quickly was repaired and no further trouble was expected from the quarter.

Flying high over Lambert Municipal flying field, O'Brine and Jackson passed their 101 hours in the air at 12:11 p. m. CST.

Machine Runs Off Road At Westminster

Driver Caught Under Thousands of Cans of Tuna As Fire Breaks Out

R. E. MOORE, 44, truck driver, of 4600 East Eighth street, Long Beach, burned to death at 3 o'clock this morning, when the big truck he was driving, loaded with thousands of cans of tuna, ran off the Santa Ana-Long Beach highway, three miles west of Westminster, and fell into a 10-foot ditch, catching fire.

His body was burned to a crisp and all of it has not and probably will not be recovered. At 9:20 a. m. today volunteers had dug out a small portion of the body, a shoulder joint. At noon, part of the torso had been recovered.

Santa Ana firemen with long poles and deputy sheriffs, under the supervision of F. W. Howard, chief criminal deputy sheriff, worked for seven hours, in an effort to locate the body under the wreckage and to remove it. They were handicapped by the burning truck and the explosion of hundreds of cans of salmon, which popped incessantly as the men dug with shovels under the wreckage.

First reports were to the effect that two men were buried under the truck, but with the finding of Moore's body, workers declared there was no other body under the ruins.

The body of the man was not identified until noon today and then only through his employer, E. B. McClure, of 4321 East Fourth street, Long Beach, manager of the Interstate Transportation company, to whom the truck belonged. The company is located at 901 Pico street, Long Beach.

It was impossible to identify the body, so completely had it been burned in the fire.

Workers declared that Moore never had a chance for his life. They found the cabin door on the big truck shut tight, and declared that Moore was pinned underneath the wreckage when the truck dived into the ditch. Hundreds of cans of fish, jarred loose by the impact, completely buried the front part of the truck and cabin. Then the fire started that completed the devastation.

The explosion of the cans of fish, which occurred almost every five seconds during the remainder of the night and this morning, threw fish meat over a wide area.

Moore was delivering the load of fish from San Diego to Long Beach at the time of the accident. How the truck and trailer happened to get beyond his control and plunge into the ditch, will probably remain a mystery. There were no eye witnesses, so far as is known. A number of motorists, attracted to the scene, threw dirt over the wreckage in an effort to stamp out the flames, but it was noon today before water was brought to the scene and the flames extinguished.

Several times during the early hours this morning when efforts were made to extricate the body, workers were forced to stop because of the heat, the odor of burning fish and the explosion of the cans.

The body was brought to the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors here, where Coroner Charles D. Brown said he would hold an inquest. Time for the inquest has not been determined.

Moore was married and is survived besides his widow, by two daughters, both of whom reside in Long Beach.

Gehlbach Leading Air Derby Entries

SAN ANGELO, Tex., July 25.—(UP)—Lee Gehlbach of Detroit, pace setter in the All-American air derby, led the field of 12 entries into San Angelo on the leg from Houston, at 11:16:35 a. m. today. His time from Houston was 2:15:35. He will receive a prize of $150 from the board of city developments here for being the first pilot to land at San Angelo airport.

Saturday Is Last Day To Register

Tomorrow is the last day in which to register for the primary election to be held on August 26.

County Clerk Joe Backs will keep his office open until 9 o'clock tomorrow night in order to register those who desire to exercise their right on the last day.

Registrations during the few days have been heavy according to Backs, but he says the number in Santa Ana is still below that of the last general election.

Be sure and register on Saturday.

GRAPE CONTROL ACREAGE STILL SHORT BY 5000

Necessary Acres Must Be Signed By Midnight or Plan Lost

Expectations for yesterday that the deficit would be lowered to 6500 acres by this morning were surpassed, with only 5000 acres remaining for this final day of the three-day time extension.

Wylie M. Giffen, campaign chairman, said today that it was no doubt possible that the federal farm board would allow the present 85 per cent signup to "get by."

"But the adoption of this attitude," he said, "is highly dangerous. To quit before our quota is reached would be fool-hardy.

"I want to urge the men in the field and the growers as well that we must make one last big effort for success."

The deficit at the time of the mass meeting Tuesday night stood at 10,000 acres. That figure has now been reduced to one-half, or approximately 1 per cent of the 85 per cent necessary before the federal plan can become operative.

Since the farm board requests that the computations be in terms of tonnage, and since the figures announced so far have been percentages of acres, it was believed among grapemen that perhaps the quota would be reached even though the campaign lacked several hundred acres.

This was because of the general belief that tonnage figures will run higher than acreage figures, on the assumption that the most heavily bearing crops already have been contracted.

$53,122 CONTRACT AWARDED BY BOARD

The board of education at a special meeting at noon today, awarded the general contract for Julia Lathrop junior high school to Wilson and Beaver, of this city and Anaheim.

The Hickman brothers firm, San Pedro, was given the contract for heating and plumbing. The contract for installation of wires and electrical fixtures has not been passed out, the board having taken this under consideration for a further period.

The bid of Wilson and Beaver was $53,122 and that of Hickman brothers was $3798.

Shipment Of Fruit Trees Described In Realty Board Talk

Successful transportation of citrus nursery stock to South America and all portions of the United States as well as to other foreign countries was related by Fred May, of the May-Ketscher nurseries here, in an address at noon today at the meeting of the Santa Ana Realty board.

The nurseryman said that of 11,000 sweet stock trees sent to Morocco, only 500 were found dead upon arrival at destination, while only 150 were found dead in a shipment of 8500 sour stock trees.

Those planted have thrived remarkably well, according to word received by May.

M. E. Geeting presided as program chairman.

SEARCH FOR BURIED DEAD CONTINUING

MILLION HOMELESS

Believed 2000 Are Dead in Province of Avellino Where Situation Worst

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
(Copyright 1930 by United Press)

BENEVENTO, Italy, July 25.—(UP)—Rapidly mobilized relief forces poured into Italy's earthquake stricken provinces today, to attack the critical problem of food, clothing and shelter for the survivors of Wednesday's disaster, and to continue the search for hundreds of victims still buried beneath the crumbled masonry of their homes.

The morale of the entire region, shattered by widespread death and appalling destruction, was further depressed by slight earth tremors which the peasants describe as "earthquake weather."

3700 Death Toll

The death toll, estimated by the United Press at approximately 3700, appeared unchanged today, although every report from outlying hamlets carried with it new discoveries of bodies within the ruins of houses and farm buildings.

Inspecting of the devastated towns of Lacedonai and Aquilonia disclosed an estimated death list of 300 and 400 respectively, with many hundred more seriously injured.

The condition of the houses still standing in Lacedonia and Aquilonia is so dangerous that the authorities today ordered complete evacuation of these localities by the survivors—a task made difficult by the unwillingness of the peasants to leave their life long homes, or to abandon their frenzied search for missing relatives.

Heavy Loss of Life

A semi-official estimate of authorities within the devastated provinces is that at least 2000 are dead in the province of Avellino, where the greatest force of the temblor was exerted. The province of Benevento also suffered heavily in loss of life, though probably to a lesser extent than Avellino. The lightest casualty list wil be found in the province of Naples.

Fear that the earth is "not completely settled," and that more severe shocks may be experienced, still grips the inhabitants.

TWO MURDERED IN DETROIT WARFARE

DETROIT, July 25.—(UP)—Two more murders, the latest early today, the other late yesterday, were added to the growing list of major crimes in Detroit today.

Jack Brown, 34, landscape painter, was shot to death this morning while seated in his automobile in front of a boarding house where he lived. He had been released yesterday from the Detroit house of correction, where he had served 60 days. He had been convicted of assault and battery on the complaint of Evelyn Littlefield.

Patrolmen caught Miss Littlefield who said she had lived with Brown six or seven months, fleeing from the scene.

They believed Brown was killed by a man who had been keeping company with the woman while Brown was in jail.

Four Hunters Test Ship In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, July 25.—(UP)—The four flying Hunter brothers took their record endurance plane City of Chicago out of its hangar today for a test flight which may be a preliminary to another long sky journey.

The Hunters, appearing here at a movie theater to tell of their 553-hour flight in Chicago, planned to attempt another flight if Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine pass their record in a flight over St. Louis. The latter two have been aloft more than four days.

In their test today, the refueling ship Big Ben will be used by the Hunters to establish a fuel connection with the City of Chicago.

traffic which will develop on each route, the commission finds that it will require $138,813,983 for the primary system in the north, and $85,084,409 in the south, or a total for the primary system of $223,898,392. Expenditures for the secondary system for the ten year period would be $72,652,824 in the north and $17,014,690 in the south, or a total of $89,667,514. The grand total is $313,565,906.

The ultimate cost to bring the added mileage to the secondary system to standard is estimated at $6,116,000 in the north and $59,165,605 in the south. Combining the two estimates for the ten year period makes a grand total of $357,134,016, divided $217,582,807 to the north and $139,551,209 to the south.

"The expenditures of the above sums will not complete the present state highway system or the additional roads presented," says C. H. Purcell, chief of the division of engineers of the highway commission, who compiled the report upon which Meek based his statements. "Completion of a highway system is a relative term. The estimate makes a conservative allowance for the growing traffic demands. It still leaves unimproved, except by minor improvements and maintenance, that would keep them in travelable condition, some portions of the minor highways, such as certain sections of some of the trans-Serra roads. Minor improvements only are included on those sections where large increase in travel seems remote and where a radical program of improvement is necessary, such as relocation in heavy country, which must first be justified by a traffic demonstration. The total estimates of cost presented should be qualified by the fact that future changes in conditions, which cannot be foreseen, may alter the probable construction program."

Heavy Revenue

Pointing to the estimated total of $357,134,616 for construction and reconstruction for the ten year period, the engineer estimates the probable revenue for the same period at $320,352,751.

Commenting on the roads added to the system, the engineer says, "These roads qualify for state inclusion either by reason of the large volume of state traffic that they are now carrying, or by reason of the relief they afford to heavy traffic upon present state highways, or as highways serving as important interstate links. The selection was made after an economic engineering and traffic study. The added mileage brings secondary to 1966 miles in the north and 1195 miles in the south.

"The analysis of facts brought out during this investigation brings assurance that with continuance of the present program of progressive development with revenues now authorized, the primary roads, by 1940, would be expected to have alignment, grade, width and surface equal to practical traffic demands. By then the primary system should reach, for the first time in its history, a status where current requirments will have been supplied, a point beyond which continued efforts might hope to anticipate highway needs. Until then the business of overcoming present deficiencies and meeting future demands on this important class of state highways should not be retarded by reapportionments which would lower revenues."

Court Notes

The inheritance tax appraisal report in connection with the estate of Elizabeth W. Innes, who died May 30, 1929, was filed yesterday afternoon with County Clerk J. M. Backs, showing a clear market value of $54,011.07 after deductions of $4655.59. The entire estate, according to the report, goes to Wells W. Innes, a son. The inheritance tax amounted to $810.44.

PRESBYTERIANS OPEN MEET IN LOS ANGELES

Action on proposed unification of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian denominations will be taken by the latter group at its business sessions. General assemblies of each church already have approved the plan.

The Rev. Frank Mitchell Silsley, retiring California moderator, led devotional services at the opening meeting last night. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, Washington, D. C., representing the general assembly, was the principal speaker at today's business session.

Gov. C. C. Young will address the synods tonight.

MOTORCYCLE HITS PARKED AUTOMOBILE

Police were today seeking the owner of a motorcycle which last night is alleged to have crashed into the parked car of E. H. Gardner, of 330 Halesworth avenue, and then to have darted off without stopping.

No one was hurt at the time. Gardner reported the accident to the police, at the same time turning over to them the number of the motorcycle.

PLAN BRIDGE OVER SAN FRANCISCO BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP) — The San Francisco bay bridge, for 50 years a project, neared reality today with the announcement by the Hoover-Young bay bridge commission that all sites but one had been rejected.

The one route remaining is from Rincon hill, San Francisco, to Goat Island to the Oakland shore via the Key route mole.

Two other sites which had survived preliminary consideration—Hunters Point to Alameda and Telegraph Hill to Goat Island to Oakland—were finally rejected yesterday: the Hunters Point site because it did not come within the commission's jurisdiction, and the northerly site because bedrock lay so deep along its route as to "make it impracticable from an engineering standpoint."

RAILROAD ABANDONS SPUR TRACK FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(UP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad suddenly abandoned today its fight to maintain a spur track on the property of the Sudden Lumber company at Vernon.

A suit brought by the lumber company seeking a permanent injunction against maintenance of the spur was dismissed today by Federal Judge Frank H. Norcross at the request of Phillip S. Erlich, attorney for the company. Erlich said that an agreement had been reached under which the railroad would abandon the spur and build on a new right-of-way near the disputed territory.

The suit started July 14, when, the lease expiring, the lumber company ordered the tracks torn up. The railroad sent a crew to put them down again.

WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

5000 PERSONS AT CONCERT IN PARK THURSDAY

BY RUTH ANDREWS

The customary summer throng of approximately 5000 enthusiastic music lovers again greeted the Santa Ana Municipal band in its weekly concert program, presented in Birch park last evening under the direction of D. C. Cianfoni. Musical selections chosen from the works of German composers were featured, as was also the appearance of the attractive women's chorus, the Treble Clef club, in an appealing song group.

Blankenburg's stirring march, "German Fidelity," was cleanly phrased, brass heavily shaded at its closing. Brilliant contrasts were effective in a forceful, warmly-applauded interpretation of Mendelssohn's well-known "Military Overture." Subdued woodwinds in the opening movement seemed especially typical of the peaceful type of harmonization characteristic of Mendelssohn. Vital contrast was emphasized in the overture's second movement, where booming bass in abrupt staccato effects was clearly defined above sustained animation of well-coordinated wind instruments.

The featured arrangement from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was accorded a satisfying, artistic interpretation, read by the director with a feeling for dramatic color, the shimmering, ever-changing harmonization so typical of Wagner invested with real significance. The latter part was especially vital in its dramatically sudden contrasts of shading and volume, well taken by the instrumentation.

Attractive in their pastel hued costumes, an ensemble from the popular chorus, the Treble Clef club, was much enjoyed in a pleasing song-group. Feminine voices blended sweetly in classic grace of Haydn's "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," reminiscent of bygone days. "The Dancers," a melodious sparkling lyric of Moszkowski, was equally appealing, the club being led by its director, Prof. Cianfoni, and accompanied by the band.

Harry Hanson, president and manager of the band, announced that next Thursday night the band would feature "French Night" with musical selections to be chosen from French composers, and Margherita Marsden, favorite local mezzo-soprano and concert artist, appearing in the role of soloist, singing the vivid "Gypsy Song" from "Carmen." Hanson also stated that tomorrow the band would play in Birch park from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. in connection with the elaborate program to be staged in honor of the opening of the new boulevard.

Lincke's rhythmic "Glowworm" with its daintily whimsical, oft-repeated melody made appealing interlude, contrasted by two provocative "Hungarian Dances" from Brahms, that German master of typical Gypsy folk-themes. Contrasts of mood and shading, clearly marked phrasing and explosive staccato characterized these dances, always favorites with every audience.

Floating suggestive melody of Waldteufel's "Skaters" with its twinkling waltz themes was replete with motion. The concert was concluded by the familiar "March" from "Tannhauser" (Wagner), its ever-interchanging instrumentation and crashing climax of heavy drum and tympani dramatically emphasized.

PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—Trading was rather sluggish today and what few prices changes were recorded were mostly in a downward direction.

Apples were a little firmer, Sebastopol Gravensteins jobbing at 3-3¼c a lb. The first Watsonville Bellflowers of the season at 5½c a lb. Apricots remained practically unchanged, good Northern stock jobbing at 4-5c a lb., wiht a few as high as 5½c.

Santaloupes were somewhat less plentiful and good stock was held firm. The best H. B. X in standard crates sold at $1.00-$1.25. While fairly good tips jobbed at $1.00-$1.25 a crate mor the large sizes.

Seedless grapes from the San Joaquin valley moved a trifle better today @ 2-2½c a lb., but Malagas were lower @ 3-3½c.

Miscellaneous melons of all kinds moved very slowly at unchanged prices.

Hale peaches from the San Joaquin valley were lower at 4½-5c a lb. While Elbertas were weak at 3-5½c.

Tomatoes were in smoewhat lighter supply than yesterday and cleaned up a little better, altho prices were unchanged. The best Earlianas jobbe dat 50-7'c a lug, with the 6x6 size at 40-50c and 6x7s at 25-35c. A very few lugs of sotne tomatoes were sold a t75c-$1.00.

Demand for watermelons was very poor because of the cool weather and the best Imperial valley Klondikes were being offered at $200 a car, with no early sales reported.

Potatoes continued to be firmly held the best local white rose selling carlots at $2.40-$2.50 per cwt., with others at $2.20-$2.35.

LAGUNA BEACH MAN ENDS LIFE WITH BULLETS

J. J. Finnegan, 77, of Laguna Beach, committed suicide at 8:30 o'clock last night at his home at 383 Magnolia drive, by shooting himself twice in the head with a revolver. A coroner's inquest was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Laguna Beach funeral parlors, with Coroner C. D. Brown in charge.

Finnegan was the father of Harold Finnegan, manager of the Southern Counties Gas company in Laguna Beach. He had lived in the beach city for about two months. He formerly lived in Costa Mesa. He had been in ill health for some time.

Hearing the shots, members of the William Switzer family, with whom he lived, rushed to his room. Physicians were called but he died half an hour later.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Fraternity Group Arranges Meetings

Plans for monthly meetings of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity members now living in Santa Ana were completed yesterday when a little group of the Greek lettermen lunched together in Ketner's cafe and renewed their allegiance to the society.

Among other matters discussed as possibilities of the future was the forming of a country-wide alumni association, since it is believed that there are many more Alpha Tau Omega men living in this vicinity who would be interested in identifying themselves with such an association.

Future meetings will be held on the first Thursday of each month and will be luncheon sessions held in the Ketner cafe.

Those present yesterday represented colleges and universities in all parts of the United States and were Russell Adkinson, Ben Blee, William Ashford, F. W. Brockman, Garry W. Eden, Stanley E. Goode, Mortimer Hall, Paul Hyson, Alfred I. Melenthin, Lorin G. Moore, Ray Wolford and Tevis Westgate.

Their next meeting will be that of Thursday, August 7.

5 PRISONERS IN TRIAL DEMANDS: 2 ADMIT GUILT

Jury trials were demanded by five prisoners who entered pleas of not guilty before Judge James L. Allen today during the session of superior court handling criminal matters. In two other cases pleas of guilty were entered and applications for probation resulted in hearings being set for August 1. A probation hearing before Judge G. K. Scovel completed the criminal calendar today.

The guilty pleas were entered by M. J. Haskell and Felix Lugo. Haskell, charged jointly with his wife, answered guilty when arraigned on a burglary charge. The Haskells are alleged to have entered the home of Miss Maude Graham in Brea. Mrs. Haskell pleaded not guilty and was released by the court on her own recognizance. Lugo was charged by the district attorney's office with issuing a fictitious check.

Pedro Gonzales, who faces a murder charge as the result of a clash with Manuel Valenzuela, in which he fatally stabbed the latter, denied that he was guilty of the charge. The court set September 17 as time for the trial. Gonzales demanded a jury. N. D. Meyer and Morris Cain are attorneys for the accused man.

Rudy Goetz, who is charged with resisting an officer as a result of an altercation with the law at Orana, appeared in court without counsel and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge, when he was arraigned. A jury will hear the evidence in the case on August 4. Goetz, it is understood, plans to conduct his own defense.

Ralph Stull, charged with operating a car while intoxicated and failing to stop and render aid after an accident, entered pleas of not guilty upon arraignment before the court. His trial, also to be conducted before a jury, was set for September 11.

Owning and operating a still was the charge on which Jesus Galban and Panfilo Diaz were arraigned. They entered pleas of not guilty and will be tried by a jury on August 20, according to the court schedule.

A charge of asasult with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder was continued in the information filed with the court in the case of Rafael Lopez. The prosecution is the outgrowth of an alleged attack on Ignacio Savala, which took place June 11. Lopez pleaded not guilty when arraigned and had his jury trial set for August 12.

Judge Scovel heard the application of E. C. Posey for probation and granted the request for a two-year period, on condition the prisoner serve a 90-day jail sentence, and after his release make arrangements to pay for the support of his step-son. Posey was in court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor as a result of a beating he gave the boy while he was intoxicated. Pictures submitted to the court showed severe bruises and welts caused by the whipping.

Restrain Woodmen Heads In Higher Rate Collection

Judge Louis Bernreider of Nashville, Ill., has issued an order restraining officers of the Modern Woodmen of America from collecting higher rates established by the head office of the fraternal order, according to a telegram received today by J. G. Mitchell from J. W. McKissick, secretary of the national rate-increase committee of the order.

Mitchell pointed out that members are demanding a referendum on the rate increase, and that the injunction will restrain the collection of higher rates until it is determined whether the members have a legal right to demand a referendum.

TWO WOMEN HURT IN CAR COLLISION

Two women were seriously injured at 3:15 p. m. yesterday, when the automobile in which they were riding with Ed C. Connett, 49, of 815 East Fifth street, collided with a machine driven by Paul Eastman, 19, of 7415 Hollywood boulevard, Hollywood.

The injured were Mrs. R. C. Cornett, 81, and Mrs. Hattie Cornett, 54. They were taken to the Orange county hospital. No arrests were made.

REPEAT CAR CIRCUS SATURDAY EVENING

The automobile circus to be given at the Orange county fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, under the auspices of motor dealers of the county, will be repeated in the evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced today by Fred M. Pentecost, director of the circus.

Crashing of automobiles head on, with a dynamite explosion following, blazing automobiles leading through the air, stunts by the "mash marvel," and the burning of a pile of old automobiles are among the special features designed to bring thrills to the hundreds of men and women expected to attend the performance.

A parade of old wrecks, lead by the "mask marvel" created some excitement Wednesday afternoon on the streets of Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton.

According to Pentecost, motor dealers of the county are contributing plenty of cars to make the automobile bonfire a real event.

Local Briefs

The Fitts for Governor club opened ground floor headquarters at 503 North Main street, it was announced today by J. C. Metzgar, who will be in charge of the office. Metzgar said the club is preparing for an active campaign in behalf of Buron Fitts, present district attorney of Los Angeles county.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

No two souls are identical, yet all are alike in the sense that no one is sufficient unto itself; each depends upon others and upon God.

You receive strength from your dear one in Paradise to enable you to do your duty bravely and well. That one is made happy by your sincere endeavor and by your striving to be ready for the reunion which is to be when your work here is done.

Both of you look to God for guidance and strength, and as you draw near to Him you come ever closer to each other.

DRAWS 90 DAYS WHEN JUSTICE SMELLS LIQUOR

When Lucian B. Seward, of 921 North Hill street, Oceanside, walked into Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning, he expected to retrieve his automobile operator's license, taken away from him six months ago on a reckless driving charge. Instead, he was taken to the county jail to start serving a 90-day jail sentence, which was suspended when his reckless driving charge was heard here. According to Justice Kenneth Morrison, Seward had been drinking and this was one of the provisions of his suspended sentence.

Seward was arrested December 29, 1929, on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. The man was taken into custody by Officer Harry Aldrich of the state force. The charge was reduced to reckless driving and when it came to court, Seward was fined $150, his operator's license suspended for six months and he was given a 90-day suspended jail sentence on condition that he not take a drink during the six months.

Justice Morrison smelled liquor on Seward's breath when he came into court this morning and accused him of it. The court called the county health physician and an examination was made, with the result that it was established that Seward had had a drink or two, so he was taken over across the street to the jailhouse.

IMPERIAL OFFICERS FORM ORGANIZATION

Perfection of an organization to be known as the Imperial Valley Peace Officers' association was made last night at El Centro, when 46 officers of the county met at the Barbara Worth hotel with a delegation of Orange county officers, members of the Orange County Peace Officers' association.

For the past several months, Imperial county officers have desired to form an organization like the one in this county and it was for this purpose that President John Stanton, chief of police of Tustin, and several other officers, including Frank Lutz, B. A. Hershey, E. E. Perry and Jess Elliott, went to El Centro yesterday.

C. L. Gillette, sheriff of Imperial county, was named president of the new organization; Lon Cromer, chief of police of Brawley, was names first vice president, and George W. Wright, of the Imperial county sheriff's office, was named secretary and treasurer.

The local officers who attended the meeting at El Centro returned to Santa Ana early this morning.

Damages of $7450 Awarded Plaintiff In Accident Suit

One of the largest automobile accident damage case awards made recently in superior court was returned yesterday afternoon by Judge James L. Allen at the close of the trial of the action brought by John E. Grant against Walter R. Grinrod. The count granted the plaintiff $7450.15 and costs.

Grant was injured in a collision in Santa Ana last December, which he alleged was due to the negligence and carelessness of the defendant. He sustained a borken leg and was confined to the hospital for six months. He asked for $20,000 personal damages, $1250 loss of wages and $550 medical expenses. There was a large number of witnesses for both plaintiff an ddefendant who testified during the day.

A 10-day stay of execution after a motion for a new trial was granted by the court. It was stipulated that a drawing on the court blackboard could be photographed.

Indian Slated To Talk At Services In Church Tonight

A special service at the Four Square church, corner of Fairview and Sycamore streets at 7:30 p. m. today will be featured by the appearance of Chief Manitowog, a full blooded chief of the Siwash tribe, who will conduct the service. The tribe hails from Washington, and the chief, who is 83 years old, is among the last of his fast vanishing race. He is a preacher and evangelist.

The old chief is the 24th child of his mother, who, as well as his father, lived to be 125 years old. He will be in full Indian dress and will sing in both the Indian and English language. He will tell the story of his conversion while he was in Sing Sing.

A special musical program is being arranged for the service and preparations are being made to care for a large crowd.

Arrange Funeral Of Fred Schultz

Funeral services for Fred W. Schultz, 36, of Newport Beach, who was drowned on July 19, when he fell from a dredger in Newport harbor, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Grooms-Risenberg funeral parlors of Costa Mesa, it was announced today.

Schultz met his death by falling from the dredger north of Balboa island early in the morning. It is not known how he slipped but his body was found two hours later by fellow employes. He had lived in Newport Beach about one year.

He was survived by his wife, Mrs. March Schultz, of Okmulgee, Okla., and one brother, Edward, of Melvin, South Dakota. The Rev. A. F. Hasse of the Community church of Costa Mesa will officiate at the services, assisted by the American Legion of Newport Beach. Interment will be made in Central Memorial park.

Prison Directors Set Convict's Term

The state board of prison directors, meeting at San Quentin, on July 18, has fixed the terms of imprisonment of Brady Ramsey, who was sentenced from Orange county superior court last year, it was learned today from a notice sent to County Clerk J. M. Backs by the secretary of the prison board.

Ramsey, it will be recalled, attacked Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff F. A. Howard when the officer attempted to make an arrest March 16, 1929, in connection with a liquor charge. The prisoner was convicted with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder and of owning and operating a still. He was received at the prison on June 14, 1929, and the terms provide that he shall serve seven and three years.

COUNTY GUARDS TAKE PART IN TWO-DAY MARCH

Orange county members of the National Guard, now encamped at San Luis Obispo for summer training, spent last night in the field as part of a two-day march and military maneuvers, according to word received from Lieut. James B. Pettit, of the Santa Ana contingent. Training is progressing to the satisfaction of the regular army inspector, who is assigned to the regiment.

In athletic contests between the 184th and 185th regiments, now in camp, keen competition has developed. Private Kimball W. Pratt of Tustin, placed fourth in the mile-run in the preliminaries and is expected to do better in the finals, Pettit advises.

Men in the newly organized headquarters company from Santa Ana are learning their duties in the battalion communications work. The radio section, in charge of Corporal Aden W. Housely of Huntington Beach has established and is maintaining radio communications with the other stations of the regiment.

The third battalion, composed of companies from Santa Ana, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino put on the first battalion parade last Tuesday.

FINISH PLANS FOR OPENING OF S. A. BOULEVARD

All details had been completed today for the big parade tomorrow at 11 a. m., in celebration of the completion and opening of Santa Ana boulevard, it was announced by George Raymer, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

Pointing out that virtually every city in Orange county will send delegations, with approximately 150 persons expected from points along the route of the Manchester boulevard, Raymer said that indications today pointed to a large procession of automobiles.

The secretary stressed the point that residents of the city are requested to decorate their homes, particularly those along the route outlined for the parade. Those having flags procured from the American Legion are urged to display them.

There will be no delay in starting the parade, and it will move promptly at 11:01 a. m., Raymer declared.

The parade will form on the west side of the state highway north of the new boulevard, in the following order:

Chamber of commerce, Garden Grove.

Chamber of commerce, San Juan Capistrano.

Chamber of commerce, Westminster.

Chamber of commerce, Seal Beach.

Chamber of commerce, Tustin.

The parade will disband at Birch park, where a program will be given, including an address of welcome by Mayor Frank L. Purinton, an address by B. B. Meek, state director of public works, introduction of some of the prominent men present and music by the Santa Ana Municipal band.

The band will offer the following program, playing part of the numbers at the park while the automobile parade is covering the prescribed route:

March, "Newport Harbor," (Cianfoni); selection, "The Desert Song" (Romberg); Cornet solo, "Inflamatus" from Stabat Mater (Rossini); selection, "Il Trovatore" (Verdi); trombone solo, "The Kiss" (Arditi); waltz, "The Wedding of the Winds" (J. T. Hall); selection, "Robin Hood" (de Koven); overture, "William Tell" (Rossini).

PLANK RESIGNS AS DOPE BUREAU HEAD

Capt. Joe Plank, formerly of Santa Ana, and for the past two years head of the southern division of the state narcotic bureau, yesterday tendered his resignation, giving as his reasons the fact that the Los Angeles police department had been given jurisdiction over his department.

Plank's determination to quit was expressed in a letter sent to Capt. Harry Seager, chief of the state division of narcotic law enforcement. The letter read as follows:

"Please consider this my resignation from the narcotic division effective July 11, 1930. My reason is:

"That the state legislature created this position as a state force and not subservient to the Los Angeles police department."

Plank took a 30-day leave of absence on July 11, when his state office in the Union League building was moved to Central police station under Capt. William Cahill.

The change came when Capt. Harry Seager of the Los Angeles police department was appointed head of the state dope bureau.

Hold Inquest For Victim Of Flames

The body of Charles Livermore, 34, gardener on the Bryant ranch in the Santa Ana canyon, who was burned to death Wednesday afternoon when a range fire swept over 500 acres of the ranch, was taken to Chino in San Bernardino county this morning from the Seale undertaking parlors in Fullerton for an inquest.

When the body was found it lay in a ravine just a few feet the other side of the Orange county line in San Bernardino county and therefore it was necessary that the inquest be held in the county where death occurred.

The inquest was to be held by the coroner of San Bernardino county. The body will be returned to Fullerton this afternoon, after which funeral arrangements are to be made, it was reported.

Livermore had no relatives in this party of the country. He had been employed on the ranch since last May and lost his life when he and a number of other ranch employes rushed from the ranch to fight the flames.

Salesman Jailed On Forgery Count

U. Martinson, salesman, of 1538 1-2 North Serrano avenue, Los Angeles, arrested there yesterday on a charge of forgery, was brought to the county jail last night by Deputy Sheriffs Howard and Buckles.

Martinson is alleged to have forged a check at the Eddie Martin airport here several days ago. In Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning his preliminary examination was set for July 30 and he was released on his own recognizance.

Y. PING PONG EXPERTS MAKE SCORE OF 1038

The Y. M. C. A. ping pong endurance contest is gaining in speed and heat. While boys in other localities are wasting their time in sitting on posts and trees, these "Y" boys are industriously building strength and skill by keeping a ping pong ball in the air for long periods of time. They find it a great advantage in that rest opportunities are frequent and refreshing.

Following up the records set last week, the work has continued until yesterday with no new high marks set, but yesterday afternoon, Brooks Wright and Harry Flockton came through with a record of 999 shots in 11 1-2 minutes of juggling the little celluloid ball.

This morning, Brooks changed partners, and returned to his winning combination with "Mutt" Duffle. This team, Wright and Duffle, then proceeded to go over the thousand mark for the first time, setting a new high of 1038 hits in 12 minutes, on the strength of which they claim a world's record, which is to stand until they can beat it.

If anyone questions the skill and endurance and nerve required in this contest, he is advised to get a partner and a couple of ping pong paddles and a ball, and see how hard it is to keep the ball in motion for a long time, without a miss or a rest.

Wright and Duffle have issued a blanket challenge to all comers to equal or beat their record, although they confidently expect to make it a 1500 as soon as they get a little more practice.

Accident Victim Seeking $64,560

A. E. Zapf filed a $64,560.14 damage suit in superior court yesterday afternoon against Valere Vermeulen.

In the suit the plaintiff claims the amount sought for injuries alleged to have been received in an accident which took place at the intersection of Jefferey and Trabuco roads on February 18. Among the injuries alleged to have been received by the plaintiff are a fractured leg and ribs and lacerations on the head, body, and arms. Medical fees, personal damages and loss of time from employment are itemized in the complaint.

3 Ask Court For Divorce Decrees

Three divorce cases were filed in superior court yesterday afternoon in which charges of cruelty and desertion were made.

Ralph L. Lenox is asking for a divorce from Violet Lenox on the grounds of desertion. The parties in the suit have been separated for five years. Vorella E. Duncan is charging Woodson Duncan with desertion after their second marriage on December 8, 1923. Cruel and inhuman treatment is the charges made by C. W. Kibel against Bessie M. Kibel.

EX-JUSTICE TO DIRECT RILEY'S WORK IN SOUTH

That Ray L. Riley, present state controller and candidate for re-election, will have the endorsement and support of civic leaders throughout the state is evidenced by the announcement that Ex-Chief Justice Louis W. Myers of the supreme court of California has accepted the chairmanship of Riley's campaign for Southern California.

"More than ever," stated Ex-Chief Justice Myers, "is it necessary to have in the office of controller a man whose past record is flawless and whose experience, ability and integrity are unquestioned. Such a man is Ray L. Riley, who, during the past nine years has to my knowledge clearly demonstrated his qualifications for the office which he now holds, and, in accepting the chairmanship of Mr. Riley's campaign, I feel that I am doing no more than my duty as a citizen to protect and maintain the interests of the citizens of the state."

MOTORIST ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Frank Duran, 35, of 924 Logan street, was arrested at his home last night and lodged in the county jail on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

The car he was said to have been driving is alleged to have collided with an automobile owned by Frank Lindsey, of 813 North Flower street. The accident happened at 6:30 o'clock last night. Officer E. E. Perry made the arrest. No one was hurt in the accident.

WALLACE ARRAIGNED ON FORGERY CHARGE

Ray Wallace, former police officer here, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court shortly before noon today on a charge of forgery, following his arrest in Los Angeles last night.

Wallace was arrested by sheriff's officers on a charge of non-support, but the felony charge, which was being held here against him, was substituted when he was taken into court.

According to the complaint, Wallace is alleged to have given the First National bank of Santa Ana a note for $100 on January 16, 1930, with the name of H. A. Bowles, forged to it.

The preliminary examination has been set for July 30 at 9 a. m. and bail of $3000 was demanded, which the prisoner did not make.

The non-support count against Wallace was not brought up in court this morning.

L. A. Man Cited On Check Charge

Charged with issuing a fictitious check, Leslie L. White, 51, of 1303 Middlebrook avenue, Los Angeles, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court today and his preliminary examination set for July 30 at 9 a. m. He was released on his own recognizance.

W. Maxwell Burke, manager of radio station KREG, was the complaining witness in the case. He appeared and asked that the man be released on his own recognizance, according to Justice Morrison.

White was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Howard and Buckles in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon on a Santa Ana warrant.

CANDIDATE ATTACKS SLEEPER IN SPEECH IN GARDEN GROVE; CHAFFEE REFUTES ARGUMENTS

George D. Montgomery, Anaheim rancher who is candidate opposing James Sleeper for the nomination of county assessor, opened his campaign in a meeting at the Women's clubhouse in Garden Grove last night, that was attended by a group of approximately 25 persons, including several civic and political leaders of the county.

Montgomery made a statement of his reasons for seeking the office and outlined plans he has if elected.

Statements were made by several other persons, who declared that actions of Sleeper had forced them to seek a change in the administration of the office in spite of personal friendship. Alleged failure on the part of Sleeper to co-operate in following the recommendations of the last grand jury for a reappraisal of property in the county in an effort to secure equalization of values, and charges of inefficiency, were the theme of the complaint expressed by those who spoke.

Deputy Speaks

A feature of the meeting was the appearance of R. A. Chaffee, deputy in the office of Sleeper, who presented a staunch defense of the actions of the assessor and answered criticisms of the alleged actions and failures as charged by previous speakers.

J. A. Knapp, of Garden Grove, acted as chairman of the meeting. He introduced the candidate to the group, characterizing him as a man of affairs, capable and active.

Montgomery in his address pointed out several instances of inequality in assessments; pointed out that the grand jury had made a recommendation after an investigation that revealed some astounding inequalities; called attention to the importance of the duties of the assessor on whose work depends the raising of county funds; declared for courtesy and efficiency in the office, declared that modern methods should be used in the assessor's office and that the books should at all times be available to the public, and called attention to the fact that Chicago's money difficulties started many years ago with inequalities in assessments.

Made Investigation

"I made an investigation of the inequalities existing in the county under the present regime before I decided to present myself as a candidate," Montgomery stated. "One instance of the inequalities that are numerous is that of a foreman in my packing house. His valuation was raised $200 this year, after he painted his house and changed a little cottage into a garage. His neighbor had made absolutely no changes and his assessment was reduced $150. It is a small amount but the principle is there and is irritating.

"The board of equalization has not received many objections in the past because the taxpayer can not take the time to appear and feels 'What's the use—I'll have to pay anyway.' Americans are fair and expect to pay as much for government as their neighbors, whether they are next door or across the county, and likewise expect their neighbors to pay as much as they do.

"Interviews with members of the grand jury who made the investigation leading to the recommendation revealed that much time was spent on this matter and that inequalities were found on every hand, some of which were astounding. Their report on the matter is prima facie evidence that a condition exists that is unjust, unfair, unlawful and un-American.

Expenses $52,000

"I believe in being an honest, fearless, conscientious and impartial servant of the people. Our county is a big institution and the expense of the assessor's office amounts to $52,000. Tenure of office should depend on service and not political preferment.

"Last spring there was an opportunity to show that the official was loyal and would welcome an investigation. Interested persons tried to get him to co-operate, but he refused. The most important work of the grand jury as a consequence went for naught. A condition exists contrary to public welfare. One man thwarted the grand jury's contribution to the best interests of 135,000 people.

Asks Efficiency

"If elected I hope to reorganize the entire office. There have been rapid changes in the last 10 years. Systems change almost over night. There has been a wave of efficiency and business costs have been cut. Modern methods and improved systems should be installed in the office at once. The expense of the office from 1925 to 1928 increased from $26,983 to $50,685.

"The underlying cause of the financial conditions in Chicago is inequality of assessments. Three years ago a committee of citizens forced publication of lists and the storm broke. Many refused to pay taxes on the basis of such inequalities. Now a reappraisement is under way, and no tax bills have been sent out for two years. There is a lesson for Orange county in the Chicago situation. Tax lists should be available to all, published for any man to see, then there will be no chance for politicians to play tricks with taxes. Property should be described by street address instead of hieroglyphics.

"It is possible that a reassessment in Orange county may not be necessary. A survey would show that. Opening all the records to the public would help the condition. A survey might save the cost of a reappraisal which would lower the cost of taxes. Great principles are involved—of justice and injustice."

Other speakers last night declared that conditions in the office convinced them that a change was necessary.

"Taxation is a constant source of friction and dissatisfaction," one averred, "and until some method is found to get equalization adjusted some major issues in the county face bitter fights. The condition in the office of the assessor is due to inefficiency, not a lack of desire. I believe that after Sleeper's refusal, the only solution of the problem is change of management in the office."

Maps Exhibited

Another speaker called attention to a large map of the county showing several proposed divisions. One was made by Sleeper, at the Santa Ana river. In another division, which it was declared was practically an actual division on acreage, the line came on down past the river to the northern boundaries of the San Joaquin and Silverado school districts. It was pointed out that in this acreage division of the county, the north part was assessed at approximately $157,000,000 and the southern half at approximately $15,700,000. The speaker asserted that the southern half included the Irvine ranch, for which he said he understood an offer of $100,000,000 had been made, and which certainly was worth $60,000,000.

"On the same basis as our assessments this property alone should be assessed at $20,000,000," he declared. "Yet the entire district is only $15,000,000." He also spoke of the work of the grand jury and the importance of its work.

C. C. Sidnam, of Anaheim, used the map in his talk, in which he pointed out that Laguna and Serra districts pay about half of the entire assessed value of the south part of the acreage half of the county. He pointed out that Irvine has about six and a half miles of beach frontage, valued at from $250 to $300 per front foot, but that it was assessed at a top price of $700 per acre. He also took exception to Sleeper's method of reaching assessment values, saying that it requires careful study and scientific knowledge, rather than driving past a piece of land and taking down prices from real estate signs.

Refutes Arguments

Chaffee, who stated that he had been in the office for the past eight years as a deputy and was familiar with conditions, next took the floor and made a statement refuting many of the arguments that had been advanced and presented a different light on many of the allegations that had been made.

"In this so-called south half of the county, you must take into consideration that there are 40,000 acres of national forest, which is non-assessable," Chaffee declared. "Then on the Irvine ranch, which you assert is assessed so low, there is less than 5000 acres under irrigation. The line dividing north and south so far as acreage, is fair, but so far as it refers to assessment purposes it is absurd.

"Mr. Sleeper does not refuse people permission to see the books, in fact I have heard him many times, invite them to make an inspection and have heard him state that if people would come in and look them over they would find that there is no cause for fancied objections. If people having complaints would come in and see the records they would get a different attitude.

"The Irvine beach property is assessed equitably with the adjoining properties on the north and south. And as far as the statement that the top assessment on the Irvine property is $700 an acre is concerned, that is just another mistake. The top assessment price is $2000 per acre.

Wants Survey

"Sleeper wants a survey of the county. He never fought it except on the grounds that it would spend more of the county money than it was worth. He asked for funds to do the work two years ago but was refused. He has revalued the buildings all over the county as far as funds will permit. The records in the office are open. He asked the supervisors for funds to assist in the work. No one wants this done more than he does. No one will do more than he will if the funds are available.

"Costs in the office have increased because there have been a large number of sub-divisions put on. They began jumping about five years ago, and now we have 70,000 parcels of land to handle. Sleeper realizes the need of revaluing property and will do it if given the opportunity."

Upon being asked by Harry Becker, of Brea, if the books were open to everyone and if he could get the complete record on the Union Oil company, Chaffee emphatically assured him that he could or anyone could and that he would be glad to assist him in getting that information if he wanted it.

W. W. Dungan, of Garden Grove, wanted to know why some years the amount of acreage listed was larger than others, and was informed by Chaffee that this was due to the fact that in in some years sub-divisions that had been withdrawn from acreage, were thrown back into acreage when they didn't go over.

Chaffee also declared that Sleeper disapproved of the survey and reappraisement because it would cost more in the way proposed than to have it done through the assessor's office ,and that he was interested in seeing it done as economically as possible.

Thousands Of Railroad Signal Blocks Made Here

WORK ON TRACK SYSTEM TO TAKE THREE MONTHS

ORANGE, July 25.—Under the direction of W. J. Lee of Los Angeles, thousands of cement signal foundations and battery boxes are being built in this city and will be used in installing an electric block system along the Santa Fe tracks from Fullerton to Fallbrook and from Fallbrook to San Diego.

Lee, who is in charge of a crew of nine men, stated yesterday that it would take from two to three months from the present time, to complete the number of blocks and battery boxes required.

The automatic electric block system will take the place of the semaphores now in use along the track. The new signals will be much more effective in foggy and rainy weather and will add to safety in operation, it is said.

The signal foundations are four feet at the base, have a smaller square area at the top and are about four feet high. The blocks will operate hooded flood lights. As the train first strikes the tracks controlled by the blocks the circuit is broken and yellow lights will flood the tracks. As the train procedes the lights will automatically turn to red, and as the track is cleared, they will change to green.

The length of track on which the system is to be installed is the last lap of the Santa Fe to be equipped in this way. During the past week blocks have been installed from Fullerton to Los Angeles on the Santa Fe line. The battery boxes are from ten feet in length and four feet in width for 48 cell battery boxes to proportionate lengths and widths for the 36 cell, the 20 cell and the 8 cell sizes.

The blocks will be located at sections along the track where they are needed, curves in the tracks and other circumstances entering into their location.

About 10 battery boxes and two signal foundations are being made daily, Lee states. The foundations are wired ready for installation. The crew which came here from San Bernardino have a string of eight cars on the side track west of the freight depot.

Blueprints of the block system are expected here at anytime.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Edwards left yesterday for Yellowstone Park. They are making the trip by motor and expect to be gone for several weeks.

Miss Dorothy Gruwell will leave next week for a two weeks' vacation which she will spend in Santa Monica and Catalina.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pike returned today from a honeymoon trip which they spent in the south. Mrs. Pike was Quilla McCullough before her marriage here last week. During Mrs. Pike's absence the Pacific Coffee store, of which she is manager, has been in charge of Mrs. John B. Cook.

Mrs. Estelle Campbell, 182 South Pepper street, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties in the Orange public library.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Hedges and children, Barbara, Byron and Betty Lou, are guests in the home of Mrs. Hedges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green. The visitors are from Oklahoma and are taking a number of trips to other Southern California towns. This week Mrs. Green and daughter, Miss Evelyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Hedges and children spent one day at Balboa.

Miss Estella Campbell, 261 North Olive street, went to Los Angeles yesterday for a brief visit with relatives.

Miss Dorothy Perkins of the Dorothy shop, and Mrs. A. A. Smith spent Wednesday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Earl Hobbs has had as her guest her sister, Mrs. E. W. Bolton of San Francisco, who has also been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill of Santa Ana. Mrs. Bolton left today for her home in the north and Mrs. George Hooper of San Francisco who has been a guest in the Hobbs and Hill homes, accompanied her.

Mrs. Eula Weaver was a business visitor in Los Angeles, Wednesday.

Seven Cars Of Fertilizer Received Daily

ORANGE, July 25.—The prosperity of a ranching community may be gauged by the amount of fertilizer that is used by ranchers, it was said at the Santa Fe depot yesterday. At the present time seven cars of fertilizer are being shipped here daily, an amount above the average, it was declared.

While it was conceded that fertilizer is a necessity, it was said at the Santa Fe, that its use fluctuates with business conditions.

SMILEY TALKS OF EGYPT AT ROTARY CLUB

ORANGE, July 25.—J. A. Smiley, of West Orange, was the interesting speaker at the regular meeting of the Rotary club here yesterday. John Adams was the program chairman and C. E. Morrow of Eureka, Calif., former "Y" secretary here led the songs.

Smiley took his listeners across Europe through the Baltic countries, down the Nile and through the Holy Land, vividly describing farming and business conditions of the countries through which he had traveled.

Irrigation Methods

Irrigation methods in Egypt were described, the raising of water in the ditches along the Nile being done mostly by man power, he said. The apparatus used is along the order of the old-fashioned well sweep, he said. Crops are of all sorts, cotton, dates and grain, and grown about six miles on each side of the river, he said.

A visit to the Valley of the Kings where the marvelous tomb of King Tut stands in as desolate a country as may be imagined, was described. Flies abound in the country around the tomb, he said and children are seen with the insects crawling over their faces, their eyes sore from the contact.

Cheap Labor

Laborers in the Palestine receive about 55 cents a day he said, living is cheap, the poorer classes don't expect much and don't get much. The hills around Palestine are stony bluffs and the agricultural conditions were a disappointment to him the speaker said.

The dole system in England was studied by Smiley, who declared that the number of unemployed men who were living on a dole or half pay, from the government were in the millions. While he was in England, a movement was being made by these men to secure a dole of full pay. Labor problems in England were very acute, Smiley said, while France seemed in a most prosperous state.

Visiting Rotarians were J. L. McBride, Elmer Heidt, T. E. Stephenson, Hube Dale and W. L. Deimling of Santa Ana; James Fargnhor and J. S. Balee of Huntington Beach; C. E. Morrow of Eureka. Lew Wallace and Edward Swift were guests of club members.

FINE MEXICAN $50 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

ORANGE, July 25.—U. Martinez of El Modena, was fined $50 in the court of Justice G. W. Ingle yesterday afternoon when he appeared on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor. Martinez, at his hearing on Wednesday, asked for a jury trial, but yesterday changed his plea to guilty.

The man was arrested the first of the week by Constable George Bartley when cider found at his home was seized and after analysis was found to contain an illegal content of alcohol.

LOYAL WOMEN OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEET

ORANGE, July 25.—The Loyal Women of the Christian church met in the church parlors yesterday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Ed Windolph presided at the piano during the devotionals, with Mrs. William Moose leading in the singing Mrs. M. O. Ainsworth gave the Scripture reading, using the twenty-third Psalm.

Initial plans were made for dinner on election day. Two committees were appointed with Mrs. M. E. Bivens and Mrs. William Moose as chairmen. The committee on baptismal robes gave a report and a motion was mad ethat the class make the robes, if the church board purchase the material.

Mrs. Minnie Grahn was appointed chairman of the flower committee for special occasions, such as Christmas, Easter and Children's Day, to assist the regular committee for the current month in which these days occur. Mrs. B. Atherton read a portion of a letter telling of the change of home of the family of Fred Bates, who recently went to Oregon to make their home on a ranch. Mrs. Emily Reed, the class teacher, was granted a two months' vacation and Mrs. Minnie Neville was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Moose Chairman

Mrs. William Moose was the program chairman. Readings were given by Josephine Clouse and Edith Boone. Eldon Winters played a violin solo, "May," with an encore "Blue Bells of Scotland," accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Robert Winters.

A duet was given by Dorothy Finley and Annita Myracle, who were accompanied by Mrs. Leon Des Larzes. Luberta Morgan gave a pianologue, "Freckle Face" with Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake at the piano. Miss Melva Fletcher sang "Danny Boy," accompanied by Miss Loraine Ingle.

Ice cold watermelon was served by the hostesses, Mesdames William Moose, L. Sides, M. O. Ainsworth and F. Scovel. A number of guests were present. The following were present: Mesdames Robert Winters, Edd Windolph, William Moose, G. A. Gates, M. E. Bivens, F. L. Ainsworth, Leon Des Larzes, Emma Carlson, B. Atherton, Emily Reed, Frances Conner, R. C. Burkett, Angeline Courtney, W. Pulley, F. Scovel, Nordeen, W. N. Whitney, Perkins, A. A. Dewey, Grace Strickland, M. O. Ainsworth, Wolfe, Minnie Grahn, W. EASTERN STAR LADIES PICNIC IN IRVINE PARK

ORANGE, July 25.—Members of Scepter Chapter, No. 163, O. E. S. and their families met at Irvine park Thursday for a pot luck supper at 6:30 o'clock planned in honor of Miss Ellen Suffren, a member of the Chapter who will sail for Hingwa, China, July 28, where she will resume her work as missionary. Mrs. Sherman Gillogly, worthy matron Scepter Chapter, and her officers were hostesses. One hundred twenty-five partook of the bountiful supper under the branches of the oak trees.

A ship well loaded was the center piece on the long guest table. Miss Ellen Suffren was the recipient of many thoughtful gifts loaded upon the ship by her many friends. Especially appreciated was a box of many colored bars of soap. Miss Suffren remarked that soap was at a premium in China.

Loaded ships was not the only diversion for the gathering for the officers of the chapter, unbeknown to the worthy matron, presented a three-year diary book to the daughter of the worthy matron, Helen Gillogly, who is leaving next month to enter college at the University of Berkeley.

Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening by those who so desired.

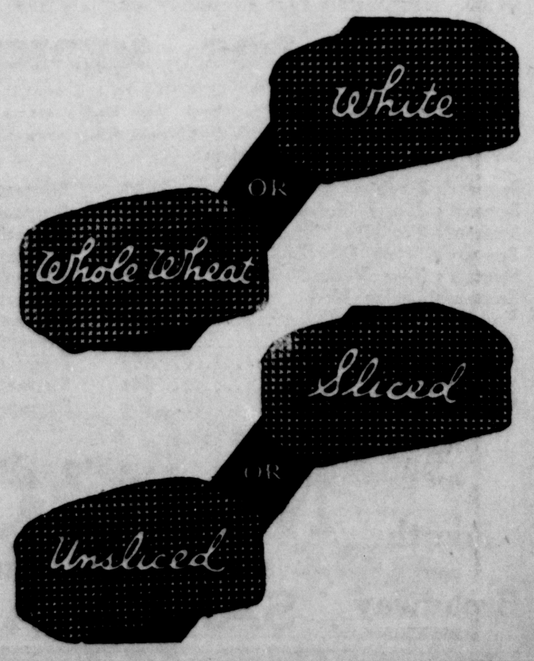
GOODNESS recognizes goodness. Freshness bows to freshness. Just as the Blue Gingham Girl stood for sweet, pure, dependable, pioneer womanhood, so the Blue Gingham Gown on Weber's Bread is the symbol of a good, pure, honest loaf. It is designed as a message to you, a message of quality. It performs its task when its old-fashioned simplicity conveys to you that confidence of goodness that goes with most old-fashioned things.

Weber's BREAD

"IT'S MIGHTY NICE"

WEBER'S BREAD
"As You Like It"

You can buy Weber's Bread in the White or the Whole Wheat loaves, either sliced or unsliced. Weber's White Bread is wrapped in the attractive gingham blue, and Weber's Whole Wheat in appetizing gingham brown. The word "sliced" appears prominently on the wrappers of the sliced loaves.



SCHOOL BOARD IN FULLERTON VOTES SURVEY

FULLERTON, July 25. — The school board of the Fullerton union high school and junior college was today on record as in favor of asking the county supervisors to appropriate funds for making a survey of the educational problems of Orange county, chief of which is the junior college question, following action taken at a board meeting late Wednesday.

The action was taken only after an hour's heated debate, in which J. A. Prizer, chairman, protested.

The board did not commit itself to comply with the results of the survey.

The motion made by Tuffree and seconded by Launer, was that the "chairman appoint a committee to work in conjunction with the Santa Ana board of education to request the supervisors of Orange county to appropriate funds for an impartial general survey on education problems of Orange county to the end of providing particular data on the junior college question." Travers and Tuffree were appointed on the committee.

To Begin Work On School Remodeling

ANAHEIM, July 25.—Within the next few days, construction work will begin on the remodeling of the residence at 210 South Citron street for the Anaheim school district and is expected to be completed in time for the opening of the school term next fall.

The building is to be re-finished inside and out, using a colonial type of architecture for the exterior. There will be seven rooms when completed, and in addition to a general office, conference room and board room, they will be occupied by Melbourn A. Gauer, superintendent; Samuel E. Loose, physical director; Miss Adah Wilcox, assistant physical director, and Adelaide Price, school nurse.

The contract for the work has been awarded to J. E. Hamlyn at a cost to the district of $3131. Other bids submitted were $3757 and $4263.

Farewell Given To Honolulu Voyager

ANAHEIM, July 25.—Miss Dorothy Wents was the inspiration for a lovely farewell dinner party Wednesday evening given by her grandmother, Mrs. J. Wents, at her home at 602 North Lemon street.

Miss Wents will sail Saturday for Honolulu to return to her work as children's librarian in the new public library of that city. She is a graduate of Fullerton junior college, Pomona college and Simmon's college at Boston. After working for a year in the library at the Orange county courthouse Miss Wents went to Honolulu where she has been for the past year. Her leave of absence for six weeks was given her on conditions that she sign a contract for another year on the island.

Bidden to the dinner were Miss Wents, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wents of Los Angeles, two daughters of the hostess, Mrs. Helen Greve and Mrs. Sam Kraemer jr., Mr. Kraemer and their daughter, Rosemary.

SON HOME FROM SCHOOL

BARBER CITY, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. James Winslow have with them for tthe remainder of the summer vacation, their son, Lawrence Winslow of Williamette university of Salem, Oregon, who motored home and will return in the fall to resume his studies. As guests in their home Mr. and Mrs. Winslow have been entertaining a cousin of Mrs. Winslow's, Mrs. Raymond Fuller and Mr. Fuller, of Jacksonville, Florida, who made a flying trip to visit California relatives. It had been 23 years since the cousins last met and on Sunday a family reunion and picnic was enjoyed by a party of 14 at Point Fermin where they took their lunch, going for the day.

HOLD PICNIC PARTY

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—A picnic party at Bixby park, Long Beach, was given in observance of the birthday anniversaries of Miss Helen McCoy of this place and her college friend, Miss Lillian Faber of Anaheim, the latter of whose anniversaries was upon that date and Miss McCoy's a few days later. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Miss Helen McCoy, Bryceand Wallace McCoy and Miss Pearl Breedlove of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Faber, Miss Lillian Faber and Homer Faber of Anaheim; Miss Grace Koch of Hollywood, formed the picnic party.

HAPPY WORKERS OF WESTMINSTER MEET

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—Plans for several coming events were made at Wednesday's business meeting of the Happy Workers' society which followed the public dinner which was served at the church hall by Mrs. Harry Penhall's serving committee. Two excursions were planned, among these one to an Anaheim ice plant on August 5, the other to Barker Bros., Los Angeles, on Sept. 12.

A pot-luck dinner will be held by the Happy Workers for the August meeting on the fourth Wednesday of the month, it was decided.

A friendly contest among members of the Happy Workers was arranged for a six months' period, each committee chairman being appointed to see that members of her committee attend meetings. In this way it is expected to secure a larger attendance at meetings.

Mrs. Thomas Hosack was appointed to see the trustees of the church about cleaning off of the church lots and the Happy Workers society is willing to serve dinner to the men if they donate their labor on the clean up.

Mrs. A. G. Snow was appointed as chairman of a regular program committee to furnish entertainment at the Happy Workers meetings, Mrs. Snow being allowed to appoint her own committee.

A total of $16.30 was taken in at the dinner which was served by Mrs. Harry Penhall, Mrs. George Clough, Mrs. Ruth Penhall, Mrs. A. G. Snow and Mrs. Clyde Day.

ENTERTAIN CLUB

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Incho entertained the Tuesday Night club at their home 609 Eighth street this week. Dainty refreshments were served and the club members enjoyed bridge. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff King, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osmun, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vaughn.

PERSONAGES VISIT LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—S. S. Van Dine, mystery story writer, called last week on his friend Antony Anderson and other friends here. Leo Pololski, celebrated Russian pianist called on Mrs. Cyrus Hickman and Alice Gentle is spending a week here.

Bride-Elect Given Shower By Mother

FULLERTON, July 25.—Among the many parties given in honor of Miss Winifred Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moore, 117 South Pomona avenue, who is soon to marry Alvin Blackford of this city, was a recent one given by the mother of the bride-to-be at the Moore home.

An evening of bridge was enjoyed and a salad course refreshment was served on the card tables. The ice cream was molded into cakes with the daisy suggestion on the top of each.

Yellow and white was the color scheme emphasized in Shasta daisies. Gladiolus was also used in the decorative theme.

The bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Betty Woolson, Hazel Vilott and Evelyn Heitzman.

Miss Moore and Blackford both attended Fullerton grammar school and high school and are well known through northern Orange county.

COMMERCE CHAMBER MEETS

MIDWAY CITY, July 25. — A smoker is being planned by the Midway City Chamber of Commerce for men of the community as a Midway City booster meeting. The exact date has not been set but it will be within two weeks.

The Chamber of Commerce was this week presented a check for $100.00 by Walter J. Hill, new owner of Midway City, the gift being appreciated by the Chamber.

Buyers have advantages in Horton's August Furniture Sale that probably have no equal anywhere in this part of the country:

1. All furniture on sale is part of the complete new stock with which we furnished our new store, and which was bought on the recent extremely low-priced market.

2. These low prices are reduced just the same, following our usual clearance policies.

3. Furniture prices are rising higher every day; an unmistakable upward movement from the recent low level, making Horton's sale prices the lowest that will undoubtedly be seen again for years at least.

The combination of these circumstances could only be found in a store that paralleled our activities this year; the opening of our new store with stocks purchased on this unusually low market; the August clearance policies of Horton's which will not be deviated from because of our rigid twelve-months program mapped out long ago.

They make low prices for you. On new furniture, the modern types. Values that it doesn't seem reasonable could recur again. You can judge them for yourself and make comparisons.

You're invited to this sale, which begins tomorrow, Saturday. Horton's August Furniture Sale. Our Easy Payment Plan will help you to save now. Very little cash down will be necessary.

The opportunity is yours to profit by as you see fit.

Laguna Busses May Include Newport And Balboa

MOTOR TRANSIT WANTS CHANGE OF SCHEDULE

NEWPORT-BALBOA, July 25.—All Motor Transit busses now running between Santa Ana and Laguna Beach may run via Newport bay and later on may go up and down the coast either via Balboa Island or Corona del Mar ferry, it was learned today.

The Motor Transit company is making an application to the Railroad commission to route its Santa Ana-Laguna Beach busses via Costa Mesa, Newport Beach and Balboa, instead of via Irvine and the inland route. Five are run each way on this route daily.

The Motor Transit company and the Pickwick stages will also ask that the three local Newport Beach-Laguna Beach busses each way daily now operated by the Pickwick be operated by the Motor Transit company. This would not affect the through Pickwick stages, which now run between Long Beach, Los Angeles and San Diego via the Coast route.

At present the Motor Transit runs eight stages each way daily between here and Santa Ana. If it operated the five now running to Laguna via this city, this would make 13 daily each way between here and the county seat. The plan will be strongly supported by the chambers of commerce and others of Newport Beach and Costa Mesa, it is stated.

With the putting into operation of a new, larger ferry between Balboa island and Balboa, a deal was reported to be under discussion whereby the busses would come to Balboa, cross to the island by ferry and continue to Corona del Mar and down to Laguna.

The Motor Transit company, as well as Pickwick, would be interested in a ferry from Balboa Peninsula to Corona del Mar, but until such a ferry service is established, they may use the Balboa island route.

MILITARY STUDENTS CAMPING ON BEACH

CAPISTRANO BEACH, July 25.—Thirty boys from the Oncenta Military academy, of South Pasadena, are camped on the beach near the bath house. Major W. A. Smith is in command. The boys, who range from the lower grades, through high school age, will make a three weeks' stay on the beach, to be followed by a trip to Grand Canyon. They travel in their own bus, and are accompanied by their own chef. Billy Burnett, son of Henry Burnett, of Santa Ana, who has been with the encampment, returned home last week, because of illness, but will make the coming trip to the canyon.

HANSON ENTERS HORSE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Ole Hanson jr., director of the El Rodeo Riding club of Orange county and San Clemente's leading horseman will enter his star mount, The Captain, in the Third Annual Horse Show sponsored by the Coronado Riding Club at Coronado on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Hanson jr. will ship his horse south in a special motor taxi and ride him in the lightweight stock class on Saturday afternoon. On Sunday Hanson jr., will enter his mount in the $500 stake race.

Make Record With Laguna Beach Hotel

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—Making a record for speed in construction and exceeding the schedule set, the Laguna Beach hotel, started seven weeks ago, will be open for business next week. This is the statement of William Cochran, president of the company. H. W. Baum and B. F. Baum of the Baum construction company, builders of the hotel, were visitors this week with Cochran watching progress.

Specially made carpets arrived Thursday morning and are being laid. Spanish Mediterranean furniture, also made to order and beds claimed to be the best made, will be placed as soon as the carpets are down. Landscaping of the grounds is to start Tuesday.

Though August 12 was set as the opening date, the rapid progress has made possible opening two weeks sooner.

CONDUCT LIFE LAGUNA BEACH SAVING CLASS

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—The second course in the series of training courses in swimming and life saving sponsored by the local branch of the American National Red Cross will start July 28. The class for beginners will be under the supervision of Miss Louella Marshall, from 10 to 11 a. m. devoted to this, in front of the life guard tower on the main beach. Classes are under the protection of life guards, children in this class to be those between 6 and 15 years of age.

Classes for swimmers are held from 11 until 12 a. m. every morning excepting Sundays. This class is for those knowing how to swim, but who wish to learn the various strokes for speed and distance, and earn the American Red Cross Swimmers Badge.

Classes for those who wish to earn the American Red Cross Junior Life Saving emblem and certificate, are held every morning frmo 10 until 11 a. m. And boy or girl between the ages of 12 and 17 is eligible.

Classes for the senior grade are held every afternoon from 4 until 5 p. m. Men and women from 17 years of age and over are eligible. Those completing this course will receive the senior life saving corps emblem and certificate. This is a real mark of distinction, and it is hoped that no one will miss this splendid opportunity. These courses are free to everyone.

Those wishing to enter any of these classes are asked to register at the life guard tower on the Central Beach.

The first junior and senior life saving course came to a close today, at a beach and plunge party. The group was to assemble at 5 p. m. in front of the Pomona College Marine laboratory and drive from there in a group to the San Clemente Beach club. The features of the evening included final examinations, swimming, life saving contests and games, after which the group assembled around a camp fire on the beach for an evening of entertainment.

BEAN DISTRICT AT BEACH HAS LARGE ACREAGE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 25.—The Huntington Beach agricultural district has 6000 acres planted to beans, according to estimates of the Smeltzer Bean Growers' association. This is probably the largest acreage ever planted in the vicinity of this city. Outlook for the crop is fair and the estimated yield is 15 sacks to the acre. It is estimated the bean growers will receive not less than 10 cents a pound for beans which would mean the bean crop this year will yield $900,000.

These estimates are conservative and it is reasonable to expect the bean crop, if the growing period between now and the harvest season a few weeks off, will be a million dollar crop. This money goes to the farmers and adds to the wealth of the Huntington Beach trade territory.

Look Good Now

Beans are looking good now. The bean crop here is lima beans. Orange county has many thousand acres in beans in the semi-arid sections of the county. The acreage outside of the Huntington Beach district is smaller this year than the average, owing to the turning of portions of the bean acreage to other crops and to young orchards. The big bean acreage and bean crop of Huntington Beach district will not be sufficient to bring the yield of Orange county to the average and will not have a depressing effect on the price of beans to the grower.

The crop is comparatively free from worms or other pests and the bean growers are expecting a good season with a satisfactory profit on their crop. The market is strong with the price firm.

It will be several weeks yet before the actual harvest starts and unfavorable weather conditions may change the situation but right now the bean growers are optimistic, in this immediate section.

The chili pepper acreage this year is slightly larger than usual. It is a little early yet to make any estimate of the pepper crop as to yield and price, but the pepper growers are hopeful of a good crop with a fair price. If the pepper weevil does not cause damage this year the pepper growers are in a way to make some money out of their crop. The pepper crop in this vicinity yields more than a million dollars a year to the farmers. The Japanese farmers do most of the pepper growing on rented land, paying cash rentals for their land.

DANA POINT, July 25.—Work is progressing on the new motor inn, which is under construction at the intersection of the Roosevelt highway and McKinley avenue. R. N. Burnett, of Santa Ana, contractor on the job, and a crew of nearly 20 men, are engaged on the first unit of the court.

Plans call for one of the most unique and elaborate tourist apartment inns on the southern coast. A strip of land, 1000 feet long, extending from the highway to the water line, was purchased by W. D. Moore, of Dana Point; Frank Daniels, of Los Angeles, and F. Laurence, of Pasadena. The buildings will occupy about 500 feet of the site, and will be in the form of a hollow square, facing the highway. Two units, each two-story high, and 500 feet long, will be connected across the end, facing the ocean. These will contain about 60 apartments, of two, three and five rooms each, modern to the last degree, and equipped with cooling systems.

A 15-foot broad walk will be constructed around the square, and an auto driveway, entering from the highway, will circle the walk. Landscaping and a fountain will beautify the square. Between the building and ocean a sunken garden will be made, with a bathing pool for children. A grocery store and filling station will flank each side of the entrance to the apartment court. The station will have a tower 38 feet in height.

The project will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

BURNS FEET

LA HABRA, July 25.—The small son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stanley is confined to his home with badly burned feet as the result of an accident when he ran through a pile of ashes while at play with his bare feet thinking them to have been cold. Instead of the ashes being cold they contained live coals and the lad received first and second degree burns on his feet.

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Hal Warner, secretary and Trafford Huteson, president will represent San Clemente at the regular monthly meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county which will be held at Los Alamitos Tuesday night, July 29. Warner, chairman of the transportation committee, will make a report.

Newport Is Planning for Yacht Regatta

NEWPORT-BALBOA, July 25.—The complete official program of the Pacific Coast championship yachting regatta, to be held here August 4 to 9, was announced today, a former program announcement being declared erroneous.

Newport Bay is planning a gala week for the double regatta, as the Southern California Yachting association holding its annual regatta here at the same time as the Coast title event.

The regattas follow the recent completion of the latest harbor improvement of the City of Newport Beach, providing a channel at the bay entrance 250 feet wide and 15 feet deep at low tide, and yachtsmen and others from all up and down the coast are expected to spend regatta week here.

Laguna Beach Host To Lodges

Others visiting from lodges away from here, some residents of Laguna Beach, however, were David Meyer, Darold C. Meyer, Paul A. Andres, Allen Lair of Santa Ana; H. T. Wolsworth and E. D. Marion of Anaheim; James A. Russell of Alma, Nebr.; J. L. Hannaman of Ottumwa, Ia.; Ronald H. Ross of Los Angeles, W. H. P. Goddard of Morenci, Ariz., J. L. Lattin of Galvin, Kans., and D. V. Estep of Burr Oak, Kas.

EXPECT CHANGE IN BUS ROUTES AT FULLERTON

FULLERTON, July 25.—A more extensive bus service through Fullerton is anticipated in the near future with the announcement that a new application had been filed with the state railroad commission regarding proposed changes, it was announced here today.

The combination of Pickwick and Motor Transit lines centering through Fullerton with the new rerouting would effect the recently curtailed service of the Pacific Electric. The application will be heard in Los Angeles August 2, it was announced.

Under this plan a line from Los Angeles to Riverside by way of Norwalk, Buena Park, Fullerton, Placentia and Corona is contemplated.

The Pickwick line to San Diego would be rerouted through Whittier and La Habra and follow the U. S. Highway 101 to Fullerton and points south.

Just what changes may be included in this proposed revision has not yet been announced, but is expected to be revealed when entirely completed.

Yorba Linda service is one of the issues and a parallel line of the Motor Transit from Los Angeles to Santa Ana by way of Whittier, La Habra and Brea is another point on which a possible change of plans is being considered.

The proposed changes would make Fullerton a junction point for travelers to the interior cities, it was said. Final working out of the plans is now under way and definite routes are expected to be scheduled for the hearing.

The proposed Los Angeles-Riverside line through Santa Ana canyon would give Fullerton and Placentia better service to the east, it was said.

Plan Action For Laguna Ninth Grade

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—Action on the ninth grade which will be installed in the grammar school this September will be decided upon early next week, when a joint meeting of the school district will be held with Tustin.

Tustin has been asked to provide teachers for the students, if Laguna Beach will furnish the room, and equipment. This is being done to save ninth grade students from riding the long distance to Tustin high school each day.

According to G. B. Dunham, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Palm Springs has made a similar request of Banning high school.

COAST ASSOCIATION PLAYS GOLF MONDAY

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—One of the largest gatherings in Orange County Coast association golf tourney history is scheduled to take part in the regular monthly competition at Catalina on Monday morning, according to Hal Warner, chairman of the sports committee of the organization. Play will be for the Tom Talbert cow, Press-Telegram set of golf irons and minor trophies.

Players from all cities on the Orange county coast have signed for the trip. From San Clemente will go Hal Warner, G. Scherck, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murphine jr., Tom Murphine sr., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mulherron, Win Keerl, Jess Heinecke, J. C. Herbsman and Bob Plume.

The party will leave Wilmington on Sunday afternoon, play golf Monday morning and leave for the mainland on Monday afternoon. The golf banquet will be held aboard ship on the way back from the island.

Fraternity men from San Clemente plan to stop at the Irvine ranch beach just north of Emerald Bay on the way home and take in the regular monthly meeting of the Inter-fraternity association of Orange county.

DISCUSS WATER SITUATION AT CHAMBER MEET

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—A special meeting of the Westminster Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing the coming water bond election of next Monday, July 28, which is to be held in the Wishart building formerly occupied by the Fountain lunch on Westminster boulevard.

The present water committee, Charles Sigler, George Clough, Francis Penhall and James Monroe were appointed to see that the voters in the prescribed territory get to the poles which are to be open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. Mrs. Ruth Penhall, Judge W. H. Bentley and Mrs. Nell Morgan will form the election board.

It was stated that the water level in the district has fallen another three feet the past week or so making it doubtful just how long the present water supply may hold out. Mr. Basse, president of the Westminster school board, stated that the water situation at the Westminster Mexican school is already at the point where something has to be done to secure a new water supply and many property owners who have their own private wells now have their pumps lowered to the last level possible for pumping.

The company present was unanimously in favor of the proposed bonds of approximately $31,000 which would put in the water works for the entire territory of Westminster about one half mile in each direction. There are about 200 water users interested in the proposed election.

Property owners signing the petition which was circulated when the plans for the election were formulated, included besides local persons, a number from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach, Glendale, Compton and Alhambra.

MARATHON TO OPEN TONIGHT IN BEACH CITY

The Society marathon, a dancing and walking contest, starts tonight at 8 o'clock at the Casino ballroom at Balboa. The marathon, a continuous event, will be broadcast over KREG from 12 to 12:30 o'clock every day and from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock every evening.

The contest is sponsored by the Meiklejohn brothers, lessees of the Casino, formerly known as the Pavilion. A program of high class vaudeville has been arranged and "something doing every minute" is promised by the management.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Whitie Clinton and His Music Masters, a 12-piece orchestra. Public dancing will be featured during the marathon.

Co-operation of Newport Beach authorities has been promised the Casino managers. An experienced master of ceremonies has been secured.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Dividends checks of the San Francisco Seals have been nice healthy ones since 1921 as $600,000 worth of ivory has been disposed of to the big leagues..George Putnam, Seal magnate, says the coast loop would show financial success without major league asles ..He bases his opinion on Sacramento figures, which show only two sales since 1924..Catcher Joe Sprinz made one of the fastest shifts on record when he came to the majors..Just before a night game at Indianapolis, Sprinz was surprised by being told he had been sold to Cleveland..He caught the night game for the Hoosiers, took the midnight sleeper, and was behind the bat for the Indians at 1:30 p. m. the next afternoon.

AT LAST IT IS DONE

They are passing out the bouquets these days to E. K. Hall, who once upon a time was a $50,000-a-year executive with a big telephone company, but who gave up that job to become a teacher at Dartmouth college.

Aside from being a college professor, Hall also is chairman of the Intercollegiate Football Rules committee that recently finished setting up grid rules for 1930 season. They say that Hall and his group did a noble piece of work.

For one, I'm going to give the committee a vote of thanks for writing anew the rules in much simpler and more condensed form. It's so seldom any more that committees and commissions do anything worth while. But as Jackson Cannell, Dartmouth football coach said: "The study and time given this work have been tremendous, and every lover of football should feel grateful to the men who achieved such splendid work."

Wouldn't it be nice if we could say that about the various boxing commissions?

* * *

At this point, however, I am prompted to ask who reads the football rules?

Fans won't, you can gamble on that. Oh, some fans, out of curiosity, might read the first page or two and then give up because of technicalities. Anyway, it's so much simpler for them to ask the fellow in the next seat what that particular penalty was all about, even if the answer they get isn't very intelligent.

But the fact that the rules have been recodified and shortened considerably should help the game.

I compliment the committee on the fact that they made such few changes in the actual playing rules. And as I mentioned before, isn't it something to know that there is one committee that actually accomplishes a good thing?

SHAWKEY SMILES

Happines brings out a smile every time, and for proof—well, take a look at Bob Shawkey just now. His smile is more pronounced on days when he names Sharlie Ruffing or Roy Sherid as his pitching selection.

For the first time this season, Bob the Gob can discuss Yankee pitching without a scowl. Happenings during the past few series' have made a change in the Yankee pilot. He even sees better days ahead.

Ruffing and Sherid are the tonic that has caused the Shawkey features to crack. They were relief pitchers only a few weeks ago. Today they are starring pitchers who have displayed a talent for dishing up nine innings of winning baseball.

THEY'RE EFFECTIVE

Sherid was a great prospect when the Yanks acquired him right out of college in 1928. They optioned him to Montreal, where he pitched 34 games that year, winning 15 and dropping seven. The Yanks recalled him last year and although he worked in 33 games, he toiled only 160 innings for an even .500 percentage that entailed six wins and six losses. Recent averages showed Sherid's efforts at five and five, but the part that pleases Mr. Shawkey is the effectiveness of the tall right-hander in the more recent games. He's a starting pitcher now.

Since Ruffing came into the American league in 1926 with the Red Sox, the big blond right-hander never has completed a season with his head above the .500 mark. In spite of his inability to win games, which can be attributed largely to the fact that he pitched for a tail-end club, Charlie held the

by DENNY SHUTE

Many golfers go stale. They play so many exhibits and tournaments that after a while they get sick of playing golf.

It's just like going to the movies. If you go once in a while, you enjoy them all, but go every day and soon you'll get to the point where you never want to see one again.

I've had a lot of people ask me if Walter Hagen is through as a big tournament winner. I can answer that quickly. I don't think he is.

Out in California during the tournaments there, he was hitting longer wood shots than I'd ever seen him hit before in his life. His trouble was on the short shots to the green and his putts.

I guess everybody knows that Walter Hagen is one of the most deadly golf players around the green who ever lived. Take that away from his game and he's lost. He's just stale from too much golf. But he'll be back up there.

Most of the time out in California, Horton Smith wasn't getting on the greens in par figures. And he wasn't sinking those 15 and 20 footers like he did last year. Ordinarily, Smith is noted for his straightness and distance off the tee and for his accurate putting. Too much golf made his strong points weak. He'll come back—and so will Hagen. Johnny Farrell is another in the same boat.

After I had won the Los Angeles and Texas opens, I traveled 1250 miles home for a three weeks' vacation. I was fed up on golf; I was homesick and I had lost 20 pounds. Even though I was quitting just after winning, I decided to take a vacation. I was afraid that if I didn't I'd get way off my game.

YANKS, FRENCH BREAK EVEN IN SINGLES PLAY

PARIS, July 25.—The United States and France got away to an even start in challenge round play for the historical Davis cup today.

William T. Tilden II, defeated Jean Borotra in singles, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, but Henri Cochet evened matters for France by meating George Lott, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Fought before crowded stands in the Roland Garros stadium, the day's matches resulted quite as the tennis experts had predicted and left the issue—the possible return of the Davis cup to the United States—still very much in doubt.

In the doubles match tomorrow, Wilber Allison and John Van Ryn will play Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon at 3 p. m.

Cochet to Play Doubles

The presence of Cochet in the doubles lineup for France indicates that little Henri is at his best and that the French will make a bold effort to add another point in defense of the cup.

Two more singles matches will follow Sunday with Tilden meeting Cochet and Lott facing Borotha.

The original plan has been for France to play Christian Boussus as Brugnon's partner in the doubles, providing an even break was obtained on the first day. The team of Allison and Van Ryn is regarded as virtually certain of victory.

Lott Is Outclassed

Cochet, on whose slender shoulders rest the chief hopes of the French, was superb in his victory over Lott and apparently sought to finish off the match as quickly as possible so to to rest up for his doubles effort. He extended himself in the third set and quickly ran it out, scoring ten placements to three for the Chicago boy.

Tilden was well off his game when play started, but improved as the contest wore on. He won five consecutive games in the third set after having trailed Borotra by two games to five.

The referee called a game point against Tilden who protested that he was not ready to play. This ruling made Tilden angry, just as similar adverse decisions have annoyed him in the past, and he uncovered his old clashing, slashing attack.

MISS CRUICKSHANK IS DOUBLES VICTOR

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 25.—For the first time in its history the annual Essex Country club women's invitation singles tennis tournament was won by an Easterner today.

Marjorie Morrill of Dedham, seeded seventh, decisively defeated Marjorie Gladman of Santa Monica, Calif., the sixth seeded player, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2.

Results of quarter-final doubles matches included:

Semi-finals of the doubles were scheduled for this afternoon.

LEMON IN BIG BOUT WITH BENNY MILLER

HOLLYWOOD, July 25.—Benny Miller, Hebrew welter sensation, will meet Romeo Lemon in the 10-round main event at the Legion stadium here tonight. Miller was favored to win because of his past performances, but Lemon's record indicated he will not be a setup.

THEY KNOW THEIR FOOTBALL

Alumni of Notre Dame university, most of them football stars in their undergraduate days, now find employment as grid coaches in more than 50 universities, colleges and schools in the United States.

HE SHOULD BE SOME TACKLE

Primo Carnera has not enrolled at Notre Dame but his barnstorming tour recently took him into South Bend, Ind., the home of these Fighting Irish—Savoldi, Carideo, Schwartz and some others. Carnera expressed a desire to come back next fall and play tackle for Rockne. "Smash 'em" Joe Savoldi, left, stocky fullback of the 1929 championship eleven, greeted Carnera and his French manager, Leon See, right.

REESE BOXES RINGS AROUND CHAVEZ, WINS DECISIVELY IN DELHI "GRUDGE FIGHT"

"How can you hit 'em when you can't see em?" they used to ask in the One-Old-Cat league, when "Skinny" Smith whistled his fast one down the grove.

"How can you hit 'em when you can't see 'em?" echoed Zenaydo Chavez today, as he gathered together the fragments of a far-flung reputation as a "knockerout" that was smashed to smithereens at the Orange County Athletic club last night by a boxing wraith—Joe Reese, by name.

He won six of the ten rounds. Two were even. Chavez got the others by narrow margins.

This fellow Reese is naive. He believes the only way to become a successful boxer is to fight, and the only way to spurn a defense is to hit your opponent first. In other words, this fellow really wants to fight. So what can you do with a guy like that?

Nothing.

That is exactly what Chavez did—nothing.

Reese simply demoralized Chavez with an attack as nicely planned and as well executed as you might expect of a champion.

By a simple but effective expedient of hitting Chavez before Chavez hit him, Reese won the fight. He won it as deliberately and as decisively as it could have been won by a dancing master, a "powder puff puncher.

He smothered Zenaydo with lefts, showered him with rights. He moved in and out, jabbing to the body, stabbing to the face.

In the early rounds he showed a wholesome respect for Chavez's vaunted right—the hand that is supposed to rock them to sleep.

Toward the end he didn't even worry about that.

He mixed freely with Chavez in the last two rounds, even too recklessly in the tenth. Chavez almost knocked him through the ropes with his only punch of the fight, which, at that, was half a shove. This was the only weakness in the whole Reese plan. He had the decision in the hollow of his hand and he took a fool chance when he slugged with Chavez in the last heat.

One of those wild Chavez rights—wild as they were—might have undressed him, and then Joe would have looked like a sucker, instead of a champion.

As a fight it wasn't much of a fight. It was too monotonously one-sided.

The second was even but only in

Thursday—Pacific Telephone company vs. Auto Club of Orange County, 6:45 p. m.; Dennis Printers vs. Builders' exchange, 8:15 p. m. (play-off game).

"Bomo" Koral, former relief pitcher for the Stars, made an auspicious entry into the Santa Ana City league last night.

Toiling on the knoll for the Eastern Oil company, Koral let down the Orange County Builders' exchange with three measly hits, two of them bunts, while the Easterns were winning, 3 to 1.

Ray Griset hurled well enough to win the average game but the Oilers bunched hits on him in the first two innings to make al ltheir runs.

Koral's puzzling floaters had the Builders striking out or popping out feebly throughout the entire contest. Griset got two of the hits, Joe Harless the other.

La Habra, Whittier In Mix Tonight

NATIONAL NIGHT LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Santa Ana	9	1	.900
La Habra	8	3	.727
Anaheim	7	4	.636
Whittier	7	4	.636

Garden Grove	5	5	.500
Olive	4	7	.364
Fullerton	3	7	.300
Huntington Beach	2	8	.200
Orange	1	9	.100

Santa Ana and Anaheim will not out on the only night baseball "natural" tonight.

There will be a lot of shootin' up Whittier way, too, because it is there that La Habra's Violet Rays, chief contender for the championship which Santa Ana seems to have fairly well in hand, go to meet the powerful Quakers, champions of the first half of the split season.

With Chico Sabela and Lloyd Johnson billed to pitch, the outcome is regarded as a tossup.

If Whittier beats La Habra and Santa Ana wins from Anaheim, the Stars will virtually cinch the second half pennant. In that case they would be three ful games ahead of the field with only six more to play.

MAY HOLES TEE SHOT ON NO. 6 AT GOLF CLUB

If holes-in-one chase the blues away there should be a lot of happiness today around the Santa Ana Country club where Arthur A. May, local tractor dealer, made an ace on the 175-yard No. 6 yesterday.

It was the seventh hole-in-one made on the Newport boulevard course this year and the twenty-first recorded since the club opened five years ago.

R. C. McMillan, W. C. Pixley and J. Leabey were playing in a foursome with May and attested his card which will bring the former University of Nebraska track star a case of ginger ale, a dozen golf balls and numerous other nationally advertised merchandise.

May used a spoon. He was playing with one of the new and larger golf balls. His drive landed on the edge of the green, hopped several times and then rolled directly itno the cup without even touching the flag pin.

May's hole-in-one only added to the remarkable record established at the Santa Ana club, a mark many believe has never been equalled anywhere in the world. Twenty-one aces in five years is an average of more than four a year. Members have maintained an average of better than one a month since the first of the current year.

The hole-in-one makers, in order, are George B. Shattuck, District Attorney Z. B. West jr., A. W. Rutan, C. E. Parker, M. B. Lacy, Miss Enid Twist, Roland E. Dye, Paul Williams, Warren Fletcher, J. S. Warner (twice), Van Pomeroy, George A. Parker, B. V. Curry, Eugene Fenelon, Lawrence W. Bemis, Gordon Talbert, Judge G. K. Scovel, E. K. Gerhardt and A. A. May.

In addition to his official ace, J. S. Warner, a southpaw, made an unattested hole-in-one. He made it while playing alone.

FAVOR PERKINS IN WESTERN AMATEUR

CHICAGO, July 25.—While the defending champion merely stayed around to watch the play, T. Philip Perkins, bespectacled Englishman, assumed the role of popular favorite as the Western amateur tournament went into the semi-final round today.

The 1929 titleholder, Don Moe, Portland, Ore., was eliminated by Johnny Lehman, the angular Chicagoan, one up in a gruelling 37-hole match yesterday.

With Perkins as the suvivors were Lehman, Ira Couch, Chicago, and Bob McCrary, Des Moines, Ia., who twice has won the trans-Mississippi championship.

Lehman was to meet Perkins in a 36-hole match today. McCrary was to battle Couch.

ALWAYS A WINNER

CORNELIUS, BUSHMAN DUE FOR MOUND ASSIGNMENTS; SCHUCHARDT JOINS ENEMY

Night baseball's round-robin reaches the bursting point at Anaheim tonight. We shall know all—everything—within a few hours.

Santa Ana and Anaheim, bitterest antagonists of incandescent sport, come to grips at 8 o'clock. It will be their fourth and final set-to of a baseball season that has fanned into flame a smouldering fire of intense rivalry.

As usual when these two teams meet, there is no way of knowing what will occur. Anything may—and probably will happen.

If the Stars of Santa Ana win they will all but cinch the second half championship of the National Night league.

If Anaheim wins, Santa Ana still will be ahead of the pack but there will be general tightening around the baseball wheel and La Habra, Whittier and Long Beach, as well as Anaheim and Santa Ana, will have a chance to sneak up to the wire first.

Iron Man Joe ("McGinnity") Cornelius, rugged, nonchalant ace of Manager Herb Salveson's somewhat limited pitching staff, will fire 'em over for the Stars.

Al Bushman will work for George Pace's Valencias, according to word from Anaheim. Joe Ochoa is a possible starter, however.

Cornelius has two victories to his credit over Anaheim already this year. The last time he faced the Pacemen he cowed them with three hits while pitching a shut-out game that was a credit to the masters.

Bushman, a husky youngster with lots of natural ability, is usually effective against Santa Ana, although the Stars knocked him out of the box on one occasion this semester. He is inclined to bad innings, especially if things break badly for him, and the Stars' best chance appears to be to get to him early. Olive made ten runs off Bushman in the second inning Tuesday.

Orville Schuchardt, stormy petrel of a recent quarrel between Santa Ana and Anaheim baseball and civic officials, will be in an

Anaheim unie for the first time tonight.

Pace is sure to send him to center field. Schuchardt also is likely to head the batting order.

Schuchardt "jumped" the Santa Ana team of which he was an outstanding star when he was given employment at the Anaheim city plunge. He said he had been promised a position here but did not get it.

Schuchardt is sure to be of great help to Anaheim. There is no outfielder in night ball who can go and get 'em like this fleet southpaw, a wonderful judge of a fly ball. He also is a fine bunter and a dangerous straightaway hitter.

Otherwise the managers are expected to stick wit hthe lineups they have been using most of the year.

The young veteran, "Eeny" Wilcox, will be Cornelius' batterymate as usual.

Salveson said he would use Curt Youel at first base, Leavitt Daley at second, Darwin Scott at third and "Memphis" Hill at short. Randolph Bell will be in left field, Wayne Nelson in center and "Rosy" Merrill in right.

Pace plans to use Bill Bushman behind the log, Lou Schrott at first base, George Preble at second, Phil Schroot at third and either Murry, a former Garden Grove "B" league star, or "Doc" Blakely at shortstop. Max Moody, Schuchardt and either "Cy" Mann or Rockwell will be in the outfield.

Anaheim's seating capacity is limited and an overflow crowd is certain to overrun the city park diamond.

Three hundred tickets for reserved seats were put on sale here today at 8 o'clock and they were all gone before 9 o'clock.

Fans who lost out on these will be able to break their way into temporary bleachers that have been installed along the first and third base lines, however. Admission to these sections will be a nominal sum.

Mack House Beats Wiggins Decisively

PASADENA, July 25. — Mack House, colored light heavyweight, won the acclaim of fans here last night by his victory over "Chuck" Wiggins, veteran Indianapolis fighter. Mack won in impressive style and had Wiggins down on four different occasions.

White's opinion. Reese really had an edge.

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh were all Reese rounds by decisive margins.

Chavez snapped out of it in the eighth. A few good body blows gave him the round by a slight margin. The ninth was even. Chavez won the tenth.

Reese got off his bicycle in the last three rounds and punched with his countryman. He might have lost had he fought 10 rounds that way. Chavez always looks best when the boys trade with him.

Hereafter Chavez should confine his attention to slow-moving targets. He is too slow afoot and too wild and erratic with his punching to meet clever fellows like Reese.

Proving himself of main-event caliber, Urban Hernandez, young Placentia Mexican lightweight, put on a Wykoff finish to beat veteran Frankie Boldt in the semi. Boldt got the jump and was out in front at the halfway mark, but Hernandez had the most steam. Boldt was out on his feet at the end after making a good match of it.

This was the best fight of the night. Properly matched, Hernandez has as much right on top of a card as Chavez, Reese or Macias.

"Spike" Harvey, a college welterweight, decisively defeated Mickey Thomas in a six-round special event that was lukewarm for four rounds. Harvey had Thomas in a bad way in the fifth and sixth, particularly the last one. Mickey's "cauliflowers" were all in bloom.

Leading too much with his chin, Cliff Burrier made a miserable showing against Indian Kid Crow, a substitute for Packy McMullen. Crow won every round, completely outboxing the rugged Cliff who absorbed a lot of unnecessary punishment.

Ralph Garcia and Carl Seibel fought a great draw in the first bout. Garcia looked better until Seibel dropped him in the third and had him on the verge of a knockout.

The house was comfortably filled, and must have made Promoter H. T. Foust some money.

PITCHER WINS OWN GAME WITH BASEHIT

Pitcher Hodginson won his own game with a tenth inning single when Garden Grove nosed out Orange, 6 to 5, in an Orange County "B" league baseball game at Orange last night.

Umphress opened the extra inning with a single, took second on Arkley's sacrifice and scored on Hodginson's single.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Gard. Grove 010 103 000 1	6	8	3

respect of American league batters. He was wild, it is true, but he had something on the ball and kicked up quite a lot of trouble any time he took the mound. Proof of that lies in his record of 426 strikeouts in 177 games over a period of five years.

Yankee efforts to get Ruffing in a trade with Boston were unsuccessful until this semester. The late Miller Huggins always liked Charlie's twirling but never could make his offer look attractive enough to the Red Sox owners.

• • •

CHARLIE HITS, TOO

Ruffing met his ups and downs even after he donned Yankee spangles. Shawkey employed him during the first few weeks mainly as a relief hurler. Then he reached his stride, both in pitching and batting. Latest averages showed Ruffing enjoying a winning percentage for a change, with a record of strikeouts surpassed by only a few. His batting average was the nifty figure of .365, a sizeable average for a moundsman.

Not many critics are figuring the Yankees as pennant winners this year. As it stands now, however, the classy pitching dispensed by Sherid and Ruffing makes them bang-up opposition for the Mackmen or the Senators on any given afternoon.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Johnny Evers, once great Cub infielder now scouting for the Braves, says there are no wonderful prospects in the sticks this season.... Johnny declares most of the young hopefuls need at least two or three years in which to ripen..He thinks the minors are paying the kids too much money.."I can name hundreds of youngsters making more money in the bushes than some of the stars in my day," declares the Braves' scout..Johnny Kling, another fellow who, like Evers, helped the Cubs win pennant years ago, makes golf his hobby today.."I'd rather play a round of golf than watch a ball game," says the Cubs' old backstop—He hits the low 80's for an 18..and once in a while comes in in the 70's..Kling is 54 and plenty active..Besides his golf, Johnny runs his billiard hall, hotel, manages a theater and inspects his farm..He has a sackful of dollars laid away for a leisurely tour of Europe with his wife and two daughters this fall.

The Macmillan "more mileage" guarantee is made possible by the "Boner-Campbell process" of manufacture, recently developed by the Macmillan Petroleum Corporation and owned exclusively by this company.

PEOPLE said..."there is nothing new under the sun"... but astronomers discovered a new planet. People said... "All gasolines are alike"... but chemists of the Macmillan laboratories discovered a process of refinement that is revolutionary in its nature . . . a process that turns topsy-turvy many of the old theories and established methods of manufacture. It is protected from infringement by full patent rights. By this method certain desirable elements, lost in the ordinary processes of refining, are retained.

You as the owner of a motor car are not interested in the technical chemistry of this process. But you are interested in its results.

...a clean, crystal clear, odorless gasoline, free of carbon causing elements. A gasoline that starts quickly in cold weather as well as warm..¶provides quick pick-up and 12 per cent greater power..¶is guaranteed to give more mileage than any gasoline you ever used, or your money back. ¶ In short, this exclusive Macmillan process of manufacture gives you in Macmillan gasoline a combination heretofore thought impossible to obtain . . . quick starting, maximum power and greater mileage (guaranteed). Proof is waiting for you at Macmillan pumps, or your money will be refunded.

TWO GIRLS SIT FOR RECORD ON TOP OF GARAGE

MIDWAY CITY, July 25.—Other towns throughout the country are put onto the map by their "flag pole" sitters, tree sitters, etc., but it has been left for Midway City to have its "garage" sitters.

Two little girls, Doris Gorrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert M. Gorrell, local postmaster and pharmacist and Mrs. Gorrell, and Marjorie Field, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keller, are those who aspired to be winners in the new form of sport. Both girls are 10 years of age and are of those who have eagerly kept up with record breaking events of sky and earth since these became the rage of the day. So on Monday afternoon the two little girls took to the roof of the Keller garage at 200 Adams street, taking with them their beds with the firm intention of not coming off their chosen site until they considered they had won a record.

All went well until along in the middle of the night when parental fear for the safety of the children won out over the determination of the little girls to stay and they were taken from the room. Not to be outdone on their first "marathon" the girls climbed back upon their perch at an early hour the next morning and there they stay until about the middle of each night when they are bodily removed by their respective parents.

The girls are bound to make a "daylight" record if not possible to make a continuous one, so anyone passing along Adams street, Midway City, and seeing two young girls perched upon a garage may know they are Midway City's aspirants to the breaking of the "garage" sitting record.

Separate Junior College Favored By Chamber Heads

DIRECTORS IN OPPOSITION TO CENTRAL PLANT

FULLERTON, July 25. — The board of directors of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce went on record as favoring a northern Orange county junior college as opposed to a county college, at the weekly meeting of the board at McFarland's cafe yesterday. The vote was unanimous.

"Politics or education" was the challenge hurled before the directors with the junior college as the issue by J. A. Prizer, chairman of the Fullerton union high school board of trustees.

Following a discussion and talks by Prizer and Albert Launer, also of the school board, the directors passed the following resolution:

"Whereas the recent census shows a population in the northern part of Orange county sufficient to fill the present junior college to capacity.

"Be it resolved that the directors of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce hereby place themselves as definitely on record for a northern Orange county junior college as a separate campus located to best serve all northern districts."

Attacks Survey

In commenting on the meeting of Fullerton and Santa Ana junior college trustees at the county seat Tuesday night, Prizer declared that the information was generally conveyed that the session was called for the purpose of discussing a county junior college move, and that the proposed survey was intended to further the program.

"I went to Santa Ana for this purpose of discussing junior college problems and not with the idea of talking over the county junior college, as was indicated," Prizer said.

"It was my opinion that the action of the Santa Ana board was all prepared in advance and rushed through to gain the survey and that it is their hope and recommendation that when this work is completed the data may be used to force the county junior college, indicating that such an institution should be placed in the Santa Ana district.

"Santa Ana has everything to gain and nothing to lose by such a project. That gang and the Associated Chambers of Commerce have consistently fought for one our junior college from us only by junior college, but they can take a process of eliminating revenue such as by taking Anaheim and all junior college district and leaving the rest of the county into one the Fullerton union district with not enough students to support the school.

Politics Claimed

"I think they are trying to jam the thing down our throats and we are in no hurry for it. This survey is obviously to be used to halt friendly interest toward a northern Orange county junior college and to favor a county junior college. I have no objections to getting the information desired, but I object to the way it is being put across. I am in the minority in both boards and I may be wrong. I think it is largely politics. Why can't we wait for six weeks until after election before going ahead with such a plan."

Albert Launer spoke briefly in commenting on the survey, declaring that he believed the survey would provide information of value on which to base a decision in the junior college matter.

"I have no fear of Santa Ana's domination," he said. "I feel that that we should have the question of one or two junior colleges settled definitely. We want the survey with its benefit of impartial advice and facts on the junior college situation. For that reason we have merely asked the supervisors to make the survey, believing the expenditure of the six or seven thousand dollars necessary will be justified before we spend money for new buildings or changes."

CHAMBERS MEET TUESDAY

LOS ALAMITOS, July 25.—The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county will meet at the Woman's Improvement clubhouse for a dinner Tuesday night which will be served by the Aid Society of Community church.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS

The American Gold Star mothers have aroused widespread admiration while on their pilgrimage to their sons' graves in France. Each group, while in Paris, pays homage at the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier. Here you see a typical group of Gold Star mothers placing wreaths on the tomb.

PHOTOGRAPHERS IN ANAHEIM GATHERING

The Photographers' Association of Orange county met last night at Anaheim park for a pot luck dinner. At the beginning of the dinner, a large cake was given to Miss Mary Smart, of Santa Ana, in observance of her birthday.

Following dinner, the group repaired to the Betzold studios for a business session. Each photographer, commercial and portrait, presented a picture for judging as to lighting, retouching, composition and technique.

Miss Smart won first prize for portrait work and Clifford Green first and second for commercial photography. Mrs. Betzold was awarded second prize in the portrait contest.

At conclusion of the business session ice cream and the birthday cake were served.

FIRE BURNS HILLSIDE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 25.—Dan Mulherron's tractor was held to rest on a hill just east of town the other night. Early in the morning, some time shortly after midnight, some one visited the tractor, drained all the gas in the tank and in some way set fire to the grass. Before morning the whole hillside was burned.

Orange Will Join Parade for Santa Ana Thoroughfare

ORANGE, July 25.—City officials, and prominent citizens of Orange take part in the celebration of the opening of the Santa Ana boulevard Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, it was announced here yesterday by V. D. Johnson at the meeting of the Rotary club.

A number of the 150 cars which it is expected will be seen in the parade, will be entered by Orange. The parade will form at the most northern point of the new highway .

Automobiles will be decorated, it was said. Following in order will be cars from Orange, Garden Grove, Anaheim, Buena Park, Fullerton, La Habra, San Juan Capistrano, San Clemente, Dana Point, Laguna Beach, Newport and Balboa, Huntington Beach, Seal Beach, Sunset Beach, Milway City, Cypress, Westminster and ending with cars entered by the Manchester Avenue association.

TALKS ON AVIATION

BUENA PARK, July 25.—"The Safety and Principles Involved in Aviation as a Means of Commercial Transportation" was the topic of an address given by Frank W. Hainey, representative of the Western Air Express, before the Buena Park Kiwanis club meeting, Tuesday evening in the Woman's clubhouse. Henry Schmitz was program chairman for the evening. Archie Raitt, northern Orange county Y. M. C. A. secretary and son Walter, of Fullerton, were special guests.

STATE PLAN OF FINANCING HELD COUNTIES' NEED

BY ELWOOD SQUIRES
United Press Correspondent

California counties eventually will b eforced into a plan for financing public constructions much like that used by the state, in opinion of state officials.

Bond issues are now used almost exclusively by counties in this construction work, with heavy interest burdens placed on future generations, it is pointed out.

In Orange county, $5,022,000 in bonded indebtedness is now outstanding, requiring interest payments of $275,152 each year, according to a report compiled by State Controller Ray L. Riley.

The state some time ago adopted what is known as a "10 year building program." Under this plan all improvements are figured ahead, estimating year by year what the increase in prison, institution, and educational populations will be and how much will be needed by these various units of the government for new construction.

Each year a certain definite project is started and completed, with funds made available through the longtime planning.

Although state officials admit that counties have a somewhat different problem, they contend that the scheme could be used with modifications to cut down the burden of bond indebtedness now being carried by taxpayers.

Careful estimates should be made for example, in the growth of a county hospital. Additions to take care of this increase can then be constructed as needed from current funds, with no necessity for sudden outlays after an institution has become so overcrowded that an urgency exists.

Schools should also be studied, to determine usability of present buildings and an estimate of the date of obsolescence of each. Such a study would indicate the manner for developing each school gradually as finances permit. County authorities too often no wsuddenly discover woefully overcrowded conditions and an immediate need for new buildings, which under the present system must be met by a bond issue.

WILL PRESENT RECITAL

LAGUNA BEACH, July 25.—The students of Mrs. Wilma Kammeyer Thompson will give an expression recital in the Community Presbyterian church Saturday, July 26. This is the closing one of the season, classes going on vacation until September. Those who will appear Saturday are: Maurine Jones, Nevalle Ropp, Verda Mackey, Janell Nolan, June Lighthart, Marian Bennett, Marjory Blakeney, Beverly Wilbur, Margaret Wilbur, Helen Parry, Marian Parry, Janese Browne, Bobby Cook, Patsy Snyder, Beryl Warren and Gail Palmer.

MEEK TO GIVE HIGHWAY TALK IN YORBA LINDA

B. B. Meek, state director of public works, is expected to be present at the meeting of the Imperial Highway association to be held at Yorba Linda this evening and a large delegation will be present from El Centro.

George Kellogg, of Yorba Linda, secretary of the association, who has returned from a camping trip over various roads suggested for the eastern end of the "cannonball" route, will tell about these various roads.

The first road inspected was east of Corona and this was found to be a steep grade. The Beaumont cutoff on the Riverside-Beaumont road over the Morena grade was then gone over, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg went to Hemet and made an inspection of the route over the San Jacinto mountains.

They went up the Idyllwild grade and beyond Lake Hemet to Vandeventer Flats. This road, to two miles east of Keen camp, is a high gear road and has been completed by Riverside county with prison labor. It is expected that it will be completed to Indio by October, 1931.

Going back to Hemet, they went over St. John's grade to the junction with the Temecula road and doubled back to Temecula, covering the road as far as the junction with the inland route of the state highway. Kellogg states that very little improvement work has been done by Riverside county on these country roads and that their condition is extremely poor.

Going from Aguanga to Warner's Hot Springs, San Diego county, was entered, and the roads were found to be of decomposed granite, well cared for, and a speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour could be maintained, while in Riverside county it was not possible to average 20 miles per hour.

Going on to Sentenac canyon, the road through The Narrows to Kane Springs was found to be improved as far as Kane Springs, where the old road will be abandoned and a new road will be built to the valley at a cost of $100,000 to Imperial county. Because of a lack of funds it is expected that it will take five years to complete this road.

Coming back home Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg took the usual route through Banning, over the Moreno grade to Riverside, and made the trip home in six hours running time. The proposed route through Warners Hot Springs and down San Felipe valley will cut 15 miles from the trip, besides providing a road of great scenic beauty.

LARGEST CABIN SHIP

DR. V. A. WOOD RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

ORANGE, July 25.—Dr. V. A. Wood and family, returned yesterday from a trip to the middle west where Wood has property interests. At Sioux Falls, S. Dak., business conditions are the best he observed on his trip, the local dentist says. He attributes the flourishing condition of that vicinity to the fact that the greater number of people around the city own their own farms. Crops are very good in this part of South Dakota, he says.

OFFER $15,000 IN PRIZES FOR FAIR EXHIBITS

A chance for women and girls of Santa Ana to earn part of more than $15,000 in cash prizes is offered in the domestic art and domestic science department of the state fair August 30 to September 7.

The whole range of housewife handicraft is covered by the prizes—from china painting to cake and bread baking, according to Charles W. Paine, secretary-manager of the exposition.

Bridge Club Members Bidden to Meet House-Guest

That charming and hospitable home, the Harry Spencer residence on North Park boulevard, was the setting for a pleasant affair of Wednesday, when Mrs. Spencer was hostess to her bridge club and presided over an attractively appointed luncheon. Members were delighted with the opportunity of meeting the guest of the home, Mrs. R. C. Troeger of Los Angeles.

The inviting menu was served at the dining table, spread with exquisite ecru lace over deep rose hues. Tapers and candle holders in pink and green added their colorful note, as did the cluster of mixed blossoms which centered the table.

Bridge was the afternoon diversion, and prize awards were made to Mrs. Howard Stone, holder of high score; Mrs. Fred Catlin, second high, and to Mrs. J. L. Allen, who held high score among the guests.

Club members present other than the hostess, Mrs. Spencer, were Mesdames F. E. Museus, S. Jones, Fred Catlin, C. H. Overstolz, La Vern Katz, Howard Stone and James D. Farrage; while guests were Mrs. George Catlin, Mrs. J. L. Allen, Mrs. Ward Lindley and Mrs. R. C. Troeger, of Los Angeles.

Miss Ruth Davis Wins Master's Degree

Returning this week from New York, where she has been attending Columbia University for the past year, Miss Ruth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis of 1316 Cypress avenue, is receiving congratulations from her many friends, occasioned by her having just obtained her Masters degree from the Teachers' college of that institution.

Miss Davis will remain in this city until about the first of September, at which time she will go by train to Columbia, Mo., where she will be on the teaching staff of the athletic department of Missouri. She has a host of friends in this city, where she has lived for a number of years. Graduating from Santa Ana high school, she began her advanced studies in the local junior college, and continued them at the University of California at Berkeley, later entering Columbia University.

Messrs. Fred Hein and Albert ("Charley") Blower lent their aid in planning the festivity down to the last detail, and in seeing that Miss Beemer and Mr. Walworth arrived according to schedule.

The honored guests are to be wedded at high noon on Thursday, July 31, and the few days remaining before the nuptials, are being crowded with just such pleasant affairs as the garden party. In recognition of the approaching wedding date, the guest group joined in presenting a handsome bridge lamp to the happy couple, with Lloyd Smith making the presentation talk.

Sharing the hospitality with the host group, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hein, Miss Frances Hein and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hein, were their honor guests, Miss Beemer and Mr. Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Caldwell, the Misses Irene Blower, Julia Nissen, Frances Knudson, Eleanor Guyer, Ruth Beemer, Pearl Jaggers, Ada Falkner and Elizabeth Gilmour, and Messrs. Lloyd Smith, Frank Humphrey, Victor Morrison, Millard Beemer, Elbert Blower, Albert Blower, Wallace Miller and Huestis Snow.

Flying Needle Group Welcomes Return Of Member

Yesterday's meeting of the Flying Needle club with Mrs. Clara Belle Barnes as hostess in her home at 1114 South Birch street, was one which the members had long been awaiting in anticipation of greeting one of their number, Mrs. Nettie J. Bergendorff, who has just returned from her mission overseas as a Gold Star mother. She seemed as delighted about her return as did the club members, and was very entertaining as she told some of her interesting and impressive experiences, illustrating many of them with pictures.

A delectable luncheon was served at noon on card tables spread with attractive linens, and provided a delightful intermission for the needle workers. In the afternoon they continued with their dainty handwork, and Mrs. Adolph Erickson received the hostess prize of the day, a charming vase.

Guests present were Mrs. Ruia Hampton and Mrs. L. A. Hampton, of Fullerton, who will be co-hostesses in entertaining the club members at their next session.

Members present other than the hostess, Mrs. Clara Belle Barnes, were Mesdames Erroll Barnes, William Kintz, Delbert Johnson, Barnard Snee, Frank Brown, Adolph Erickson, Nettie Bergendorff, and Miss Verena Bailey.

Church Group Honors Natal Day of Pastor

Members of the Orange Avenue Christian church succeeded in honoring their pastor, the Rev. C. F. Martin, of 2213 North Main street, with a delightful surprise party, recently, when they urged him to attend a board meeting which, they explained, was to be held in the church. On arriving, the Rev. Mr. Martin discovered that about 50 members of his congregation were awaiting the opportunity to wish him a happy birthday.

The evening hours flew by as the merry group indulged in various games and contests, and the most interesting event of all took place when the honor guest was presented with a purse containing quite a sum of money. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at a late hour.

Card Club Guest Plans Party As Return Hospitality

Entertained so frequently by members of the Friendly Neighborhood Card club of French street, that she has sometimes been accorded the title of "official substitute," Mrs. L. L. Beeman (Estelle Card Beeman) paid a graceful compliment to her friends of the club, by inviting them to accept her hospitality in return, extended in the form of a charmingly informal little evening party in her home, 910 French street.

That pleasant California courtesy of sending flowers to hostesses, was observed in this case, by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Smith, who culled choice gladioluses and dahlias from the extensive gardens of their ranch east of the city, and sent them to Mrs. Beeman to deck her home for the event. While the blossoms represented all the lovely flower hues of the summer season, pink and yellow tones predominated, establishing the decorative motif for the evening.

In the bridge session the prizes were awarded Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Arthur Lyon, formerly Mrs. Grace Zaiser, and also one of the club's favorite substitutes.

As the evening drew to a close, Mrs. Beeman spread her tables with dainty linens for serving refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Gay Engagement Party Given For Friends Of Young Couple

Flowers in white and pale pink were used with much graceful greenery to give a festive aspect to the home, and in the living room a large arch was wound with flowers and festooned with vegetables to provide setting for a mock wedding. The ceremony gave a world of entertainment to the guests with its mirth-provoking features.

Additional entertainment was given by a series of games, while musical numbers by Mrs. Moody Schrock, Mrs. Basil Mark, little Margie Lee Buck and Donna Jean Buck were followed by a humorous reading by Mrs. C. D. Hicks and an original poem by Miss Sallie Correll, relating the romance of Miss Jones and Mr. Best.

Late in the evening, Mrs. Jones added the final pleasant touch to the hospitality by serving a daintily arranged refreshment course to the guests who included in addition to the happy young honor guests, Miss Lorece Jones and Mr. Best, the Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Hicks, the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Marriot, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Marriot, Mr. and Mrs. Moody Schrock, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Mark, Mrs. Eva Greff, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Hottle.

Messrs. Wernith Bickel, Orville C. Hurd, Gaylord Hicks, Carl Rhinard, Merlon Hicks, Edward L. Kress, Arthur Hottle, Howard Barnes, Carlton Buck and David Marriot.

Domestic Arts Club Is Anticipating Picnic Affair

Adding to the pleasure of the recent meeting of the Domestic Arts club with Mrs. T. E. Williams of 926 Hickory street, was the fact that one of the members, Mrs. Charles L. Johnson, was able to be present after a long and serious illness from which she is slowly convalescing.

This little group, which has been meeting at semi-monthly intervals for a number of years, spent the usual busy and enjoyable afternoon with pieces of dainty needlework.

Plans were made for an equally happy time in two weeks, when the members will motor to Laguna Beach and enjoy the hospitality of the J. R. Mayer home on the Coast boulevard, with Mrs. Mayer (LaRue Fipps Mayer) as hostess. Each member will take some special dish to add to the menu of the covered dish dinner to be enjoyed.

To complete the hospitality of the afternoon, Mrs. Williams served refreshing pineapple ice with angel-food cake and iced tea, to her guests who included Mrs. Johnson, her daughter, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. C. F. Skirvin, Mrs. C. J. Skirvin, Mrs. W. B. Williams, Mrs. A. W. Gerrard, Mrs. E. G. Summers, Mrs. H. W. Leecing, Mrs. W. B. Martin and Mrs. T. P. Kingrey.

Informal Dinner Party Draws Close Friends In Congenial Group

That congenial spirit engendered when a small group of intimate friends is brought together around a dining table, was manifested last night when Dr. and Mrs. Cassius Paul entertained at dinner in their Wright street home, complimenting Mrs. William Weeks (Virginia Russell). Mrs. Weeks will leave at the end of the summer for her new home in the north where Mr. Weeks has already preceded her to enter upon his duties with a lumber company with headquarters in San Francisco.

Mrs. Paul had planned a Southern dinner menu for her guests, serving it at a table charmingly centered with flowers in French bouquet effect, their delicate hues harmonizing with the pattern of her dinner service and the colored crystal used.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Taylor jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Nell Stanley and Edward Miller of Long Beach, were the guests asked to complete the little circle with Dr. and Mrs. Paul and Mrs. Weeks. After a leisurely dinner the group concluded the evening with dancing at Balboa.

Mrs. Paul returned only recently from an extended stay in Forest Home where Dr. Paul joined her for the week ends in the pleasant cabin of the Dr. James E. Pauls. The mountain outings have also been varied by several weeks at nearby beaches.

Ebell Members Plan Benefit Bridge

As the summer season nears its climax, and people are returning from their vacation travels, Ebell members are beginning to anticipate two especially prominent events of the year, plans for both of which are well under way.

The first is the public benefit party for the Ebell day nursery which is to be held August 14 on the beautiful grounds of the T. F. Ham home at 2439 Heliotrope drive. Mrs. C. A. Bach, as chairman of the day nursery committee of Ebell society, has promised that this will be a most delightful affair which it is expected will draw a large crowd of Orange county women who are anxious to help the nursery through one of the most trying years it has experienced.

Always anticipated by nature lovers, is the Ebell Flower show given once a year, but the one scheduled for September 25 and 26 is expected to surpass any previous ones, as the entire club house is to be devoted to the exhibition. The members are uniting in their efforts to have their plans materialize.

Lovely Young Musician Wedded at Church Ceremony

Much interest has been aroused by announcement of the quiet marriage in Long Beach on Sunday, July 20, of Miss Ariel Thompson, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, 714 West Second street, and Clark Barr of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Barr, now of Medford, Ore., but formerly of Santa Ana.

The ceremony uniting the two young people, was a morning event taking place in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Long Beach, with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Tanbaum, officiating.

Miss Thompson was altogether charming in a demurely graceful gown of white georgette, with all dress accessories in bridal white. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Barr and the little group of guests, returned to this city where the wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson, 619 West Third street.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Riddelle of Dauphin, Manitoba; Mrs. William Snyder of Winnipeg, Canada; Mrs. Louise G. Stoneman, the Misses Alsa, Maxine and Vivian Thompson, Miss Gladys Stoneman and Chester Bratsch.

The happy young people left for a brief honeymoon, Mrs. Barr traveling in a smart costume of white wool crepe with black and white accessories. Their plans embrace taking the family home of the bride's parents on West Second street, while Mr. and Mrs. Thompson take a northern trip which will take them into Vancouver, B. C., and other points and from which they will not return until October.

Mr. Barr is a graduate of Tustin Union high school and of a local business college. His bride attended Polytechnic high school and later a business college of this city. She is a talented musician, and as a member of the Russell Thompson Hawaiian trio, has delighted many audiences in the community and won a large radio following by playing over Station KREG.

Lemon Heights Home Is Setting For Lively Party

Now that pajamas are becoming so universally popular for so many occasions, it was quite fitting that Miss Florence Ulrich should entertain with a pajama party, when she invited her most intimate friends to share the delights of her Lemon Heights home last evening. The long living room of the home was a veritable flower garden, with its innumerable bowls and masses of gladioluses, spicy carnations, zinnias, marigolds, fragrant rosebuds and dahlias, garnered from the pretty Ulrich gardens.

Cootie was enjoyed early in the evening, for which first prize was awarded Miss Ramona Smith, while Miss Lola Christie received consolation. Other clever and amusing games followed, with dancing as a variation. By special request Miss June Arnold entertained with a most amusing reading, which which was a take-off on "Romeo and Juliet." Fortunes by cards were effectively told by Miss June Arnold, until the wee hours of the morning when refreshments carrying out the pink and white color scheme, were served. The girls then retired to their various assigned rooms and the affair resolved itself into a slumber party.

The happy event draw to a close this morning, with a prettily appointed breakfast, after which, the girls dispersed, several going to the beach.

Those present were the hostess, Miss Florence Ulrich, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. E. Ulrich, Miss Lola Christie, of Balboa; Miss Ramona Smith, Miss June Arnold, and Miss Zelma Beemer, of Santa Ana; Miss Lorain Comer and Miss Miriam Samuelson of Tustin.

Engaged Couple Honored at Party

In honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Zelma Beemer and Ray Walworth, which will be an event of next Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walworth entertained last evening in their ranch home on Lewis avenue, West Orange. Colorful nodding dahlias were used in profusion about the home. Bridge and five hundred were pleasant diversions of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Many lovely gifts to be used in the kitchen of their new home, were showered upon the young couple.

Those present to enjoy the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. James Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shirley, Mrs. J. J. Beemer, the Misses Ruth Beemer, Laura Morrow, Edna Kinsell, and Roddie Deull, Willard Fitch, J. D. McNutt, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walworth.

Cheese-Seasoned Dishes

A convenient quick way to prepare au gratin or escalloped dishes seasoned with cheese, is to use a package of cheese wafers, rolled fine. All the bother of grating cheese is gone, and if a crustier cheese top is desired, have on hand a package or two of grated Parmesan cheese.

A delicious luncheon dish can be quickly made by combining small quantities of cooked vegetables in a cup of cream sauce, arranging this mixture with alternate layers of crushed cheese wafer crumbs, the crumbs topping the dish. Ten minutes in a hot oven si all htat is necessary to add that delectable crusty brown that makes jaded appetites sit up and take new interest in life.

Another use I have found for these cheese wafer crumbs is in breading chicken, veal or pork chops for frying. The cheese flavor adds tremendously to any of the three mentioned meats. Single or double breading may be used, but I think for fried chicken the double breading method is better.

Dip the pieces of chicken in egg, then into the fine crumbs, place on waxed paper and allow to dry. Repeat the process just before the chicken is put to fry.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Fried Corn Omelette

(Six Portions)

12 ears green corn
3 eggs
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon sugar
1-4 cup thin cream
Butter to fry corn

Strip the husks and silk from the ears and with a sharp knife score down each row of kernels to release the milky pulp. Now, turn the back of the knife nad press the pulp out of the kernels, scraping part of the kernels along with the pulp. Have a small amount of melted butter in a small fry pan, gently saute the corn pulp, just enough to take away the raw taste, but at no time must it be allowed to brown.

Beat the eggs very light, add cream, salt and sugar. Combine with the sauted corn and make little omelettes the size of a large hot cake—two spoonfuls dropped into hot butter is enough for each omelette and they must be cooked and turned just as you would cook hot cakes. Roll up and serve on a hot platter garnished with curls of crisp bacon.

Don't they sound sum'shus? They are!

• • •

I don't know exactly how many little omelettes you can get out of this amount, but I do know that divided evenly between six people the individual calory total is a little less than 200. Proteins and fats account for most of the calories. Serve these omelettes in place of meat.

NOW "BOOTS" IS ALL SET FOR AFTERNOON OR EVENING

If "Boots" wants to just loaf around the house in the afternoon—or step out to rather an informal evening affair, you youngsters can help her dress for either occasion. Just cut out the dress at the left and fasten it to one of the figures of "Boots" we have recently given you. Then she's ready for casual afternoon callers. Or use the dress at the right and any of her buddies can call to take her to a friendly dance or party. Maybe the dresses would look better, if you'd color them with crayons. Another sketch of "Boots" and another dress tomorrow.

Well liked star, who plays his first western role in "Way Out West" which started a three-day run at the Fox Broadway theater today.

'GOOD INTENTIONS' DEALS WITH CROOK

A talkie with something of an underworld flavor, but radically different in theme and treatment from the usual gangster film, is offered in "Good Intentions," the Fox movietone production which closes at the Fox West Coast theater tonight.

The story, dealing with the troubles of a gentleman crook, who decides to retire and be respectable after having cleaned up a small fortune, is uniquely presented by a noteworthy group of players headed by Edmund Lowe and the various complications come in rapid succession and build up the audience's interest to a high pitch. Lowe's performance is remarkable both in spirit and execution and he manages to invest the character with much more sympathy than would seem possible.

Marguerite Churchill makes a charming heroine, and Regis Toomey gives a convincing portrayal of Lowe's rival in love. Hale Hamilton, Owen Davis jr., Earle Foxe, Eddie Gribbon, J. Carrol Naish, Georgia Caine, Henry Kolker and Pat Somerset all handle their roles in a pleasing way. William K. Howard not only wrote the original story but directed it as well, achieving a thoroughly entertaining picture.

KEN MAYNARD FILM AT STATE TONIGHT

"The Song of the Caballerro," all talking Vitaphone, starring Ken Maynard and his wonder horse, Tarzan, opens tonight at Walker's State theater.

It has breakneck horsemanship, stunts and plenty of action and Maynard followers are promised a fast moving yarn in a colorful setting.

Sequences in which Maynard rides three horses standing upon the backs of the outer two are particularly commendable.

'WAY OUT WEST' AT BROADWAY TONIGHT

William Haines' latest talking comedy, "Way Out West," opened today at the Fox Brodaway theater with a cast which includes Leila Hyams, Polly Moran, Cliff Edwards, Frances X. Bushman. The story, which is the work of Byron Morgan and Alfred Block, was directed by Fred Niblo and is the veteran director's first comedy in seven years.

The picture is adroitly named, part of it having been filmed on the famous Fort Tejon cattle ranch and the remainder in the Hopi Indian pueblo country near Gallup, New Mexico.

The picture is a howling farce which presents Haines as a carnival barker whose attempts at cheating a group of cowboys with a crooked roulette wheel land him on a Western ranch on the back of a bucking broncho. He becomes involved in a series of exciting escapades but beforce thep icture is over he proved that he can stand the gaff of the country where "men are men."

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

BOLSA

BOLSA, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth returned Sunday night from San Juan Hot springs where they were camping with Mrs. Farnsworth's cousin, Mrs. Bertha Gross of Los Angeles, who on Thursday will come to the Farnsworth home for a visit before terminating her vacation. Mrs. Farnsworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, will go that day to San Juan Hot springs to occupy the tent for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth also spent a night at Escondido with relatives during their vacation.

The Bolsa clubhouse has been rented to a man for the purpose of holding dances each Saturday evening so the card parties which have ordinarily been held on that evening have been cancelled. The first dance was held on last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pysden and children have returned from a motor vacation trip. They visited Oakland and San Rajhael and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garcia, formerly of this place, at Ventura and at several other points stopped with former Canadian friends.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Pysden and family were of a group composed of several Canalian families who were entertained at Wintersburg by Mr. and Mrs. Mills Cowling who were celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary.

Louis Walton is getting about with a cane this week as the result of injuries sustained when kicked by a cow at a dairy where he works.

Mrs. M. Shiffer will leave soon for Delta, Utah, where she will visit her children and their families. Mrs. Shiffer has received word of the birth of twins in the hcome of her son, Adam Shiffer and wife.

A police dog which was prized as a faithful watch dog and pet of the children of the Ralph Ross family was poisoned one night at the home. The dog was all right at bedtime the night before and when found early the following morning was in convulsions and died shortly after.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller of Hawthorne were entertained as evening guests by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ross.

Donald Ross who recently had the misfortune to break one of his legs is convalescing nicely. His little sister, Ruth, has been ill for several days.

Mrs. Fay Fuller who recently was operated upon at the Santa Ana Valley hospital, was to have returned home Monday, but owing to a slight turn in her condition was not able to come that day.

Normand and Donald Harding, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Harding, are convalescing most satisfactorily from tonsil operations at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bauer and family were at San Juan Hot Springs for the day, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fields and daughter, Virginia, and nephew, Harrell Howard, of San Bernardino, were week end visitors with relatives in Bolsa and Silver Acres.

Mrs. George Pysden and Mrs. John Farnsworth attended a meeting of the "Willing Workers" society held Wednesday, at the Newport Beach home of Mrs. Fred McIntee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gizson were visitors Sunday at San Juan Hot Springs.

The two new residences which are being erected by Louis Bauer, one on Bolsa boulevard, the other on Wright street, are progressing quite rapidly, one being ready for the finishing work, the other just going into the hands of the plasterers.

STANTON

STANTON, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson and their daughter Betty Lou attended the wedding of Carl Brown and Miss Olive Hirst of Long Beach on Sunday. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist church and was followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brown of Long Beach are moving to their new home recently built on Second street, of the Star subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Crockets of Hawthorne are spending a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thompson.

Mr. T. W. Clark is building a pergola and making other improvements to his ranch home. He expects to build a cottage at Lagune Beach this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reckinger had for Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. James McArdle and Mr. and Mrs. C. Wuytens of Long Beach. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Reckinger entertained 22 friends from Long Beach, Ventura, Norwalk and Cypress to a chicken barbecue at Irvine Park.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Rutledge, and two daughters Mary Jane and Katherine and Frank Rutledge drove to San Diego on Saturday to visit an aunt, Mrs. Charles Kernan. Mary Jane and Katherine Rutledge in company with young people from Orange spent two days this week at Balboa Beach.

Mrs. A. Minder of Lincoln boulevard gave a 1 o'clock three-course luncheon on Thursday. The home was beautifully decorated with large dahlias and other garden flowers. Those enjoying the event were Mrs. A. Quarten, Mrs. G. Mender, Mrs. R. Bennett, Mrs. A Hartlet and Mrs. H. Barnes. Mrs. Mender was assisted by her two daughters, Elaine and Bernice.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. W J. Chappelka of Redlands visited Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Johnson one day last week. Another day Mr. and Mrs. Johnson drove to Oceanside to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Curtis and two daughters started back to their home at Watsonville after spending a week with relatives here and at Fullerton. Before they left a beach party was given them Friday evening at Balboa Beach by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gillison, Mrs. M. B. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maurer entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fulscher of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Powell and Mr. and Mrs. M. Hughs of Long Beach. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Maurer and son Walter Maurer visited his sister, Mrs. Etta Barnhart of Los Angeles.

William Mrowfka, who has been in the Orange County hospital with infantile paralysis is out at work driving a team. It is reported that Walter Bitner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bitner is improving and that the paralysis has all left his body.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Surber of San Diego visited her two sisters and their families recently, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sitko and Mr. and Mrs. R. Stump.

Mrs. W. A. McKibben of Los Angeles is visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. F. McKibben a few days this week.

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a Daily Essential and Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one simple thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexion. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, such as bran muffins, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

The sights in Bagdad all seemed queer. "Oh, my, what funny people here," said Clowny. "They're not dressed like us at all. I wonder why. The flowing gowns in which they dress keep them all pretty hot, I guess. Yet they all seem real comfortable as they go walking by."

"They're used to it and do not mind," the Travel Man replied. "You'll find that when you're used to anything it always seems all right. No doubt they also smile at you 'cause they don't wear the clothes you do. In little suits like Tinies wear, you likely look a sight."

Then Scouty broke right in and cried. "Well, anyway, I'm satisfied! Come on, let's look around a bit and see what we can see. Some of the buildings look like clay. I'd think they'd crack and fall away. And, gee, how strange the streets all look. They're narrow as can be." They walked around beneath the sun until it ceased to be much fun. "Hey, this is much too hot for me," said Coppy, with a sigh. "If you all want to walk a bit, I'll wait here. In the shade I'll sit." "Oh, no! We're going to rest up too," he heard the others cry.

They sat for just a little while. Then Coppy broke out in a smile. "Oh, look!" said he. "I see a stream. I'll bet it's cool down there." "Why, that's the Tigris river, lad," replied the Travel Man. "I'm glad that we are right near by it. Come, I have a plan that's rare."

They reached the shore and all took note of quite a funny looking boat. Instead of like the usual boat, 'twas absolutely round. "Hop in," the Travel Man cried out. "We find what this is all about." And, so they did and shortly on a river trip were bound.

Missing Letter Links

RULES:

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

KEEP to BACK—Give your opponent a chance and KEEP BACK while he's trying to make this par four hole.

MANAGER WITHOUT LICENSE

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—James S. Dean, city manager of Sacramento, is learning rapidly about law and other matters connected with government.

While traveling along the state highway near here the other evening he was stopped by a traffic officer, who notified him that one of his headlights was out. Then the officer discovered that Dean had no driver's license.

EL MODENA

EL MODENA, July 25.—Friends here have received word of the birth of a baby son to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noble of Bloomington, Monday, July 21, at the Colton hospital. Mrs. Noble before her marriage was Miss Florence Carlton, a resident of El Modena.

The many local friends of Mrs. E. H. Klaustermeyer will be gald to learn she is improving very satisfactory considering the seriousness of her illness. She will remain in the Bondes sanitarium at 801 Prospect avenue, South Pasadena for several weeks. The Woman's Missionary Society of El Modena of which Mrs. Klaustermeyer is a member joined by friends recently tendered her with a post card shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Noral Evans of North Alameda street are enjoying a motor trip of several weeks. In Portland and Condon, Oregon they will visit with Mrs. Evans' relatives.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, July 25. — Honors were awarded local Camp Fire Girls on nature study at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Marie Hare. The girls have been studying birds, trees, grass and seashells and each of the group passed the necessary test to win the honors. The members present were Mary Lou Hare, Annabelle Day, Hattie Annis Edward, Ilamae Hensley, Virginia Ferguson, Rose Basse, Vallery Snow.

R. O. Prichard is on vacation and he and his family are spending it on various trips. One day they motored to Tia Juana, spending the day in company with friends from Long Beach, who joined them on the trip, and Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Prichard and family left for Ventura where they are spending several days with former Oklahoma friends.

Miss Fay McCall, who has been spending a vacation at Burbank where she was entertained by relatives, has returned home.

MIDWAY CITY

MIDWAY CITY, July 25.—There are two new families residing in Midway City. L. B. Johnson and bride, who came here from Huntington Beach are occupying a house on Jackson street, and Mr. and Mrs. Sage have rented a house on North Jackson street and have moved here. Sage is an employee of an oil concern.

Rolland Hazard who is convalescing from a lingering siege of typhoid fever, was allowed to sit up for the first time Monday.

A party composed of Miss Helen Shirey of Midway City, Harry Stephenson of Huntington Beach, Miss Ethel Osbourn of Sunset Beach and Bill Adair of San Diego, motored to Irvine park Tuesday evening, where they enjoyed a steak bake and spent the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall were afternoon guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Whittet of Roosevelt street, Monday afternoon and were entertained at dinner that evening.

Miss Helen Shirey was of a group of five young women who were entertained as overnight guests at a houseparty given by Miss Mirna Richie at her Long Beach home. The evening was spent attending a dance at Balboa and the following day on the "pike" at Long Beach.

Monday evening Mrs. W. D. Shirey and daughter attended a golden wedding anniversary reception in Huntington Beach in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Markers.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, July 25.—Mrs. Blanche Platt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murdy, who is ill at her home in Safford, Ariz., was reported as in a most serious condition in the last word received by her relatives. Mrs. Murdy returned from Safford but a week ago.

Mrs. Harry Penhall and Mrs. Clyde Day visited at the Orange County hospital where Mrs. Penhall's young niece, Audrene Worthy of Covina, is a patient with infantile paralysis. This little girl's left leg is affected by the disease which she contracted while the family were at their summer cottage at Laguna Beach. She is improving most satisfactorily and no permanent effects of the disease is expected to be left, according to the attending physician.

Mrs. John M. Angell is regretting the disappearance of the family pet, a small cream colored spitz Eskimo dog which was highly prized. The dog, which had never been known to leave the place, was last seen the evening of July 4, when the family went next door to their son's to enjoy the fireworks display and returning home the dog was found missing.

Miss Fay McCall has returned from Burbank where she spent a vacation with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grandy motored to Pasadena Thursday, where they went to see a cousin of Mr. Grandy's who is a patient at a Pasadena hospital where he was operated upon this week following a six months' illness.

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, July 25.—The strength in corn and teh active demand for winter futures at the seaboard gave wheat a strong rally from the inside figures in the latter part of the session on the Board of Trade today and at the close prices had recovered to stand unevenly higher.

Little attention was paid to the reports of Russian export sales. Corn met severe profit taking and some selling on the forecast for unsettled weather, which caused prices to ease slightly but rallied late to again show a strong gain. Oats followed corn and was firm.

At the close wheat was ¼c lower to ⅝c higher, corn was ⅞c to 1⅛c higher nad oats were ⅝c to ½c higher. Provisions were weak.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 25.—(UP)—Trading on the stock exchange came to a standstill today as activity dwindled to around the lowest levels seen since the culmination of the bull movement last fall.

Most of the leaders showed a sagging tendency but a closing rally lifted the market to its previous closing level.

NEW YORK CURB

NEW YORK, July 25.—(UP)—Strong support in individual issues buoyed up the list on the curb market today and early offerings dried up as prices climbed from the lows reached on selling in the initial dealings.

Specialties were marked for extra attention, with Driver Harris an outstanding feature, spurting almost six points. Tampa Electric was bid up more than two points, while gains of more than a point each were scored by Columbia Pictures and Chemical National Associates, which responded to renewed buying.

Leaders in the public utility division encountered support on an early dip ad net advances ranging from fractions to more than a point took place in Electric Bond & Share, American Gas, United Light A and American superpower. Northern States Power was a feature of the high priced issues with this market gaining three points.

A better tone developed in the oils as a result of covering and a little buying attracted by the declines of the last few sesions. Humble and Ohio new advanced fractionally. Investment trusts were lethargic and backed and filled in a narrow range, with Goldman Sachs in supply at a fractional concessions.

Weakness in American Fork & Hoe was a feature of the industrial section. This issue attracted considerable realizing after its recent upturn. Deere & Company and Ford, Ltd., were freely offered and declined fractionally.

NEW YORK BONDS

Seaboard All Florida 6s wree in demand around noon and this issue firmed up 1¼ points. Gains ranging from ½ to more tha a point were registered in such issues as Missouri Pacific 4s, Seaboard 6s, New York Central 5½s and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific 4½s. Atchison 4½s rallied from a recent depression and firmed up more than a point.

After a firm opening, foreign obligations developed irregular tendencies and this list presented a ragged appearance, as leading European issues suffered fractional losses. United States loans were quiet and steady.

The lethargic condition which has typified the industrial list for the past several days continued in today's session and trading was confined to a handful of standard issues, which held firm, oils and amusements wavering irregularly, but few securities moved out of a narrow price range. Utilities appeared slightly firmer as leading bonds of this class made advances under leadership of American Telephone & Telegraph 4½s, up more than a point.

L. A. STOCKS

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(UP)—An exceptionally dull market with prices fractionally off on what few sales were made, was experienced on the Los Angeles stock and curb exchanges today.

Transamerica, with little buying interest going its way, dropped off to 24¼ after having opened at 25⅜. Standard was off one half to 62 on a few small block shares.

Globe Milling dropped 1 point to 21 with 300 shares going at the last quoted figure. Banks and industrials were inactive, receiving only occasional bids but being held for higher.

New York money was at 2 percent.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, July 25.—(UP)—Foreign exchange closed irregular.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION
No. 2218

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SANTA ANA, DECLARING THEIR INTENTION TO ORDER THE PAVING AND OTHERWISE IMPROVING OF PORTIONS OF PARTON STREET, ST. ANDREW'S PLACE, BROADWAY, SYCAMORE STREET, BIRCH STREET AND ROSS STREET, DECLARING THE SAID WORK AND IMPROVEMENT TO BE OF MORE THAN LOCAL OR ORDINARY PUBLIC BENEFIT; DECLARING THE DISTRICT TO BE BENEFITED THEREBY AND TO BE ASSESSED TO PAY THE COSTS AND EXPENSES THEREOF; DETERMINING THAT BONDS SHALL BE ISSUED TO REPRESENT SAID COSTS AND EXPENSES, AND FIXING THE TIME AND PLACE FOR HEARING OBJECTIONS TO SAID WORK OR IMPROVEMENT, OR TO THE EXTENT OF THE DISTRICT TO BE ASSESSED, OR BOTH.

The City Council of the City of Santa Ana pursuant to the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911, and the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, and amendments to said acts, do resolve as follows:

Section 1. That the public interest and convenience requires and it is the intention of the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, California, to order the construction of the following work and improvements in said City, to-wit:

That the portions of streets in the City of Santa Ana upon which work shall be done and improvements made as hereinafter set forth are upon and along those open public streets commonly known as and called Parton Street between the center line of Edinger Street and the Southerly line of Tract No. 289 as recorded in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 14, Page 8, Records of Orange County, California; St. Andrew's Place between the center line of Main Street and the Easterly line of Parton Street; Sycamore Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289; Broadway between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289; Birch Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289 and Ross Street between the Northerly and Southerly lines of said Tract No. 289, excepting however from all of the above described streets any portions thereof which are already improved to the official grade as shown on the plans.

That the work to be done and improvements to be made upon and along the hereinbefore described portions of streets in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor as hereinafter mentioned shall be as follows:

Parton Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Parton Street, together with street intersections within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersections around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

St. Andrew's Place

That the hereinbefore described portion of St. Andrew's Place, together with all street intersections within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersections around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Sycamore Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Sycamore Street, together with street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting streets; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe water services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Broadway

That the hereinbefore described portion of Broadway together with the street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street, and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Birch Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Birch Street, together with street intersection within above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersecting street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Ross Street

That the hereinbefore described portion of Ross Street, together with street intersection within the above described limits, shall be graded and paved with Portland Cement Concrete Pavement, including driveways; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Curbs along the curb lines of said street and at street intersection around curves to intersect the curb lines of said intersection street; the excavation for and construction of Portland Cement Concrete Sidewalks where sidewalks do not now exist; the excavation for and construction of Vitrified Clay Pipe House Connecting Sewers; the excavation for and construction of Copper Pipe Water Services; the excavation for and construction of Wrought Iron Pipe Gas Main, and Wrought Iron Pipe House Service Gas Connections, and all other necessary appurtenances thereto; all as particularly indicated on and in accordance with the plans and specifications hereinafter mentioned.

Plans, Profiles, Cross-Sections and Specifications

Section 2. All of the hereinbefore described streets, together with the foregoing work and improvements are fully set forth, delineated and described on the plans, profiles, cross-sections and detailed drawings known as "The Plans for Assessment District No. 186," and as set forth in the specifications known as "The Specifications for Assessment District No. 186," which plans and specifications are on file in the Office of the City Clerk, and were adopted by Resolution No. 2217 on the 21st day of July, 1930, by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, as the plans, profiles, cross-sections, detailed drawings and specifications for said work and improvement. Said plans, profiles, cross-sections, detailed drawings and specifications are referred to for a full and detailed description of said work and improvement, the same as though set forth in full herein, and shall be directory as to the location of all work to be done, the kind of materials to be used and the type of construction.

Change of Grade

Section 3. That the grade to which the work shall be done and improvement made which is provided for in this Resolution is shown on the profiles therefor on file in the Office of the City Engineer, to which said profiles reference is hereby made for the description of such grade, and it is hereby resolved by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana that the grade shown on the plans and profiles is the official grade to which the work herein ordered shall be done.

Description of Bonds

Section 4. The said City Council does hereby declare and determine and notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum will be issued hereunder in the manner provided in the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915," the last installment of which bonds shall mature nine (9) years from the 2nd day of July next succeeding ten (10) months from their date.

Description of Assessment District

Section 5. That the contemplated work and improvement hereinbefore mentioned is in the opinion of the City Council of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the expense of said work and improvement is made chargeable upon the district hereinafter described, and said City Council does hereby declare said district to be the district benefited by said work and improvement and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, which district is bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Located in the City of Santa Ana, County of Orange, State of California, and described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Main Street with the Easterly extended Northerly line of Tract No. 289, as per map thereof on file in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 14, Page 8, Records of Orange County, California; thence Southerly along the center line of said Main Street to an intersection with the Easterly extended Southerly line of the said Tract No. 289; thence Westerly along the said Easterly extended Southerly line of said Tract No. 289 and along said Southerly line of said Tract to a point distant 125 feet Westerly from the Westerly line of Ross Street; thence Northerly and parallel to the Westerly line of said Ross Street to a point distant 50 feet Southerly from the Southerly line of St. Andrew's Place; thence Westerly and parallel to the Southerly line of said St. Andrew's Place to a point distant 125 feet Easterly from the Easterly line of Parton Street; thence Southerly and parallel to said Easterly line of Parton Street to an intersection with the Southerly line of Tract No. 289; thence Westerly along said Southerly line of Tract No. 289 to a point distant 125 feet Westerly from the Westerly line of said Parton Street; thence Northerly and parallel to the Westerly line of said Parton Street to an intersection with the Northerly line of said Tract No. 289; thence Easterly along the said Northerly line of Tract No. 289 to the Southwesterly corner of Tract No. 531, as per map thereof on file in Miscellaneous Maps, Book 18, Pages 2 and 3, Records of Orange County, California; thence Northerly along the Westerly line of said Tract No. 531 to an intersection with the center line of Edinger Street; thence Easterly along said center line of Edinger Street to a point distant 152.50 feet Easterly from the intersection of the center line of Parton Street with the said center line of Edinger Street; thence Southerly and parallel to the said center line of Parton Street to a point distant 50 feet Northerly from the Northerly line of St. Andrew's Place; thence Easterly and parallel to said Northerly line of St. Andrew's Place to a point distant 125 feet Westerly from the Westerly line of Ross Street; thence Northerly and parallel to said Westerly line of Ross Street to an intersection with the Northerly line of Tract No. 289; thence Easterly along said Northerly line of Tract No. 289 and the Easterly extension thereof to the point of beginning.

Time and Place of Hearing

Section 6. Notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of August, 1930, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. in the Council Chamber of the City Hall of said City of Santa Ana any and all persons having any objections to the proposed work or improvement may appear before the said City Council and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this Resolution.

That all persons desiring to so appear should file with the City Clerk of the City of Santa Ana before the hour herein set a written protest against the said work or the assessment district proposed to be assessed, or both.

Publication of Resolution of Intention

Section 7. The Santa Ana Daily Evening Register, a daily newspaper published and circulated and of general circulation in the City of Santa Ana is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published and the City Clerk of said City is hereby directed to cause this Resolution of Intention to be published by two insertions in said newspaper, in the manner and form required by law. The City Council does not deem it advisable that the Clerk mail copies of the notice of improvement to owners or reputed owners, and he is not required to mail the same.

Posting of Notices of Improvement

Section 8. The Street Superintendent of said City shall, after the adoption of this Resolution of Intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along the lines of said contemplated work or improvement and along all the open streets and alleys within the hereinbefore described assessment district, notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention, in the manner and form required by law.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution of Intention was duly and regularly introduced and passed by the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, at a regular meeting thereof held on the 21st day of July, 1930, by the following vote, to-wit:

THE HARBOR PROPOSITION

It is interesting to watch developments on the proposed vote for bonds of a million and a half dollars for Newport Harbor. Newport Beach and Costa Mesa rolled up a big vote against the proposed dam in Santa Ana canyon, and since that time suggestions and plans have been rife for deals to induce this group to be favorable to the bonds the next time they are presented.

Rumor is quite strong that the powers which "are," are fully determined to try to put the same proposition to a vote over again, and they are confident that they cannot do it unlesss the vote at Newport and Costa Mesa shall have changed its mind. How to get it to change its mind has been the problem.

Finally out of it has come the suggestion that the Board of Supervisors call an election for $1,500,000 bonds for the harbor, and that the resolution be passed through the Associated Chambers of Commerce so as to give the proper background for the Board of Supervisors to take the legal action.

It is so perfectly patent and obvious that in a vote at this time there would not even be a start toward a respectable showing unless something else were tacked to it, and so it is proposed that the bonds shall not be voted or the money made available until the United States government has agreed to match this money. With this condition, it is suggested that they might get some votes in the northern section of the county, even in places where heretofore there has been an antagonistic vote to bonds.

But here a rather interesting situation develops. Those who are thoroughly conversant with the situation and know the inside facts concerning the harbor possibilities know that the Federal government will not put money into any harbor or proposed harbor until there is a demand for it by commercial interests that need it. They also know that there is no such demand and that no such demand can be created until Newport harbor has become a harbor of some commercial importance by its own activities or the activity of the county. This would mean that whatever money was available from the county would be held up indeterminately, maybe for 20 years, maybe for 50 and maybe for 100 years.

Some have even gone to the extent of actually suggesting that the government will aid this, when they know that there is not the remotest possibility of its being done.

Some months ago Major W. H. Lanagan, United States District Engineer at Los Angeles spoke to quite a group in Newport Beach after having made a survey of the harbor. He complimented Newport Beach on its enterprise, but very frankly told them that they could expect nothing from the government until there was a demand from those who desired such facilities, which now San Pedro was taking care of on the one side of them and San Diego on the other. He urged them to develop their harbor as a pleasure and yachting harbor. It was felt by those who listened to him that he was rather brutally frank, and particularly when he stated that there was no policy in effect in the government by which they would pay dollar for dollar for harbor development.

We ourselves had been favoring such a project because we had been informed that there was such a possibility, but on investigation we found that the only manner in which the Newport harbor can reach a point where government aid can be secured is for it to be developed to receive shipping, which in turn might demand aid from the government but that condition is preliminary to activity by the government, for the government will use its money for rivers and harbors at those points where already there is a demand. Hence to attach this condition to a vote would be simply to "horn-swoggle" Newport Beach and tie up any possibilities of our getting county aid forever. We doubt if Newport Beach herself will accept as a friendly gesture a bond issue coupled with this restriction.

To put this condition on the bonds is to put a joker in it at this time, and as a matter of fact, undoubtedly the leaders know this. Newport Beach leaders are rather shrewd and we have serious doubts whether they will accept such a proposition from either the Associated Chambers of Commerce or the Board of Supervisors in any belief that they are in earnest about furnishing money from the county for Newport harbor.

Many of the ones who favor the proposition of the bond election for Newport harbor, in the interest of getting their vote for a dam in the lower Santa Ana feel that if such a bond issue did pass, to take $1,500,000 just at this time out of the pockets of the taxpayers, would militate against any larger bond vote to follow.

The only way they can win in their proposed plan is to have the bonds defeated and yet make Newport Beach believe that the whole business was in good faith. We believe that some day it may be possible to vote sufficient money for the development of Newport harbor to complete the job thoroughly. We are confident that a million and a half dollars will not do it. We are among those who believe that eventually an amount necessary could be voted from the county itself. We would like to see an arrangement made whereby the Federal government would take the direction of its development and expenditure, but unfortunately Washington is not as interested as we are in the development of Newport harbor.

If, as it seems to be, it is impossible to get the aid from Washington, we want to say that we are frankly for the Newport harbor bonds in the county for a sufficient amount to really put the enterprise over.

We do not believe that the time is now. We believe it would cost nearer three million dollars than $1,500,000. If, however, those in authority submit the matter to a vote and hence say that now is the right time to put over a bond issue for Newport harbor in good faith, cutting out the meaningless restrictions in the light of the facts, and putting up an amount that will guarantee that the job will be done, and a further guarantee that the money will be expended under the direction of a business-like, non-political group of harbor commissioners, we would support a project, in spite of the fact that our own judgment would be that the chances are so remote that the expenses of an election would appear to be folly.

In the meantime while some are spending their time in discussion and using the whole matter as political football, Newport Beach itself is proceding to develop its harbor for yachting purposes to such an extent that it is attracting yachtsmen from the whole Pacific Coast, and the largest regatta ever conducted at Newport Beach will be held there the forepart of this coming month.

We believe in the meantime that all enterprises demanding bonds should be considered strictly on their merits. We do not believe in buying votes of cities or groups through a proposition to them of aid in return for votes for some other enterprise.

RADIO PROPAGANDA

Germany complains of Russian propaganda over the radio, and respectfully asks the Soviet government to stop it. Fortunately, we are not near enough to be troubled by radio propaganda from the Soviet government. Just how we could stop it, were it possible, would be quite another question. We recall that after the French revolution got started, the leaders of that movement announced to the world that the soldiers of France were at the service of any people who wished to overthrow their tyrant rulers. In the early history of our own country, when democracy was still in the experimental stage, and was feared by kings and nobles in Europe much as the Soviet ideals are feared today, our national leaders announced to the world that freedom of asylum was to be had in this country for all revolutionists who were exiled for their political opinions. It was in answer to that announcement that Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian revolutionist, received such a cordial welcome in this country, and was actually welcomed by the President of the United States in person.

There is a wholesale principle which has been advanced to the effect that truth must have an open market, and that in the open market it will always win its way. If democracy is the best form of government, and we believe it is, we do not look for its overthrow by any system that the mind of man may devise. The danger is that democracy may be overthrown from within. There are those in our midst, men who hold high position in the councils of the nation, who assert that democracy is in danger from an invisible government which is more powerful than the chosen representatives of the people.

We are not yet ready to concede that proposition; but as a possibility we would do well to guard against it. People are not at all inclined to revolt against what is for their good, and it is because we believe that on the whole this government is still a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, that we are not disturbed by any propaganda let loose upon us. But we should not forget the old maxim, that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

France and Italy Take a Holiday

Christian Science Monitor

Rarely has an international arrangement of such potential import been concluded with the modesty and discretion which has characterized the declaration of a naval holiday by France and Italy. It would seem that the authorities were chiefly concerned to minimize its significance. The press on both sides of the Alps was disposed to treat cessation competitive ship-building as a trivial incident or mere gesture. But it is apparent that the first steps have been taken toward a rapprochment of the two countries—a consummation greatly desired, not only by men of good will in Europe but in the whole world, for the whole world is deeply affected by the danger of naval rivalry in the Mediterranean.

Incidentally, the last doubt as to ratification of the three-power pact of London should vanish for the safeguarding or "escape" reservation now becomes for the time being a mere formality.

Negotiations between France and Italy will doubtless be difficult, and it would be well not to begin to count chickens before they are hatched. But the significance of this truce, accepted with sincerity by both sides, is that negotiations can now be pursued in a greatly improved atmosphere. Hitherto all effort to adjust the French and Italian viewpoints have proved fruitless. Now they have suddenly culminated in an agreement that makes possible further substantial agreements. The indispensable preliminary to accord is assured, and there is no reason why the new manifestation of desire for peace shoud not result in a solid pact of friendship which will be hailed with joy.

Italy suggested a twelve months' naval vacation. France felt that circumstances were unpropitious and suspected maneuver. The demand for naval parity and the denial of naval parity dominated respective policies. But at last, very quietly, Aristide Briand announced a six months' holiday without attaching conditions, and when this announcement was put in official form to Italy that country in its turn announced that it would imitate France. What better promise for dissipation of the cloud that has brooded darkly over the Alps could there be? The outlook changes overnight in consequence of this mutual consent to abandon rivalry for half a year, in which no pains will be spared to settle outstanding problems. Indeed, the trouble between France and Italy has not been so much specific problems as opposing sentiments, and now that better sentiments prevail the prospect brightens.

This happy beginning is due in a certain measure to British good offices. No country can afford to look on unmoved and immobile at the misunderstandings of others. There is an unquestionable solidarity of interests that demands tactful and friendly intervention. There cannot be private disputes between two nations. Thus thought the British Government, and it has worked unremittingly to bring about a suitable compromise. To give credit to Great Britain is in no wise to detract from that due both France and Italy for setting aside a largely imaginary quarrel in order to apply themselves to the settlement of tangible differences.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE SAME OLD BREED

I met a man the other day
Who mourned the good old times,
When daring bandits got away
With bold and clever crimes.
"The crooks that we have now," he said
"Are of a craven breed,
They just blow off a person's head
And take the cash they need.
But history will leave them out;
When all is said and done,
There's nothing picturesque about
A gangster with a gun."

But maybe when young Jesse James
Played wild romantic pranks
Like looting western gambling games
And robbing country banks,
The folks he blackjacked, robbed or shot
To gratify some whim,
Or personal dislike could not
See any charm in him.
For in the west, as in the slums,
When crooks run far and free
You'll find the picturesque becomes
Exteremely hard to see.

And if the James boys lived today
And plied their deadly trade,
Along the Kaw, or on Broadway
Their fame would swiftly fade,
And everybody would declare
That they were human dregs
And swiftly ought to get the chair
As low-browed murdering yeggs.
Though history, beyond a doubt
Is filled with false report,
There's nothing picturesque about
A crook of any sort.

Quantity Production of Quality

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

"What would happen to America," asks a critic of mass production, "if quality instead of quantity became the style?"

Did the household slave who once toiled all day over one copper kettle turn out a better product that the mechanical slave which now presides over a hundred vats of Ivory soap?

Did Abe Lincoln make better fences with his split rails than we make by machinery today? Or did the rails merely represent more hard labor?

Mass production in America has all but banished the idea that nothing can be well done unless it is laboriously done. Machines not only make more goods than we can make by hand; as a rule, machines make better goods.

Utility must be served. To the extent that machines meet the requirements of utility, men are released to consider the claims of beauty. But do they?

The New England Council is holding a series of "Art in Industry" conferences. Color and style, we are told, are revolutionizing merchandising methods. Industry, which used to have millions for utility, but not one cent for tribute to beauty, is getting line-and-color-conscious. Manufacturers know that beautiful advertisements pay. Why, they ask, shouldn't beautiful products pay?

Once American Industry becomes convinced that beauty pays, it will produce beauty. Our European critics will be the first to admit that.

But Industry will not forsake mass production. It will produce quality goods in quantity.

Little Benny's Note Book by Lee Pape

This afternoon I saw a dime laying in the street neer the cerb, and just when I was going to pick it up all excited a horse that was standing there put one foot on it and kepp it there.

Proberly being a good thing for men my hand wasent there at the same time, and I thawt, O well, Ill just wait till he takes it off again.

Wich he kepp on not doing. Being a brown horse attached to a white laundry wagon, and just then who came up but Lucky Leroy Shooster. Being the luckiest guy around, and I thawt, Heck, if he's here when the horse takes his foot off he'll be just lucky enough to grab before I do and get it.

And I sed, Are you going somewheres, Lucky?

Meening not to stop on my account, and he sed, Not specially, whats you standing here for?

O, I just thawt Id stand here a while, I sed. Its not such a comfortable place but Im here now. Im libel to stand here for a hour yet, I sed.

O well, Ill stand here a while, theres no place elts I wunt to be so I mite as well, Lucky said.

Wich just then the horse took his foot up and put it down another place, and here what was the dime was but only a little round bunk of tin the same size, me saying, Aw, gosh shang the luck.

Whats a matter? Leroy Shooster sed, and I sed, I thawt I saw something but I dident.

Wich just then the laundry man jumped in his wagon saying, Heres a tennis ball for one of you kids, it must of bounced in my waggon somehow.

And he quick threw it and Lucky cawt it while I was still getting my breth.

In the Long Ago

From the Register Files 14 Years Ago Today

JULY 25, 1916

Miss Norma Wingood was a most charming hostess in the Gould home of North Main street recently, when she entertained a group of her young college friends, honoring Miss Irene Hall, from Pomona College.

Thirteen loyal hearted painters of Santa Ana gave $1 a piece to the fund that is to be used for the aid of families dependent upon members of Co. L., with J. W. Shields circulating the subscription list.

Unfavorable reports of road conditions in the Santa Ana canyon are brought back by F. E. Hallman of Orange, who took the newly-finished road en route to Hemet Saturday. He advises all motorists to stay away from the canyon roads, especially those near Riverside, if possible.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Johnson for Senator Club will be held at Da. Ball's office in the Spurgeon block this evening to arrange for Gov. Johnson's visit to Orange county next Thursday.

Thoughts On Modern Life

MATTER-OF-FACT MIRACLES

Every day I grow less interested in arguments about the possibility or impossibility of the miracles accredited to the saints and seers of antiquity.

I have had my hour of sophomoric skepticism when I laughed at the ludicrous credulity of the village elder who took the folklore of far-off days seriously.

Today I pick up my morning paper and find a former Federal Radio Commissioner, O. H. Caldwell, casually listing the following achievements of contemporary scientists:

"In Pittsburg, a public school has its lights automatically switched on, when dusk or a passing storm makes it dark inside.

"In Boston, a hotel waiter carrying a loaded tray, approaches a service door, and it magically swings open in front of him.

"In Washington, experimenters use airplanes literally as the eyes of the army, so that headquarters back of the lines may 'see for itself' the situation in the enemy's camps.

"In New York, a concert of new electrical musical instruments produces tones and harmonies of a timbre and sweetness never heard before by human ear.

"In Chicago, crime is combated by instruments which detect whether a suspect is telling the truth, by revealing the microscopic sweat in the palms of the suspect's hands, if he attempts to dissemble."

And a dozen other things more amazing!

I cannot worry about ancient miracles until I have come to understand the modern ones.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

MAKING YOUNGSTERS OBEY

Tommie is four and a half and sturdy for his years. He plays hard and even a full day in the open leaves him with surplus energy to spend. He decided to use some of it in kicking his grandmother's shins.

"Tommie, Tommie, what are you doing? Why, you will hurt your granny."

"I didn't hurt her. Did I, granny?"

"Yes, you did. It hurts to be kicked like that. Little boys never kick anybody, especially grandmothers. You must never do that again."

That was all for that time but the next time came very closely upon the heels of the first. Grandmother lifted him to her lap and explained very carefully about kicking people, or animals, or anything whatever. "Little boys keep their feet on the ground. Never, never kick anybody or anything. Nice people never do so."

But the very next time that Tommie felt the urge to kick he kicked. Mother signalled to grandmother with her eyes and grandmother signalled back. She would try once more. "Tommie, you must not kick grandmother. I have told you that several times. It is very, very naughty. It is bad. The boys on the street won't speak to you if you do that."

"Yes they will too," said Tommie, scrambling back to the floor in angry protest. "They like me and they will to speak to me," and again he kicked at his grandmother. This time he missed his mark. It wasn't there. Grandmother had moved just an instant before and Tommie found himself lifted high, laid over grandmother's knee and smartly spanked. It hurt. Tommie cried loudly and ran to his mother for comfort. "Mean granny. She spanked me hard."

"And served you right. She is going to spank you good every time you lift your foot to her. Remember that. If she needs any help I'll be on hand to help her. The idea of a boy kicking his grandmother makes me sick. We tried to tell you how shameful it was for a boy to kick his grandmother but you were so stupid that we couldn't teach you. So we spanked you. If you had been an intelligent child you would have avoided the spanking. Only stupid children have to be spanked. Served you right."

This long speech was not made all at once. It was made while mother ran her small son to the bathroom, turned on the cold water, soaped the washrag, and rubbed and rubbed and rinsed with cold water the hands and face of the discomfited warrior.

Far be it from me to dispute grandmother's method. I agree that when a child insists that he is within his rights when he kicks his grandmother, or his mother, he needs to know how it feels to be hurt. Experience of pain may help him to understand that he inflicts it. We cannot hope to have him understand the higher reasons involved in the treatment of his mother and grandmother. They will come later if he is trained to the knowledge of the fundamental one. No gentleman, no lady, ever kicks anybody, or any living thing.

LEWIS AND CLARK

On July 25, 1805, the Lewis and Clark expedition discovered the three forks of the Missouri river and named them the Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin.

The party, consisting of Meriwether Lewis, William Clark and 27 other men, had started from the vicinity of St. Louis in May of that year.

After reaching the three forks, the explorers proceeded up the Jefferson, crossed the Rocky Mountains in September, then went down the Columbia river and, on Nov. 7, came in sight of the Pacific ocean.

They spent the winter on the coast and started the return journey on March 23, 1806, and arrived in St. Louis in September of that year, having traveled a distance of nearly 8500 miles.

For more than a year the explorers had been out off from all communication with the outside world and suffered terrible hardships. However, they collected a mass of valuable information about the physical characteristics of the country, its climate and the Indian tribes.

The expedition was commemorated in 1905 by the Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Ore.
